When Winter Comes

A "Snowmobile" used in the Maritime Provinces

DOWN in the Maritime Provinces the Canadian Ford wear snow shoes. Here is a Ford "Snowmobile" all set for a hard winter. Proof that it will get over the roads no matter how high the drifts may be is furnished by Captain Donald McMillan, the famous Arctic explorer, who was first to use a "snowmobile" in the Far North. With his Ford thus equipped he travelled nearly two thousand miles over ice on one expedition, at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour. This, of course, is far better than dogs can do in ordinary circumstances. The McMillan "snowmobile" has a tractor tread and runners.

A Model A Ford, such as that shown in the accompanying illustration, is used by a lumber concern in the Maritime Provinces. It travels regularly over a rough wood road at ten miles an hour. Another used by a large hotel, accomplished a speed of twenty-five to thirty miles an hour with ease on well built roads on which, however, three or four feet of snow has accumulated.

The "snowmobile" has skis where the front wheels ordinarily would be. Heavy chains furnish traction for the rear wheels no matter how deep the snow may be. A Ford dealer has just reported that one such car regularly carries five passengers over a wood road to a lumber camp.

Smith - Acheson

The wedding was solemnized in her Park Hotel Church, Toronto, on Dec. 28, 1929, by Florence daughter of Mr. Jas. Alexander Acheson and the late Mrs. Acheson of Markdale, Ont., and Mr. E. Russell Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith of La Have, Nova Scotia. Rev. G. D. Kendall, B. A., officiating. The bride wore a French dress of grey silk flat-crepe and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and lily of the valley.

After the ceremony a hearty dinner was served in the roof garden of the Royal York Hotel. Later the young couple left for a short wedding trip to London and Detroit, the bride travelling in a grey coat of media cloth with lynx trimming with hat and shoes to match.

On their return they will reside at 3279 Yonge St., Toronto.

Mrs. Coverdale Patterson Dies After Long Illness

(Dundalk Herald)

Death came as a relief from many months of suffering to Mrs. Coverdale Patterson, her demise occurring early Friday morning at her late home on Victoria Avenue. Her long illness was borne with great patience, though doctors gave little hope of a permanent recovery. She will be much missed in the home, where she has been an affectionate mother.

Mrs. Patterson was born in Bodo, Norway, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson. About twenty years ago she came to Markdale district, where she was married to her now bereft husband. For seven years they farmed in Alberta, but five years ago moved to Dundalk.

Left to mourn are her husband, two sons and three daughters; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson of Bodo, Norway; a sister, Mrs. John Sellers, of Davidson, Sask.; two sisters and one brother in Norway. Funeral service was conducted in the United Church at 2 p.m. on Monday, Rev. E. Baker being in charge. The text of a comforting sermon was taken from Psalm 138: "I behaved myself as though he had been my special or brother; I bowed down leaving as one that mourneth for his mother."

The burial was postponed in mortuary chapel in Dundalk cemetery, and was held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, with Rev. E. Baker in charge. The pallbearers were: Allan Mohr, Fred. Clear, Harry Hall, Jack McKay, Ray Crummitt, R. A. Gilmore.

Present from a distance for the funeral included Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Johnson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Patterson, Mrs. W. Heaton, Mrs. A. McArthur, all of Priceville; Mrs. Aubrey Foster and Mrs. Morewood of Markdale; Mrs. J. J. Patterson, Geelong; Mrs. H. Minnis, Mrs. Madill and Sam Madill, of Berkeley; Mark Madill, Indian Head, Sask. The floral offerings were as follows: Pillow from the family; length, Mrs. Sellers Davidson, Sask.; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Patterson; spray, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Patterson; spray, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Gillespie.

Hockey Match

Durham 6 Markdale 2

At Durham on Monday night the local hockey team was defeated by the strong Durham aggregation in an intermediate fixture, the score being 6 to 2. In spite of the soft ice the game was a good one and Markdale's youngsters put up a real good game. Some of the boys spent about eight hours on the road home as they were out in the rain all night. The roads were almost impassable and the horses were down on several occasions. The others, who went over with Brackenbury's snow car from Flesherton, returned by train Tuesday afternoon leaving the car in Durham until the roads improve. The teams were:

Markdale—Goal, Wright; defence, McTavish, Johnston; centre, Nuhn; wings, McCutcheon and Singleton; subs, Kelly, Noble and Perkins.
Durham—Goal, McDonald; defence, Wilson and Shell; centre, McGirr; wings, Elvidge and Buschlen; subs, Rowe, Kress, McArthur.

Annexes Ladies' Aid

The Annual Meeting of the Ladies' Aid of Annexes Church was held at the Parsonage on Tuesday afternoon. Reports of the year's work were presented, which were highly commended. A membership of 50 was reported and some $777 raised by the activities of the society and $590 by special canvass for the Decoration Fund of the church, of which some $1080 was turned over to the church treasurer on the Disposition Account.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows:
President, Mrs. J. E. Walker.
Vice-Pres., Mrs. Clara Wiley.
Secretary, Mrs. E. G. Noble.
Treasurer, Mrs. C. E. Armstrong.
Parsonage Committee, Mrs. S. Henry, Mrs. M. Armstrong and Mrs. A. Acheson.
Sunshine Committee, Mrs. C. W. Bowler, Mrs. A. Rusk and Mrs. R. L. Cardfoot.
Visiting Committee, Mrs. S. Henry and Mrs. W. N. Barnside.
A special vote of thanks was passed regarding the work of the President, who for ten years has held office, and the ladies were gratified when Mrs. Walker was induced to take the presidency for yet another year.
