Quite a drove of cattle were shipped off the East Backline last week, numbering 29 head from 2 miles and a half.

Cheeseville

The Cheeseville Euchre Club were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Foster on Jan. 8th, this being their first meeting of the year. The Club runs seven tables and consists of the Cheeseville neighborhood. Mrs. H. Walker was the winner of the lady's prize and George Swanton the man's. The Club met again last Friday night the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Swanton. Although quite stormy there were thirty-three turned out to spend a social evening together. The first prizes were won by Mrs. E. Davis and Mr. Russell Foster.

The teachers of the primary classes in the United Church Sunday School gave the little tots, numbering 35, a treat of sandwiches, cookies and candy. The teachers, Mrs. W. Miller, Miss Tena Henderson, Mrs. W. J. Armstrong and Mrs. H. McCauley, assisted by Miss Helen Heard, are deserving great credit for their faithfulness and good work in the Sunday School.

On Thursday, Jan. 23rd, the annual meeting of the congregation of St. John's United Church was held. Rev. Mr. Scott presided. Splendid reports were presented by the various organizations. A vote of appreciation was passed expressing the goodwill of the congregation to the pastor for his faithful and untiring efforts for the spiritual welfare of all. We hope and pray that 1930 may be the best year the church has ever seen and that many may be awakened to their responsibilities in connection with the work of the church so that the pastor will be encouraged and assisted.

The Men's Club of the United Church, recently organized with Dr. C. C. Murray as president, held their first meeting on Monday, Jan. 27th, it being the 171st anniversary of the birthday of Robbie Burns, the poet. Mr. John McQuaker of Owen Sound was present and gave an address on Scotland. This was illustrated with lantern slides and was both interesting and instructive. Lunch was served by the men at the close.
