Former Artemesia Couple Married Sixty Years

On Jan. 1, 1870—sixty years ago—Mr. and Mrs. Artemesia were married in the village of Woodstock, Ontario. Mrs. Artemesia, now Mrs. Theo. McKee, of the late village of Woodstock, was the bride, and Mr. Artemesia, now Mr. Theo. McKee, was the groom. The wedding was a simple affair, but because the bride was the daughter of a prominent family, it attracted a large number of guests. The McKee family has been prominent in the community since that time.

On Monday, Jan. 20th, 1930, their home was "en fête" in the afternoon and evening for the celebration of the Diamond Wedding and during which they were surrounded by their children. Mr. McKee's sister, Mrs. Jerry Thompson of Collingwood, was present for the occasion.

We are glad to report that this 60th anniversary found Mr. and Mrs. McKee hale and hearty to enter into the happy nature of the event. In the evening the people of the community and the L. O. L. of which Mr. McKee is a member assembled at their home and a very pleasant time was spent.

The outstanding feature of the auspicious anniversary repast provided was the three-story wedding cake artistically decorated to suit the occasion. Flowers were in profusion, and the dinner was of a high order. The guests were entertained with the best of hospitality and the evening was a most enjoyable one.
