

Mrs. W. A. Armstrong

Friends here have received news of the death of Mrs. William A. Armstrong which took place on Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Perkins of Toronto, with whom she made her home.

The deceased had been seriously ill since the beginning of the year and her death was not unexpected.

The late Mrs. Armstrong whose maiden name was Elizabeth Walker, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Walker of Woodstock, where she was born and brought up. In early life she married the late W. A. Brown. Shortly after their marriage they came to Markdale where, until his death, Mr. Brown carried on a general hardware business. In 1923 she Brown married Mr. W. A. Armstrong of Owen Sound. At the time of her death, Mr. Armstrong was a member of the Library Board. He was a member of the Masonic Order, the Scottish Rite, and J. O. P. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon. Private service at his home at 2 o'clock with public service in the United Church, Dundalk at 2.30 p.m. The funeral will be under Masonic auspices. Interment will be made in the mortuary vault at Dundalk Cemetery.

The deceased, Mrs. Armstrong, was a woman of the Canadian character and had many fine qualities. She was always interested in the work of the church and in the spirit of humanity. For many years she was a member of the former Methodist Church here and the members of the W. M. S., of which she was also a member for years, attended the funeral service in a body.

Surviving besides her daughter, Mrs. Perkins of Toronto, are a son and two daughters of Mr. Armstrong, Mr. Harold Armstrong of Simpson, Sask., Mrs. J. H. Culkin and Mrs. M. C. Edgeworth, both of Montreal. A brother, Mr. George Walker of Marion, N.Y.; and a sister, Mrs. Fred Boardman of Montreal, also survive.

The funeral took place on Monday, the body arriving that day by the noon train. Service was conducted in Annesley Church by Rev. A. Newton St. John.

James Foster Dead

These passed away on Saturday morning at his residence in the village one of the oldest citizens of this community in the person of James Foster who was born in 1850 and died after a long illness of 15 years. He was a man of great personal charm and a good friend to all. His wife, Mrs. Foster, died in 1918 and his son, Mr. David Foster, died in 1925. His son, Mr. Fred Foster, is a well-known and popular citizen. Mrs. Foster will be very much missed by a large family circle.

The funeral took place to Markdale Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. Many of the old friends and neighbors were present to pay their respects to the departed. Rev. C. O. Pherrell conducted the services at the house and at the mortuary chapel. He was assisted by Rev. A. Newton St. John and Rev. Wm. Coutts. The pallbearers were Messrs. Thos. Whitten, David Foster, H. M. Irwin, W. J. Hamilton, Russell Foster, Wm. Noble. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

Mrs. Wesley Brown Dead

(Dundalk Herald) The angel of death suddenly came to Mrs. Jessie Brown of this place on Monday, February 3rd and called her to the spirit world at the age of forty-five years. The deceased, who was in the best of health for some time, was betterly with her sister, Mrs. Charles Maxwell at the Queen's Hotel. She was a daughter of Mr. James Armstrong, pioneer of Dundalk. About 25 years ago she married Mr. Wesley Brown, a native of Markdale. They have lived in Dundalk ever since and were well known throughout the entire town. Mr. Brown died a few years ago.

She was survived by her parents who have since resided in Alberta for the past year and for whom much sympathy is felt in this, the first loss in their family circle. Two brothers and four sisters are also left to mourn her: James Armstrong, Jr., Moose Jaw, Sask.; Thos. W. in Banff; Mr. James Copeman, Pense, Sask.; Mrs. J. L. Proctor, Toronto; Mrs. J. C. H. P. South Ste. Marie, Ont. and Mrs. Charles Maxwell, Dundalk.

The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon of last week to Dundalk Cemetery.

Miss Hannah Smith

Miss Hannah Smith, for many years a well-known nurse in Toronto, died on Sunday at the Isabella Hospital in her 80th year. She was born at Wooster, Ont., where she spent her earlier years. She was an Anglican, and is survived by three sisters: Misses Georgina and Hattie of Wooster and Mrs. S. Hill of Markdale.

Morley Lucas Dead

George Morley Lucas, 38 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Lucas of Dundalk died early Tuesday morning. For the past three months he has been bedfast with heart trouble. For a number of years the deceased was the employ of the Union Bank, and in turn was stationed at Dundalk, Guelph, Montreal and Calgary. Prior to that time he attended Upper Canada College, Toronto. The past few years he has spent at his home in Dundalk where he was quite popular. Besides his parents he is survived by one brother, Ted Lucas, accountant in the Royal Bank, Owen Sound. His death in the prime of life is a great shock to the community. Mr. Lucas at the time of his demise was chairman of the Library Board. He was a member of the Masonic Order, the Scottish Rite, and J. O. P. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon. Private service at his home at 2 o'clock with public service in the United Church, Dundalk at 2.30 p.m. The funeral will be under Masonic auspices. Interment will be made in the mortuary vault at Dundalk Cemetery.

Miss Eva Doyle

Miss Eva Doyle took ill on her way to the Disciples' Church in Owen Sound and passed away shortly after being taken into the parsonage. She was a member of a well-known early Grey County family, a daughter of the late R. J. Doyle. She is survived by one brother, R. J. Doyle, and one sister, Mrs. Winifred Doyle, both of Owen Sound. Twenty-two years ago she and her sister purchased the Selon House.

Mrs. Reburn Laid To Rest

The funeral of the late Mrs. Reburn took place on Wednesday afternoon of last week. After a short service in the home, public service was held in the Anglican Church, which was filled to the doors. The pastor, Rev. C. O. Pherrell, before beginning his address spoke feelingly of the estimable Christian character of the deceased, who was by her thoughtful and kind nature endeared to all.

Mr. McIntyre, the Owen Sound man who referred the game here, stated that Mr. Mercer offered a good fair game and if anything favoured the Owen Sound team.

Markdale won the round because it had a faster boat than the Sounders and now go into the semi-final. Just when the first game will be played is not yet known but on the ice the players will be given a quick start so that the game can be over in a short time.

After Referee Murph Mercer of Markdale called the game with Markdale winning there were rumors of protest but when Markdale boys left by the C. P. R. train next morning the Owen Sound management had not decided just what to protest about.

The Enterprise intends to get at the bottom of the steps taken to influence the King Govt. to interfere with the course of justice. We can not expect any Senator Donnelly's friends on the Conservative side to make enquiry to have the papers in regard to the liberation of the Senator's son brought down in the House of Commons nor can we expect a supporter of the King Govt. to bring the matter to the attention of Parliament so we are banking on Miss

McPhail, M. P., to get the information. If Miss McPhail falls down on the job, and we don't think she will, we will try out Woodsworth,

the Labor member for one of the Win-sheep seats. One law for plutocrat and patrician is what this exponent of equal rights always stands for and we hope he will be successful in producing before the court.

The real reason for the protest is simply because the Owen Sound players could not win the ice and now the magistrate will be influenced by the interference of Governments headquarters. If Arthur Donnelly had been a son of a poor man or a man without influence would the magistrate's sentence have been overruled? We don't believe it would. The Enterprise has always stood for one law in this poor country for both rich and poor, influential or without pull. Any interference with the course of justice will result in breeding socialism and disrespect for law and order.
