EDITORIAL COMMENT

ADVANCEMENT

With this issue of The Standard we commenced a new departure in that the paper is published in two sections, with six pages of news and information for the busy farmer.

The attitude of the three parliamentary groups at Ottawa is noteworthy. One of the outstanding planks of the Progressive, U.F.A. and U.F.O. combination in the days of their prosperity was that of lower import duties immediately and free trade within the Empire in five years.

POLICE SHOULD HUNT DOWN DOG POISONERS

Dog poisoning is one of the most contemptible of offences, but makes an appeal to some minds because of the difficulty of detection. Like other evidences of diseased mentality, it is likely to appear in the form of epidemics, the destructive work of one poisoner conveying a suggestion to others.

THE BUTTER SITUATION

If there is one thing more than another that has engaged the attention of Parliament during the present session, it has been that of Canada's economic relationship to our sister Dominions: Australia and New Zealand.

Parity Will Count

It is almost universally acknowledged that the production of good quality crops is a better paying proposition than the production of poorer quality and the very best Canadian authorities are constantly advocating the sowing of seed of the best quality.

Ontario Potatoes

The success of co-operative marketing of potatoes in the County of Simcoe is remarked upon editorially by the Barrie Examiner as follows:

PUNCTUALITY

Punctuality is to business what cleanliness is said to be to godliness. The punctual man is rarely an unsuccessful one. Punctuality is an art and a habit, it never simply happens. It is something that is striven for, and if the habit is formed in early life it rarely deserts a person.
