The late Mr. Halbert had been in business in Markdale for 41 years. He was born in Mono township in 1857, a son of the late Adam and Margaret Halbert. When 16 years of age he left the farm and served four years at the shoe-making trade with the late Thomas Hackett at Hockley. Later he worked in Orangeville and at Caledon. While in the latter place 52 years ago he was married to Miss Jennie Shields. They resided at Caledon for some time and then moved to Rocklyn. They then moved to Dundalk and 41 years ago came to Markdale. Mrs. Halbert died 22 years ago. One daughter, Mrs. C. G. Kearns of Moose Creek, Sask., and a son, Kenneth at home, survive. Smith - McAfee

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McAfee of Rocklyn. The marriage was performed by Rev. F. G. Stotesbury of the United Church on Wednesday May 14th at noon, when Miss Gertrude R. McAfee, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McAfee, to Mr. Frederick W. Smith, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Smith. Miss Nancy McAfee, sister of the bride played the wedding march. The bride and groom took their places beneath an arch of evergreens decorated with pink and white and a large white bell. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John McAfee and wore a gown of ivory crepe backed satin. Her veil was caught up with orange blossoms and she carried a shower boquet. The bride and groom were unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a bar pin with amethyst and to the organist a pendant neck-lace set with amethyst.

After the usual congratulations dinner was served in the dining-room which was adorned with pink and white streamers and flowers.

The young couple left the same afternoon for the East Backline, Artemesia where they will reside.
