A New Service Club

At the close of the Council meeting on Monday evening a number of the citizens gathered in the Council Chambers to discuss the advisability of organization of a service club for the promotion of good fellowship and the advancement of Markdale and community. Reeve T. H. Reburn was voted to the chair and Mr. L. Rapp was chosen as secretary for the evening. After considerable discussion it was finally decided to organize and a committee, composed of Messrs. T. H. Reburn (chairman), L. Rapp (secretary), W. D. Henry, H. McInnis, J. C. Mercer, W. S. Perkins, A. E. Hunt and A. E. Colgan, was appointed to draft a set of by-laws and to formulate a program of activities to present to a meeting to be held at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening, June 4th. It is hoped that all citizens who have the welfare of the community at heart will attend the meeting on Wednesday evening of next week. A great deal of good should come out of the organization if it works as well as its promoters believe it will. Show your interest by attending the next meeting.

Mrs. Dan. Kennedy

The sudden death occurred on Thursday afternoon last of Mrs. Dan Kennedy and came as a great shock to her husband and relatives, and to the community. Mrs. Kennedy, who lived on the 10th concession of Glenelg, left her home in the afternoon to go a short distance down the road to meet the mail carrier. Shortly afterward she was found by a passing motorist lying on the road, having been seized with a heart attack. The coroner was called and after examining the body decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

The late Mrs. Kennedy, whose maiden name was Margaret Wilson, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson. She was 60 years of age and had lived on the 10th concession of Glenelg all her life. She was a Roman Catholic in religion. Surviving besides her husband are four brothers, Malcolm, Jack and Dan of Markdale, Neil of Strongfield, Sask., and Mrs. D. Robinson and Mrs. A. McMillan of Markdale.

The funeral took place on Saturday morning. Service was held in St. John's Roman Catholic Church, after which interment was made in the cemetery at Glenelg.

Mr. George Brown

On Thursday morning last the death occurred of Mr. George Brown of the eleventh concession of Euphrasia, after only a three weeks' illness. An abscess formed under his arm and the poison went through his system.

The late George Brown was born in Euphrasia forty-five years ago. He was a son of Mr. James Brown and the late Mrs. Jas. Brown. In 1907 he was married to Miss Olive Summers who survives with four children, Louise, Clara, Joyce and Wilfred. Also surviving are his father [illegible] and two sisters, [illegible] of Markdale, John of [illegible], widow of Woodhouse, [illegible] of Kitchener and Frank of [illegible]. Mr. Wm. Summers [illegible] Funeral took place on Friday [illegible] Cemetery. Rev. Wm. [illegible] conducted service at the house. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. A. Hall, R. Rayner, W. J. Lyons, Chas. Thompson, Ron Bradley and Roy Bowler.

In testimony of the love and esteem in which the deceased was held the following beautiful flowers were placed on the casket: Wreath from wife and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Summers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Brown; spray from Brother Robert and Sister Mary.
