While coming to town on Monday forenoon Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Swanton of the East Backline, Artemesia, met with a mishap which might easily have ended with serious results. They were driving a horse and just after coming onto the highway at the first corner south of the village they met a car travelling south at a fair rate of speed and throwing two streams of water from the wet roadway. The horse took fright and after upsetting the buggy ran away. Mr. and Mrs. Swanton escaped without serious injury but the buggy and harness were badly damaged. The driver of the car returned to the scene of the accident and assisted in capturing the horse. A little good judgment in passing horse drawn vehicles on the roads would often avoid such accidents.

Gosse of Owen Sound gave a short but interesting address and Mr. W. J. Howard gave the Noble Grand's address. Owen Sound band, under the leadership of Mr. J. A. Cowle, is a well balanced musical organization and they were liberal with their music. A good many from outside points were in town for the services.

Opening Hill's New Store

After being closed for some months the people of Stayner and vicinity are delighted to see the spacious stores of M. Gartlan & Co. once more a busy hive of mercantile activity.

The opening of Messrs. F. T. Hill & Co., last week was an outstanding business event and the crowds that thronged the busy mart kept the efficient staff hustling from morning till night and brought satisfaction and assurance to Messrs. F. T. Hill of Toronto and W. Hill of Markdale, that their judgment and sagacity in locating in Stayner was fully justified. The extent and variety of their offerings in their various departments were an eye-opener to those who have fallen into the habit of thinking that they must perforce make their purchases out of town in order to get any satisfaction, and depend upon photos and word pictures from department store catalogues instead of actual inspection of materials and articles. Stayner has now two stores of which she may well be proud, and we trust her old-time supremacy as a centre of trade and commerce may be speedily recovered.

The attractively dressed windows were the result of the skill of Mr McCarter of Brampton. The managers of three out of their five other stores honored the occasion by their presence. Those present were Messrs. McCarter, sr., and jr., of Brampton, Mitchell and Dickenson of Meaford, and Kitson of Dundalk. By the way, Mr. Harry Kitson felt quite at home in meeting many old friends who used to know him several years ago when he was with "Bell's."

Alliston and Orangeville branches were not represented because of unavoidable causes. The staff consists of Messrs. Coyle and Johnston in the Grocery, Men's Furnishings and Boots and Shoes Departments; Miss Moore in the Ladies' Ready to Wear Department, and Mrs. Mitchell, Miss Watson and Miss Rumble in the general dry goods department; Miss Rumble has also charge of the office. Mr. Gilbert is the manager.

It is expected that Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert, who come from Markdale, will shortly take up their residence in town.—The Stayner Sun.

W. M. S. Met in Markdale

The W.M.S. group meeting held in Annesley United Church on Tuesday afternoon of last week, despite the continued rain, was very well attended by members from both Cooke's and Annesley churches; several ladies also being present from Harkaway and Vandeleur congregations. This was the occasion of the Presbyterial president's annual visit. She was accompanied by four Presbyterial officers, Mrs. W. H. Smith of Durham, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. R. Alder of Durham, secretary of Christian Stewardship and finance; Miss M. MacMillan of Flesherton, Missionary Monthly secretary, and Mrs. E. C. Murray, Flesherton, Mission Band secretary, each of whom gave a very inspiritional and helpful address. Mrs. A. Rusk president of Annesley Auxiliary presided.

Miss MacMillan who was first on the program spoke along the line of personal development and influence, showing that it is as necessary to give good food to the mind as to the body also that every one of us has an influence on others whether we realize it or not, and it is up to us to make that influence tell for betterment of those whom we come in contact with. In closing she made a strong appeal for the Missionary Monthly so necessary to all members of the W. M. S. and as a home magazine, interesting and helpful to both old and young.

Mrs. Alder spoke on the subject of Stewardship. She said, "Whether we are faithful or unfaithful stewards depends on the use we make of our talents, which also includes our homes, our fingers, our money, and our time." Under the last mentioned talent she added, "Martha spent time for Jesus, Mary [illegible] Jesus. Failure", she [illegible] often the result of [illegible] on our part. The problem [illegible] of living with other [illegible] people was dealt with by Mrs. E. C. Murray, in this connection she said, "In this age of rapid transit and radio, all people are neighbors the world over. We have now many thousand new Canadian neighbors who need our help." The possibilities and importance of training the children was pressed. One of the best ways of doing this being through the mission band. Mrs. Murray closed with a recipe for good M. B.
