In Memoriam

McFadden—in loving memory of my dear husband, the late James McFadden, who passed away on June 18th, 1924.

How much I'd give his hand to clasp,
His pleasant face to see,
But for this little token tell
We still remember thee.

When days are dark and friends are few
Dear Jim I often think of you
We often do recall your name,
And home has never been the same.

Yet again we hope to meet thee
When the days of life are fled,
And in heaven with joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tears are shed.
Sadly missed by his widow.
