Harry Leslie

The funeral of the late Harry Leslie, who was killed at the railway crossing north of the village on Wednesday evening last, took place at Markdale Cemetery on Friday afternoon. Rev. Wm. Coats conducted service in Cooke's Church and he preached a sermon comforting to the bereaved friends. The remains were then laid to rest in the family plot in the cemetery.

Harry Leslie was born in Glenelg township on April 19th, 1894, and spent all of his life in this locality. His father died in 1897. Since young Harold had been associated with his mother in the grocery and confectionery business in town. He was quite popular with all classes and was active in many organizations. (He was a member of Cooke's Church and was interested in all branches of the church's work. He was also a member of L.O.L. No. 1045, Markdale, and the members of the lodge attended the funeral in a body and conducted the Orange burial service at the grave. Six members of the lodge, Messrs. James Sample, Earl Brown, Melvin Wilson, Wesley McFadden, J. T. McFadden and Elgin McFadden, acted as pallbearers.

Among the beautiful floral offerings were tributes from Mother and Sisters, Mrs. Foglio and Alvin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson, Miss Eva Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sample, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Christie, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ploew, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. King, Zella and Harold, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Elliott, L. O. L. No. 1045 and others.

Among friends here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. J. Christie of Warton; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. King, Zella and Harold of Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Wray of Schomberg; Mrs. Calhoun of Beeton; Mrs. Geo. Nugent, Mrs. Pearn, Mrs. Harry Williams, Miss Norma Williams and Mr. Clifford Bibic of Toronto.

The deceased is survived by his mother and two sisters, Mrs. Willard Wilson of Glenelg and Mrs. Wm. Fletcher of Hanley, Sask. They have the sincere sympathy of a great many friends in their sudden and sad bereavement.
