Confirmation Services

A Confirmation Service was held in Christ Church on Monday evening, July 21st, when eight adult candidates were received into the full fellowship of the church, Archbishop Williams officiating. Taking as his text 1 Tim. VI:12, "Fight the good fight of Faith," the Archbishop laid emphasis upon three aspects of Christian warfare, the first being the conversion of the non-Christian world; the second the resisting of anti-Christian, and lastly the personal struggles incidental to the Christian life. Speaking of Christian Missions, the Archbishop stated that one's nearness to Christ is to be measured by our interests in bringing others to His allegiance and that all statesmen are agreed that the stabilizing of world conditions depends upon a much more aggressive presentation to the world of Christian ideals.

Mrs. W. E. Bradey

The funeral of the late Mrs. W. E. Bradey, who passed away at her home on the 11th Line, Euphrasia, on Monday, July 14th, took place on Thursday afternoon. After a short service at the house, the remains were brought to Christ Church where service was conducted by Rev. C. O. Pherrill, the rector, and Rev. E. D. Dickson, formerly of Walters Falls, the latter preaching an appropriate and impressive sermon. The remains were then laid to rest in the family plot in Markdale Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. Taylor, W. A. Dickie, M. Harvey, W. B. Gregory, R. Martin and Roy Bowler.

Among the beautiful floral tributes placed on the casket were offerings from the husband, brother Jack and sisters Nellie and Esther, Margaret, John and Winnie Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Elford, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tuppitt, Mr. McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gregory, Mrs. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bradey, Mr. R. The late Mrs. Bradey, whose maiden name was Sarah Jane Hall, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of Invermay. She taught school at Beaverville and Chesville for twelve years. While teaching she was organist and choir leader at Temple Hill Church and for a number of years was organist at Beaverville Anglican Church. She was a member and active in the work of the Guild of Beaverville Church, Christ Church Choir, Cherry Grove Women's Institute and was Secretary of the Cherry Grove School Section. She was ever active in advancing the welfare of the community in which she lived. For a number of years she acted as the Standard's correspondent at Cherry Grove. By the death of Mrs. Bradey the community has lost an active worker whose place will be hard to fill. The Standard extends sincerest sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Little Annie McVicar of Priceville also entertained with Scotch and Irish dancing.

Mr. R. D. Caruthers occupied the chair and introduced the several speakers. Mr. F. E. Oliver, M.L.A., was the first to address the gathering and left a good impression.
