SEE IT while you're at THE EXHIBITION

NO—not at the Exhibition Grounds—but at our own showroom—where there is plenty of space—and no crowd to elbow you out of the way. Then you will see for yourself why the "Caterpillar", with its long wide tracks—saves so much gasoline—doesn't slip or slide—doesn't pack the soil—can plow anywhere you can work with a team—can last so long under hard usage—is so useful for all kinds of road work.

We're on the north side of King Street, about half way between Bathurst and Spadina—right on your way to the Exhibition. If you are at all interested in tractors for farm or road work, you'll be glad you came in.

Mrs. James Brown

One of the most highly respected residents of Holland township in the person of Mrs. James Brown, passed away on Thursday, August 21st, 1930, from the result of an accident on Highway No. 10. While driving some ducks across the road she was hit by a truck driven by Mr. A. Whitaker of Cayton.

The late Mrs. Brown, whose maiden name was Alberta Shore, was born 62 years ago in Albion township, Peel county, and with her parents, the late Richard and Catharine Shore, moved to Euphrasia some years later.

In 1893 she was married to James Brown and they settled in Holland township. She is survived by her husband; two sons, Herbert and Earl at home, and four daughters, Mrs. James Sample, Markdale; Mrs. Melvin Wilson, Markdale; Mrs. Bert Badgerow, Sauguen Junction, and Miss Alma of Toronto; two grandchildren; a sister, Miss Margaret Shore of Markdale, and three brothers, G. W. Shore of Woodbridge, and Levi Shore and Henry Shore in the States. The late Mrs. Brown was predeceased by three sisters and three brothers, Ann Jane, Charlotte, Harriet, Wesley, Samuel and Richard.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Wm. Coutts of Markdale, assisted by Rev. B. L. Walden. The pallbearers were Messrs. Abo Hannah, Hamilton McFadden, R. G. Walker, Harry Clarke, John McFadden and John Bennett. The flower bearers were Messrs. Wee. Aitken, Alvin Foster, Russel McCann and Emerson McCullough.

Many beautiful floral offerings showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held and included a Pillow from Husband and family at home; sprays from the Grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. James Sample, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Badgerow, Mrs. McCann and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Allison, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crono, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Young, and wreath from Patrols 5 and 6 and Employees of stone crusher; also several telegrams of condolence were received.

The funeral took place to Markdale Cemetery on Saturday and was largely attended by many sympathizing friends. Those from a distance were Dr. P. G. Brown and wife of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shore and daughter of Woodbridge; Miss Charlotte Riddell and Mrs. Maggie Thompson and son of Tullamore; Mr. George Riddell and daughter of Bolton; Mrs. Levery, Faigrove; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown of Flesheron; Mr. and Mrs. Will Laughlin of Duncan; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alken of Berkeley; Mr. Victor Kindrie, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kindrie, Mr. Percy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Will Bassett, all of Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jaffray and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Goodall and daughter of Toronto.

Bartholomew O. Wright

Bartholomew O. Wright, a former resident of this locality, died suddenly at New Rochelle, N. Y., on Saturday, Aug. 16th, 1930. He was stricken with cerebral hemorrhage while playing golf and passed away suddenly.

The late Mr. Wright was born on the West Backline, the farm now owned by Mr. Silas Hill, being the home of his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew Wright. As a young man he worked in Trimble's store in Markdale and later was in the Catto store in Toronto before going to New Rochelle, where he was a manufacturer of umbrellas.

He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters, namely Donald and Townsend, Eleanor and Gertrude. Mr. Wright was a member of the Presbyterian Church and also held membership in the Canadian Club and the W.K.K.G. Club.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, August 19th, at Beechwood Cemetery. Rev. Edward L. Junkin officiated.
