Famous Husky Wins Prizes

Arthur Beauvais, well-known Indian guide at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec City, owes much of his popularity among visitors to the hotel to the team of huskies that maul them out on snowed trips in the winter. Chief among his team is its leader, "Jeff" and at the last minute it occurred to Arthur to enter Jeff at the Montreal Kennel Association Show held recently. He took no particular trouble in beautifying him for the occasion and accordingly was gratified to learn that he had taken three first prizes and one special prize. In fact, he would have taken another special prize as the best dog shown, if Beauvais had not taken him away to catch a train. The exhibition shows close-up of Jeff with some of his prize ribbons.

Eugenia

The Tackaberry's visit their Old Home

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Tackaberry of South Dakota, U.S., accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Tackaberry of Owen Sound and Mr. Don Cameron of Los Angeles, now visiting in Owen Sound spent a very pleasant day in Eugenia last week. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin, where Mr. N. E. Tackaberry was born fifty years ago. We found Mr. Tackaberry a very interesting and jovial conversationalist. He related incidents of his boyhood life. He was indeed quite pleased to look through the house his father built. The very apples that grew on the place tasted the very best in the world to him. He inquired about "Grandma Pedlar". He was delighted to have a handshake and old time talk to Mr. "Cam" Park. He took several pictures of the old home as well as of the Pedlar property now owned by Mr. R. Park. These he will keep for "old time's sake" as well as show them to friends. He departed to visit with friends elsewhere carrying sweet memories of "Home, Sweet Home" and a desire to return again to his birth place. Mr. Tackaberry conducts a grocery business in Uncle Sam's Domain and we wish him and his good wife continued success.
