Thos. Greenwood

Another pioneer of old Glenelg Township, passed to his reward early Wednesday morning, Aug. 27th, in the person of Thomas Greenwood, at the home of his daughter Winnie in Fairgrove, Mich. For some months back he has been in failing health, but has been up and around much of the time. Four weeks ago Thursday, he accompanied his son, Rev. J. W. and daughter, Mrs. Campbell back to the latter's home at Fairgrove by motor and the long trip was evidently too much for him for he grew weaker there and on Monday last suffered a stroke, surviving scarcely two days afterwards.

The deceased was 78 years of age, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Greenwood and was born on the old home farm, lot 37 on con. 2, Glenelg, at Edge Hill. Here he lived his whole life, except for a short time on a nearby farm, until fourteen years ago, he bought the Allan McKinnon home and small farm just east of Upper Town, Durham and there spent his closing years.

Almost 53 years ago he was wedded to Margaret Edwards, who passed away only two years ago, after a full and useful life. She was an ideal helpmate and her loss was sorely felt by her bereaved husband. After her death, their second son, Ernest, sold his farm at Edge Hill and came with his family to reside with his father.

Eight children were born of this happy union, two dying in infancy. The three sons and three daughters surviving are Herb, opposite present home; Ernest, at home; Rev. J. W. at Grayling, Mich.; Mrs. Douglas Campbell (Annie) of Rugby, N. Dakota; Mrs. Donald Campbell (Winnie) of Fairgrove, Mich. and Miss Ethel, teacher in Hallburton County.

Two sisters of deceased survive him; Mrs. John Davis of Lethbridge and Mrs. Ab. Hooper of South Glenelg.

Ever a kindly and considerate father, Mr. Greenwood will be deeply missed in the family circle and the neighborhood as well, where he was most widely known and esteemed. He was a man of the strictest honour and integrity, who took a decided stand on behalf of any movement for the moral welfare of the community. In politics he was a Conservative until the U. F. O. movement began and has since adhered to that party. He was a life-long Methodist and when in health, was always regular in church attendance.

The funeral service was held Friday afternoon at his late residence conducted by his pastor, Rev. H. S. Fiddes. Interment was made in the family plot at Zion cemetery.—Durham Review.

The August meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Juniper and was well attended by members and a number of visitors. The president, Mrs. R. H. Olmstead occupied the chair. The meeting opened in the usual manner followed by the reading and adoption of previous meeting's minutes. Some correspondence was read and discussed and the programs for this year distributed. The meeting was pleased to welcome two ladies, Mrs. Dingwall of Hopeville, District President, and Miss A. McPhail, M.P., of Ceylon. Mrs. Dingwall spoke on general institute work and the County convention and then for a short time on child training. Miss McPhail's address was on her journey to Geneva last year as delegate to the League of Nations. She gave a very vivid description of Geneva and made clear some of the methods of how the meetings are held. Both addresses were well worth hearing and a vote of thanks tendered the speakers. The meeting closed with the National Anthem followed by lunch served by the hostess. The September meeting is to be held at the home of Miss L. Deloree.

School re-opened on Tuesday with Mr. Fred Jolley as instructor for our young hopefuls.

Miss Edna Dixon visited friends in Owen Sound for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Claxton of Buffalo spent the Labor Day week-end with friends here.

Rev. P. Parson invited the young people to the Rectory last Tuesday evening and is endeavouring to organize an A.Y.P.A. Another meeting is to be held on Friday of this week and a good attendance is expected.

Rev. and Mrs. Jones and boys returned home to Ridgeway last Friday.

Master Mervin Cook had a tonsil operation at Markdale last Thursday.

Maurice Laycock and Maurel Acheson returned to High School at Meaford on Tuesday. Misses Edna Dixon and Leona McDougall are attending High School in Meaford this year.

Vandeleur W. I.

The Vandeleur Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. D. McGee on Thursday afternoon when twenty ladies met and held their August meeting. The meeting was opened in the usual manner by the president and the business transacted. Correspondence was read and reports by Sunshine committee. The roll call was answered by "where would I live by choice, and why", and nearly all were satisfied with their lot. The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. Frank Davis on "Influence" which was very interesting and instructive; a solo was well rendered by Mrs. L. Johnston with Mrs. G. Buchanan as accompanist; a reading was given by Mrs. W. Swanton. "The difference when your wife is home." The report of the district meeting at Rocklyn, which was unavoidably held over from last meeting, was given by Mrs. D. McGee in her usual good style, also the report of the County convention at Elmwood was given by Mrs. Swanton. An invitation was given the members of the Institute to attend a 25c tea given by the Vandeleur Ladies Aid on Sept. 8rd at the home of Mrs. Geo. Buchanan, when the Aids of Flesherton and Markdale and surrounding community will be invited. The meeting closed by the
