The chapel in the Cemetery will be built this fall.

We are glad to see Mr. Sam McMullen able to be around again after having been thrown off a load of grain when the wagon pitched into a hole. He was badly shaken up.

We extend our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Trimble who were married last Saturday.

We had the pleasure of attending Annesley United Church in Markdale on Sunday last when the Sunday School held their annual anniversary.

The choir, composed of 18 young girls and 7 young men, under the leadership of Mr. Dundas, rendered splendid music, while the smaller girls of Mrs. Henry's and Mrs. Bowler's classes, rendered and sang very sweetly. A splendid report was given by the Secretary, Mr. Aubrey Foster, which must be very encouraging to the Superintendent, officer and teachers of the school. Master Hills Burnside read the scripture lesson from the First Psalm. Rev. Mr. Warren gave a splendid address from the text: "White as snow," which was interesting and helpful from start to finish. He urged the boys and girls to keep their bodies pure and clean. The children could not help but be impressed with the talk. The Sunday School is the one important organization of the church and encouragement should be given those faithful teachers by the parents sending their children regularly to Sunday School where texts they learn there, will never be erased from their memory. We wish for the new pastor, superintendent and all the staff the greatest success in their great work.

Mrs. Wilcox and daughter, Mrs. Geo. Cairns, visited with friends in Collingwood on Monday.

Born—On August 29th, to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hill a son.
