C. P. R. Traffic Appointments

Three important appointments in the freight traffic department of the Canadian Pacific Railway have been announced by George Stephen, newly appointed vice-president in charge of traffic. They are C. E. Jefferson, assistant freight traffic manager, western lines, Winnipeg, (centre of layout), who comes to Montreal as freight traffic manager; H. W. Gillis, assistant freight traffic manager, eastern lines, (right), who is appointed to western lines as assistant freight traffic manager; and Gerald Hiam, assistant general freight agent, Montreal, (left), who becomes assistant freight traffic manager, eastern lines. Mr. Jefferson entered Canadian Pacific service in 1913 as percentage clerk in the freight tariff bureau, Montreal, and in 1915 was promoted assistant general freight agent, Montreal. He became acting general freight agent in 1921 and general freight agent, western lines, in 1922, and in 1927 was appointed assistant freight traffic manager, western lines. His first duty was to bring him back east. Mr. Gillis was promoted his way up in Canadian Pacific service from boy and messenger in 1905 through the ranks of the freight department in Montreal. From chief clerk in 1915 he was promoted to assistant freight agent, Montreal, in 1919, assistant general freight agent, Toronto, and district freight agent in 1922. He now goes west in the same capacity. Mr. Hiam joined the Canadian Pacific Railway in 1904 and held several positions in the department, vice-president's office. In 1914 he was appointed general freight agent, Toronto, and district freight agent, in 1914. He went overseas to Cleveland, O. He was appointed district freight agent in 1926 and was appointed general freight agent at Montreal in 1928.
