Mrs. John McLeod

On Thursday, September 11th, Mrs. Rachel McLeod passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Stewart. She was born in Oxford County near Lake Simcoe, and when quite young moved with her father, the late Sylvester McKim, to Bruce County, near Kincardine. There she married Mr. John McLeod, who predeceased her six years ago.

Of the family three survive, namely: Mrs. E. B. Stewart of Markdale; S. J. McLeod of Preston and A. R. McLeod of Regina. One son, W. D. McLeod died in Cleveland some time ago and two children died in infancy. There also remain twelve grandchildren and five great grandchildren to mourn her loss.

Since the death of her husband, Mrs. McLeod had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Stewart, but during the summer months she visited with her son, J. J. McLeod and other relatives where her kindly uncomplaining disposition endeared her to all. She had just returned home four days previous to her death, which came suddenly at the last.

The funeral was held from the home of her daughter to Markdale Cemetery on Saturday, September 13th. The large number present and the beautiful floral tributes bore testimony to the love and esteem in which Mrs. McLeod was held. Relatives were present from Port Elgin, Tiverton, Shelburne, Toronto and Preston. Rev. Wm. Coutts, pastor of the deceased, conducted the funeral services at the house and the graveside, during which her favourite hymns, "Rock of Ages," "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Abide with Me" were sung, and high tribute was paid to her useful life. For many years she had been a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and until a year or so ago she had enjoyed splendid health. Like the Dorcas of old, her hands were always busy at some useful task and during the war many a poor soldier was made more comfortable by her work and from some of these she received grateful thanks. She never neglected to visit the sick and her gentle sympathetic cheery nature made her a favourite with old and young.

Mrs. McLeod was extremely fond of flowers and music and quite often of late she was heard to speak of the "Beautiful Home" to which she was soon going and of a hymn entitled "The Heavenly Garden" where she would meet her loved ones some bright morning. Her beautiful calm life will surely be an inspiration to those she left behind for though she had many trials and often looked on sorrow and death, yet the love light never left her eyes and her courage and faith never failed.

The pallbearers were Messrs. John Sutherland, W. R. Burnett, B. H. Walden, H. Bredner, A. L. Walker and J. B. Thibodeau. One son, A. R. McLeod, and two sisters, Mrs. James McKay of Tiverton and Mrs. Archie McGillivray of Murrillo, were unable to attend the funeral. To these and to the rest of her family and relatives heartfelt sympathy is extended.

Miss Sarah Fulton

After several months illness the death occurred on Wednesday, Sept. 10th, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Foster, Glenside, of Miss Sarah Fulton. The late Miss Fulton had suffered for some time from heart trouble and had consulted a specialist in Toronto about a month ago. Returning from the city, at that time she had a car accident which caused quite a severe shock to her nervous system. Following this she was confined to bed until her death on Wednesday evening.

Deceased was a daughter of Mr. Wm. Fulton of Mulock, who survives. She had taught school at Barrhead for a number of years until, owing to ill health, she was forced to resign at the end of the term in June. For the past fifteen years she had made her home with Mrs. W. H. Foster. Miss Fulton was a member of Cooke's United Church and a teacher in the Sunday School. She was a young lady of fine Christian character.

A short service was held at the home of Mrs. Foster, conducted by Rev. Wm. Cutts. The body was then removed to the home of the deceased's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Henry at Durham, and from there the funeral took place on Friday afternoon, interment being made in Hampden Cemetery.

Jim Culp Makes Capture

Highway Traffic Officer J. S. Culp, formerly of Berkley, who patrolled the highways in this locality for several years, but who, for the past two years has been on the highway between Quelph and Hamilton, made an important capture on Friday night last which reflected considerable credit on his ability as an officer.

The two young men stole a motor car in Quelph early in the afternoon of Friday and got away safely, only to be traced in the direction of Hamilton. Two other officers gave chase, but the men eluded them. Early in the evening, however, Officer Culp, while at Puslinch station, secured some information regarding two strangers who had been seen about a mile down the C.P.R. tracks, and he went after them and succeeded in arresting both men in a small shack. They were taken to Quelph and locked up, and it was ascertained that they were wanted in several cities in Canada and the United States for theft of motor cars, robbery while armed and other serious crimes.

Mr. Culp, who is considered one of the best officers on the highways, was heartily congratulated by his superiors on his splendid work.

The family of the late Mrs. McLeod wish to thank their friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown them in their recent bereavement.

Home Garden Contest

The Home Garden Contest held in Grey County this year was the most successful ever conducted. Unfortunately the number of packages of Home Garden seeds was limited to 100 packages therefore many who applied were disappointed. The local branch of the Department of Agriculture very much regret that more seeds could not be secured.

The regulations require that only about 25 gardens are in each contest. There were therefore 4 contests held as follows:

Contest 1—Proton Township.
Contest 2—Bentick Township.
Contest 3—South Egremont.
Contest 4—North Egremont.

The following are the winners:

Bigger and Better Than in Former Years

In Memoriam

SHEA - In loving memory of my dear mother, who passed away September 20th, 1925.

Five years have passed since that sad day God called the one we loved away. All is dark within our dwelling. Lonely is our home to-day. For the one who smiled to cheer us Has forever passed away.

Sleep on dear Mother, and take your rest, We miss you most who loved you best; Friends are friends if they are true, But oh, those friends are very few.

Good you were, and kind and gentle True to home and children, dear; Well you earned your rest, dear mother, Well you did your duty here.

No space of time, no lapse of years Can dim our mother's past; A loving memory holds its dear To me, affection holds it fast.

Ever remembered by daughter, Margaret McLean.
