Miss Vera Hannah left on Saturday for Toronto where she intends spending the winter months.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Henry and family visited on Sunday with relatives at Flesherton.
Miss Thelma Slight visited at her home in Owen Sound over the week-end.
Mrs. W. Jackson who has been in Markdale hospital since her fall, returned to her home in the village on Monday.
The school children are busy preparing for the school fair at Highland Centre on Saturday.
Walker Bros. are busy threshing on this line now.

Rocklyn

(Intended for last week.)
Lovely September weather, warm and dry.
Anniversary services will be held at Temple Hill church on Sunday

Oct. 5th morning and evening where a thank-offering will be taken instead of the usual fowl supper.
Special music.
Mrs. McCullough has been laid up with erysipelas in her foot.
Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Clugston and Miss Dorothy of Dobbinton were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Wilkinson recently and visited friends in the vicinity.
Mrs. John Yeadell is visiting friends at Ayton at present.
Miss Boyd of Meaford spent the week-end with her friend Miss Hawthorne Taylor.
Mr. Calvin Clugston who has spent the summer months at Hawarden, Sask. has returned home. Congratulations to the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Perry.

East Berkeley

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Pottage of Fairmount and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rusk of Markdale were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. C. McCauley.
A miscellaneous shower was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Foy, when all enjoyed their hospitality.
Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Connell and daughter Geraldine of Bruce Mines are visitors with the former's mother and brothers, Howard and James.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jordan and baby Vivian of Riverview were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Steer.
We have colder weather here at times of writing.

Flesherton

will be around again in his usual health.
Miss Isabel Armstrong, teacher at Duntroon, spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. F. W. Hickling, and her brother George.
Mr. Alex. McEachnie left for Toronto where he will undergo an operation for gonorrhea. He was accompanied by Mrs. McEachnie. Mr. McEachnie's many friends wish him a safe recovery.
Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Wright of Toronto, accompanied by Mrs. H. Wright and son Emerson of Maxwell spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Inkster.
Mr. Hunter Arnott and family of Brampton, also Mr. and Mrs. S. Arnott of Wareham visited with the Inkster family one day last week.
The W.M.S. of St. John's Church met in the school room of the church. The president, Mrs. Scott, gave an interesting report of the branch meeting held in Dundalk recently.
The W.I. meets at the home of Mrs. Wilcox on Wednesday, Oct. 1st, when an interesting program will be given.
One of the pioneers of Artemesia and a good citizen of Flesherton in the person of Mr. Wyatt, passed away at his home here last Monday at the ripe old age of 87 years and 7 months. His aged wife and family mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father. We extend our deepest sympathy to the sorrowing ones.
At the General Council of the United Church of Canada held in London, Ont., during the past two weeks, Mr. Wm. Inkster was delegate from Flesherton. The next council is to be held in 1932 at Hamilton.
In the Baptist Church on Wednesday evening a very interesting and profitable address was given by one of our W. C. T. U. representatives, Mrs. Reddick of Toronto. She gave stirring facts on Juvenile Courts in Toronto and also on the L.C.A. A million dollars worth of liquor was consumed in one week in the Dominion of Canada. When we hear so much about the unemployment problem we just wonder what the outcome will be.
Mr. George Stewart won Eaton's special prize for the 4 best grade steers for beef purposes. The silverware was valued at $23.00. George is an expert on raising baby beef.
Born—On Friday, Sept. 25th, 1930, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Nichol of Caylon, a son.
A number of the young folks motored to the club house at Eugenia and enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Kaitting. It was not a corn roast but a real chicken supper supplied by the young people. A delightful time was spent.
Another group of young people held a chicken supper on Thursday night out at Eugenia. A jolly time was spent by all.
Mr. W. J. Armstrong is building an addition to the telephone building.
Sorry to report the illness of our old friend, Mr. John Bellamy, who is in his 85th year, but hope that he will be around again in his usual health.

Miss Isabel Armstrong, teacher at Duntroon, spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. F. W. Hickling, and her brother George.
Mr. Alex. McEachnie left for Toronto where he will undergo an operation for gonorrhea. He was accompanied by Mrs. McEachnie. Mr. McEachnie's many friends wish him a safe recovery.
Mr. C. Richardson motored to Toronto on Sunday to visit his wife who is still in a weak condition.
Born—On Saturday, Sept. 27th, 1930, to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stevens, a daughter.
Mr. Wm. Hemphill of Friday Island, Washington, and son Tom, a teacher in the High School in Listowel, accompanied by Mr. Wm. Gilchrist of Listowel, spent the week-end with friends here.
St. John's United Church held their annual Rally day services of the Sunday School last Sunday, Sept. 28th, with a splendid attendance. A choir of young folks, led by Mrs. Blackburn, sang special music. The superintendent, Mr. J. McKee, presided and gave a talk. A splendidly descriptive Bible story by Miss Acheson was much enjoyed. Rev. Mr. Scott also gave a very interesting and helpful address. The infant sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thurston received the Holy Rites of Baptism.
Dr. J. G. Russell of Hamilton is on his regular trips to Flesherton in W. J. Armstrong's jewelry store.
Mr. Charles Stewart of Toronto spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart.
Mr. and Mrs. James Sandjand of Dundalk spent the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. W. J. Armstrong.

Wodehouse

The August meeting of the W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Clark with an attendance of 20 members, 7 visitors and 25 children. The meeting opened by singing the ode and repeating the Lord's prayer in unison. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. A letter of appreciation from the Rocklyn ladies for helping to provide the supper at the convention held there was read. Mrs. A. A. Thompson gave a report of the meeting held at Flesherton, August 22nd. It was moved by Mrs. Wilcox and seconded by Mrs. S. Wiley, Jr., that the committee buy the gift mentioned for the hospital. Mrs. Denville read a paper on the home, the children and the teacher, Miss Elsie Sewell read "The Children's Vacation". Roll call was answered by How we use flour sacks. Some real good suggestions were given. The hymn "O God our help in ages past" was sung after which the meeting was closed by singing the National Anthem. Lunch was provided by Mrs. R. Clark and Mrs. C. Risk, $1.75 in fees and $1.70 in collection was taken making a total of $3.45 to be added to the finances of the Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Apps of Meaford were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilcox one day recently.
Mr. Jas. Watson of Sonya was a visitor one day last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thompson.
Mr. and Mrs. Thompson received a visit on Sunday last from Mr. and Mrs. John Jeffrey of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jeffrey of Oshawa, who were neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, except Mrs. John Jeffrey, about 40 years ago when they resided at Port Perry. It is needless to say that the visit was a pleasant one as they spent the day recounting the happenings of long ago and noting the changes which have taken place since they were neighbours. It makes Mr. Thompson feel young again to have visitors like that drop in and spend a time with him.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Dowling of Kamloops, B.C. were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilcox one day last week. They visited the New England cemetery also the place of Mr. Dowling's birth on the Wilcox farm and took snaps of the buildings and also picked some apples out of the orchard which he intended taking to B.C. for his children to sample.

Walters Falls

(Intended for last week.)
Mrs. Hewitt of Toronto and Mrs. Roy Eagles of Flint, U.S. are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Patterson.
Mr. and Mrs. Russ. Templer and little daughter, Mrs. Templer, sr. of Burford were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. R. Olmstead. Mrs. Templer remained to visit for a week.
Dr. and Mrs. Stan. Shepherdson of Brockville were week-end visitors with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shepherdson.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lemon and family motored to Orangeville to visit friends on Sunday.
A number of our A.Y.F.A. members enjoyed a corn roast at Sunny-side beach on Saturday evening. While the evening was rather cold the bonfires were hot enough to scorch the corn.
The September meeting of the Women's Institute was held last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss L. Delere with a good attendance of members and several visitors. After the usual opening and adoption of former minutes a letter from a textile company was read regarding remaking woolen garments. Some discussion followed. Arrangements were made and committees appointed for holding a social on Halloween night. A speaker was expected but owing to illness was unable to be present. Mrs. E. Marshall asked the ladies to guess the number of beans in a pint jar. Mrs. W. I. Seabrook's guess was the nearest and she was awarded the prize. Miss F. Abercrombie sang "Daisy Boy" as a solo number. A flower competition was arranged by Mrs. Olmstead. Miss Ward getting first prize and Mrs. F. Reid second. The roll call was answered by a pickled recipe. The Oct. meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Russ. Dixon. After singing the National Anthem lunch was served by the hostess.
Mrs. W. H. McLennan returned to her home in the Soo last week.
Mrs. Thos. Dixon, sr. and daughter Mrs. Reid of Toronto left on Monday for Kenyanga where Mrs. Dixon will make her home with her daughter Mrs. (Rev.) Dickson.
Rev. Mr. Moyer of Preston will preach at both services next Sunday at eleven and seven, when the United Church will hold their fiftieth anniversary services.

In Memoriam

ALCOX—In ever loving remembrance of a dear husband and father, Wm. J. Alcox, who passed away October 2nd, 1927.

Gone dear father, you went forever,
How we miss your smiling face;
But you left us to remember,
None on earth can fill your place.
Do not ask us if we miss him,
Oh! there is such a vacant chair;
But the Lord saw best to take him,
From this world that's full of care.
When the shades of night are falling,
And I'm sitting all alone;
There always comes a longing,
If you only could come home.
May Heaven's winds blow softly,
O'er that sweet and hallowed spot;
Where one we love lies sleeping,
Who will never be forgot.
Sadly missed by wife and family.
