Cream Facts

While other creameries report a smaller production; we can still boast a larger increase in production over last year. The reason is that we are paying highest market prices, honest test and weight, and our service is certainly the best.

FOWL

The fowl market for the future does not look very promising. Therefore we advise you to sell your saleable poultry now, before the market is flooded. We will pay you highest possible prices for your fowl.

Mrs. Margaret Brown

Mrs. Margaret Brown, widow of the late Thomas Brown of Markdale, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ursula McKennitt of Orangeville on Monday, October 14th, after an illness extending over a period of about five months. Late in the spring the deceased suffered an attack of flu from which she never rallied, a paralytic stroke hastening the end.

The deceased who was 71 years of age was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shaw of Toronto Gore where she was born, and lived with her marriage, following which they settled on a farm on the seventh line of Euphrasia. After twenty-five years they retired from the farm and took up their residence in Markdale.
A few years later Mr. Brown suffered death as the result of an accident.
In 1920 their daughter and her husband, the late George McKennitt, purchased a farm at Orangeville.
Mrs. Brown accompanied them to their new home, where she had since continued to live.

The deceased was a very warm hearted woman, who made many lasting friendships. Her kindness was never failing. She was always active in the work of the church, a member of the former Methodist church since her childhood and later-ly of the United Church. Her passing is mourned by a very wide circle of friends.

Surviving, besides her daughter, are three brothers, Andrew Shaw of Nanton, Alta.; George of Kilmearg and William of Hazel Ridge, Man.
Also two grandchildren, George and Rhoda Belle McKennitt of Orangeville.

The funeral which took place on Wednesday was very largely attended, friends being present from Brampton, Toronto, Meaford, Grand Valley, Fergus, Ingersoll and Mark-dale. Service was conducted at the house by Rev. E. W. McPrien, pastor of the deceased. Interment was made in Markdale cemetery.

The pallbearers were six nephews, namely: Sam Robinson of Fergus; W. A. Robinson of Toronto; Jason Shaw and Norman Robinson of Brampton; Sam Shaw of Toronto Gore, and Elmer Brown of Meaford.

Floral tributes included a pillow from daughter; spray, granddaughter; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Geo.
Shaw and family; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. McKillop, Mr. and Mrs. Chas.
Beamrok, Mr. and Mrs. A. Jones, McMurdy family; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baxindale and family and Mrs. McKinley and Mr. C. Baxindale; baskets, Mr. Kenneth Hal-bert, Orangeville W.C.T.U.; sprays, Mr. R. Holmes, Bible Classes United Church; bouquet, Mr. and Mrs. E.
Dynes.

Verna Whitefield

In the passing of little Verna Whitefield early on Wednesday morning, September 10th, 1930, Brower lost one of its youngest citizens.

Verna was but little over four years old, but she had been in delicate health for more than a year and we all became interested in her and can easily recall the little golden haired child, watched over so tenderly by her mother.

Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitefield and also for the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Teeter, of Brower.

The funeral was held in the afternoon of Sept. 11th, and was largely attended. Mr. Stewart Brown of Cochrane United Church, officiated at the service which was at the home and at the grave. School was closed and the pupils turned out in a body to pay their last tribute to the little life which had come among them, only to end so soon. The service was held at the house at 2:30 p.m. and then the sad procession, including a great part of Brower's entire population, wended its way slowly to Birch Hill cemetery.

The snowy, flower laden casket was carried by four school girls, Winnifred Maidlaw, Betty Francis, Winnifred Coates, Betty Skidmore and following these came two flower girls, Margaret Jarvis and Kathleen Armstrong. After these came the school boys, two by two, each with his offering of flowers.

"Earth to Earth, Ashes to Ashes," and soon all that was mortal of little Verna was hidden from our eyes forever. Until the day's break and the shadows' flee away.

The Ontario Forestry Branch of which Mr. Whitefield is a member, was well represented by Mr. Fred Hamilton, Inspector for the district and Mr. Wm. Gardner, chief, at Cochrane, besides other members of the staff, all called together to show their respect, for the dead and sympathy for the sorrowing ones.

Besides her parents and grandparents, Verna leaves to mourn her loss, a little brother James and two little sisters Viola and Doris.

Flowers may bloom in my garden of beauty and grace of form.
But, Oh! for my fragrant blossom, Broken and crushed by the storm.

Edwards - Sutcliffe

A very happy wedding took place at the parsonage, Fowlerville, Mich., at 3:30 on Saturday afternoon, Oct.
14th, when Miss Elizabeth, R.N., elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo.
L. Sutcliffe, of Keady, became the bride of Raleigh Keith Edwards, second youngest son of Mr. and Mrs.
R. T. Edwards of Glenelg township.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. A. B. Sutcliffe, in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Tutts, cousins of the groom, of Detroit. After the union the young couple left on a motor trip through Ontario by way of Toronto, Deseronto, Kingston, Ottawa, also a brief visit to Hull.

They returned to the bride's cosy old home on Wednesday evening, where a reception was held, followed by a most sumptuous dinner, the tables being laden with choicest viands and decked with bouquets of sweet peas, white cosmos and a four-storey wedding cake.

Among the guests present were:
Mr. and Mrs. H. Quigley, Mr. and Mrs. Turner and son Roy of Owen Sound, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sutcliffe of Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Thos.
Sutcliffe of Dobbinton; Mr. and Mrs. M. Sutcliffe of Desboro, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sutcliffe of Chesley, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Edwards and Miss Mina; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. R. Edwards and Master Raymond of Glenelg; Miss M. E. Lyons of Harkaway and Mr. and Mrs. T. Ivan Edwards of Shelburne.

After the feast a varied program of song, speech, story, recitation and music made the hours fly by.

The previous week to the marriage about ninety folk old, and young held a community shower, when the bride received a host of lovely presents, which were added thereto; the night of the reception. The honeymoon has been blessed with most gracious October weather and many join in wishing them life's pathway as bright and sunny.

There was a gathering of members of the Sutcliffe and Edwards families in the Edwards' home on Thursday evening and on Friday the happy young couple returned to Detroit where they begin homemaking.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lougheed of St. Vincent wish to announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Blanche Josephine, to Mr. Cecil R.
Loucks of Chatsworth, the marriage to take place the middle of October.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. John Aitkens and family wish to thank their many neighbours and friends who so willingly turned out last Saturday morning when their barn with all the season's crop was burned to the ground. They worked and did all they could to keep fire from spreading to house and other small buildings.

Signed Mr. J. Aitkens.
