

THE MARKDALE STANDARD

$2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE - UNITED STATES, $3.50. SINGLE COPIES, 5c.

A. E. COLGAN & SON, PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS

VOL. 51, NO. 9

MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30th, 1930

ESTABLISHED 1880

Cooke's Presbyterian Church
FOWL SUPPER
 AND ENTERTAINMENT
 IN THE ARMOURIES, MARKDALE
Wednesday, Nov. 5th
 Supper served from 6 to 8 p.m.
 Plenty to Eat and Plenty of Entertainment

Program supplied by
St. Andrew's Presbyterian
Choir of Owen Sound
 EVERYBODY WELCOME
 Admission 50 cents

A Farceical Comedy in three acts entitled
"The Snowball" or "Getting in Deep"
 will be presented by Christ Church A.Y.P.A. in the Armouries, Markdale
Monday, November 10th at 8 o'clock p.m.

Admission: 50 and 25 cents.

GOOD-BYE to Restless
 Sleep

MARSHALL
 SPRING MATTRESS

Restless sleep is evidence of discomfort... the old hard unyielding mattress puts excessive pressure on a limited area of the body - irritates - breaks your sleep and wastes your sleeping hours. Marshall Springs conform to and support every curve of the body... provide that luxurious comfort so necessary to deep restful sleep.

Go to sleep... every night... all night... and get full return from your sleeping hours with a Marshall Spring Mattress. Made in four grades.

Sleepmaker	$19.50
Newport	25.00
Special	30.00
Premier	35.50
Regal (Cotton upholstered)	42.50
Regal (Hair upholstered)	52.50

Oliver's Furniture Store
 FUNERAL SERVICE
 Markdale, Ont.

These in arrears for The Standard are asked to settle at once

Flesherton
 The Mission Band held a 25c tea at the home of Mrs. W. T. Henry, which was a success. Over $11.00 was realized.
 Mrs. Fred Brown, who has been quite ill, is we are glad to know, improving slowly.
 We do sympathize with the parents, sister, wife and family in the untimely death by drowning of their loved one, Mr. Vernon Bishop. He was well known here.
 Mrs. Hickling, as well as a number of others, is on the sick list.
 Miss Pettis, Matron of Durham hospital, accompanied by Miss C. Milne, nurse-in-training, spent an afternoon with the latter's brother, Dr. Milne and family.
 Mr. E. Bennett has purchased the Clayton block from the Armstrong estate.
 Master Jim Poole visited with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Down, one day last week.
 Mrs. W. J. Armstrong entertained eight of Mr. Armstrong's gentlemen friends to a fowl dinner on the occasion of his birthday. It was a surprise to her husband as he did not know anything about it until the arrival of the guests.
 Mrs. Ward has been at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hinks of Priceville, for the past week nursing their little 10 months' old daughter, who was very ill but we are glad to know she is rapidly improving.
 We are glad to know that Mrs. C. Richardson is coming home soon.
 Miss Hattie Fawcett spent the week-end at the parental home at Kimberley.
 Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McEachnie returned home on Sunday. Mr. McEachnie's many friends are glad to see him home so much improved in health after his serious operation.
 The W.M.S. met on Friday in the schoolroom of the United Church, the president, Mrs. Scott presiding, while Mrs. W. H. Thurston took charge of the devotional exercises. There was a good attendance and a temperance paper was given by Miss V. Nicholson.
 The Evangelistic services at Faversham will be continued during this week, with three services next Sunday, November 2. Great interest is being taken in these services. Many have stepped out and taken the stand for Christ owing to the earnest and powerful sermons of Mr. Wilson and the gospel messages of song by the male quartet of consecrated men.
 Mrs. M. Philips, who has been quite ill, is improving nicely.
 The Mortuary Chapel is nearing completion.
 An interesting letter was received by a friend from Miss Annie Dow who with her mother left for Alberta some short time ago. They had a splendid trip, left Toronto about 8 o'clock on Monday evening and arrived at Fairview Saturday noon where they were met by friends. Here they had a drive of twelve miles on their trip. They met Mr. McKinnon and sister, cousins of Dr. Milne who were returning to Saskatchewan after a visit with friends in Ontario.
 Jack Dew of Toronto with Ted McDonald spent the week-end with friends here.
 Rev. W. B. Walker of Chesley preached at the Anniversary services at Rock Mills Church and Rev. Mr. Wolstencroft went to Chesley.

Harkaway
 The Ladies' Aid met in the church on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 22nd. Owing to the absence of the president, Miss Maggie Johnston had charge of the meeting. The meeting opened with hymn 180, followed by the Lord's Prayer. Psalm 23 was read alternately. Nine members answered the roll call and one visitor was present. Mrs. Rae then gave a reading entitled "A Suggestion". Minutes of last meeting read and adopted. Several items of business were then discussed and passed. $15.00 was donated to the fixing of shed and $12.50 to the parsonage. Proceeds of supper up to date were $90.04. Mrs. J. Halbert and Mrs. D. L. Binns were appointed parsonage committee. The meeting then closed with hymn and the benediction.
 Mr. and Mrs. Laird Binns and Mrs. Graham of Toronto were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Binns.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lamond of Toronto spent last week-end with Mrs. Lillian Hawken.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Murdoch of Windsor and Mr. and Mrs. Carson McKesock and daughter of Stratford were Wednesday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnston and family.
 Mr. and Mrs. Will Halbert attended the Provincial Plowing Match held recently at Stratford.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Patton spent an evening recently with the McLaughlin family.
 Mrs. Lillian Hawken has closed up her home and is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rae.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Corby of Toronto has spent the past two weeks with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Binns.
 Mr. Ben. Glosop held an auction sale on Wednesday last. Mr. and Mrs. Glosop and family intend moving to Kestowal to reside.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin spent an evening last week with Mr. and Mrs. Carson McKesock at Stratford.

Traverston
 Everybody is glad to see the snow go!
 If the weather proves fine this week, turnips will be housed.
 Threshing will be wound up generally this week.
 Miss Clara Greenwood, R.N., is at Owen Sound at present.
 Rev. H. S. Filides preached a most powerful sermon in Zion on Sunday.
 Jos. R. Edwards has his cosy, big henery nearly completed. It has taken a lot of work.
 Members of the Moran and D'Arcy families attended Philip Martin's funeral in Owen Sound on Thursday of last week. Twenty-six years ago, he was wedded to Miss Julia Ryan, sister of Mr. D. Ryan of the 8th con. Four children were born of the union, who with Mrs. Martin will deeply feel his loss.
 Mrs. Peter D'Arcy of the 10th con., wife of Glenelg's fine mother, was called away on Thursday of last week after a brief illness of a few days from heart trouble. She had been attending to all the house duties previous to the and apparently in very fair health.
 Her maiden name was Ellen Moran, one of the members of the highly esteemed Moran family on the north of the township, where she was born fifty-nine years ago. Thirty-four years ago last June she was wedded to Peter D'Arcy and of the

Blantyre
 We had quite a heavy fall of snow here last week.
 Mrs. S. Powley of Invermay visited with friends here during the past couple of weeks.
 Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bell and Miss Cora Bell of Toronto visited recently with Mr. R. J. Quinton and family.
 The Ladies of Knox Church, St. Vincent, intend giving a supper on November 5th.
 In the death of the late George W. Taylor, which occurred on Sunday morning at his home at Blantyre, the community at large loses one of its highly esteemed and respected citizens at the ripe old age of nearly 88 years. Deceased and his family moved here some forty-four years ago. He was born in Waby, Lincolnshire, England in 1843, and his wife were the first couple to be married in the Methodist Church at Waby prior to coming to Canada. Both have been faithful members of the Methodist Church since that time. Some six years ago Mr. and Mrs. Taylor celebrated their diamond wedding at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ryerson Rennie at Toronto, where they have spent the winter months for some twenty years. He is survived by his widow, who is also in her 83th year, one daughter, Mrs. Ryerson Rennie and one son, J. W. Taylor of Orillia. Three sisters also survive, two in England and Mrs. Clemens of Bowmanville. There are six grandchildren and one great grandchild. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Tuesday afternoon at Lakewood Cemetery, service being conducted by Rev. J. R. Wilkinson of Temple Hill. The floral tributes union six children were born, two daughters dying in infancy and four stalwart sons, who survive, namely: Leo Frank, Joseph and Leonard, who will sorely miss their kind and thoughtful mother. 'Tis two years September last, since Mr. D'Arcy was very suddenly called. Besides the members of the family she is survived by five brothers, Messrs. Thomas, William, Richard, Joseph and Charlie of townline G. and H. and one sister Mrs. Vasey of Oregon.

 The funeral, a very largely attended one, took place to St. John's on Saturday morning, where Rev. Father McHugh officiated at Requiem mass and preached a most comforting sermon as well.
 The pallbearers were—Messrs. S. H. Wright, James McCarthy, John Quillinan, Michael Norris, Douglas McCormick and Malcolm Black.
 Mrs. P. D'Arcy was a woman of noble character, most hospitable and kind and a true member of the Roman Catholic faith.

Walters Falls
 Service in the United Church now commences at seven o'clock but there will be no service next Sunday evening, Nov. 2nd, owing to special services at Knox Church, Holland.
 Mr. Emerson returned last Thursday from his Western trip.
 Mrs. Frank Reid left on Monday for her home in Perdue, after spending several months at her parental home.
 Mrs. Taylor and Miss Treffy of Welland are guests of their niece, Mrs. (Rev.) Parsons at the rectory.
 Rev. Parsons and Rev. Georgegan of St. Thomas Church, Owen Sound exchanged pulpits on Sunday last.
 Mr. Leslie Laycock is assisting his cousin near Woodford.
 Miss Mary Smith of Southampton is visiting her cousin, Mrs. N. Rennie.
 Mrs. Smith returned on Sunday from a three week's visit with her son Amos near Meaford.
 (Intended for last week)
 Mr. and Mrs. Will Walter and Stewart of Toronto spent the week-end of Oct. 11th with Mr. and Mrs. Rich. Quinton.
 The snow storm reminded us very much of what may be expected in the near future and was as cold as ever.
 The Ladies' Aid held a very well attended quilting bee and tea in the church basement last Friday afternoon. Four quilts were ready but the afternoon was a little too short to finish them, owing to a short interruption when the corner stone was replaced and re-sealed after being opened for the services of Sept. 28th.
 Mr. and Mrs. Mel Dickie and sons of Burford spent the week-end at her parental home of Mr. and Mrs. Rich. Olmstead.
 Mr. M. Cook has the foundation laid for a new butcher shop nearer his house.
 Mr. Emerson Quinton left last week for a western trip.
 Messrs. Jos. and Norman Long, Chas. and Fred Saunders and Jno. Laycock attended the International Plowing Match near Stratford last Friday.
 Mrs. Jno. Reid recently spent a few days with relatives in Owen Sound.
 The A.Y.P.A. held quite a successful social last Friday evening. Progressive croquet, contests and games, and a fish pond added to the interest of the evening. A lunch of sandwiches and pie was served.
 Miss Grace Dixon entertained a number of girl friends last Saturday afternoon, it being her thirteenth birthday. We wish her many happy returns of the day.
 The October meeting of the W. I. was held last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Russ. Dixon with an attendance of thirty-five. Owing to the absence of the secretary, Miss A. Ward, a secretary pro tem was named. Miss M. Acheson, who filled the position very well. A letter, relating to the convention was read. Final arrangements were made for the winter social of Oct. 31st, were made and committees appointed. Some accounts were passed. For the program Mrs. Acheson and Mrs. Laycock each read papers on temperance. The chorus was "Home, Sweet Home"; Miss Saunders gave a temperance reading; Misses Grace Dixon and Hilda Long sang "Tiptoe through the tulips" and Miss Abercrombie sang "Carolina Moon"; Miss Acheson played a piano solo. The meeting closed with National Anthem, after which lunch was served. November meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. F. Olmstead.

Eugenia
 Our snow has nearly all disappeared. Hope we may have some fine weather now.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Quessel and family of Owen Sound visited over the week-end with Mr. Jos. Sherwood.
 Miss Gertrude Lever of Flesherton visited on Sunday at Mr. C. Martin's.
 We are very sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Fred Brown of Flesherton with infantile paralysis. We hope for a complete recovery.
 There will be a complete write-up next week about the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Smith.
 A number from this vicinity attended the anniversary services at wareham Church on Sunday last. Mrs. R. McMillan and daughter Margaret of Markdale are spending a few days with the former's mother Mrs. Wilson.

 Mrs. Sprunt of Toronto visited a week or so with Mrs. Jos. Williams. Messrs. Trimble and Abernathy of Toronto were guests of their friend Mr. J. A. Williams over the week-end.
 Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hogard and daughter and Miss Helen Graham of Thornbury also Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Graham and family of Walkerton visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Graham.
 Mrs. Porter Beard of Springhill is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Graham.
FOWL WANTED—Highest market prices paid for live and dressed fowl. Live fowl preferred. Markdale Creamery and Produce Co. 817 were numerous and beautiful. Those who attended from a distance were Dr. Street and Mr. R. C. Street of Bridgeburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor of Orillia, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Peto of Toronto and Mr. P. A. Taylor of Owen Sound. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved in their time of sorrow.

Walters Falls
 Service in the United Church now commences at seven o'clock but there will be no service next Sunday evening, Nov. 2nd, owing to special services at Knox Church, Holland.
 Mr. Emerson returned last Thursday from his Western trip.
 Mrs. Frank Reid left on Monday for her home in Perdue, after spending several months at her parental home.
 Mrs. Taylor and Miss Treffy of Welland are guests of their niece, Mrs. (Rev.) Parsons at the rectory.
 Rev. Parsons and Rev. Georgegan of St. Thomas Church, Owen Sound exchanged pulpits on Sunday last.
 Mr. Leslie Laycock is assisting his cousin near Woodford.
 Miss Mary Smith of Southampton is visiting her cousin, Mrs. N. Rennie.
 Mrs. Smith returned on Sunday from a three week's visit with her son Amos near Meaford.
 (Intended for last week)
 Mr. and Mrs. Will Walter and Stewart of Toronto spent the week-end of Oct. 11th with Mr. and Mrs. Rich. Quinton.
 The snow storm reminded us very much of what may be expected in the near future and was as cold as ever.
 The Ladies' Aid held a very well attended quilting bee and tea in the church basement last Friday afternoon. Four quilts were ready but the afternoon was a little too short to finish them, owing to a short interruption when the corner stone was replaced and re-sealed after being opened for the services of Sept. 28th.
 Mr. and Mrs. Mel Dickie and sons of Burford spent the week-end at her parental home of Mr. and Mrs. Rich. Olmstead.
 Mr. M. Cook has the foundation laid for a new butcher shop nearer his house.
 Mr. Emerson Quinton left last week for a western trip.
 Messrs. Jos. and Norman Long, Chas. and Fred Saunders and Jno. Laycock attended the International Plowing Match near Stratford last Friday.
 Mrs. Jno. Reid recently spent a few days with relatives in Owen Sound.
 The A.Y.P.A. held quite a successful social last Friday evening. Progressive croquet, contests and games, and a fish pond added to the interest of the evening. A lunch of sandwiches and pie was served.
 Miss Grace Dixon entertained a number of girl friends last Saturday afternoon, it being her thirteenth birthday. We wish her many happy returns of the day.
 The October meeting of the W. I. was held last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Russ. Dixon with an attendance of thirty-five. Owing to the absence of the secretary, Miss A. Ward, a secretary pro tem was named. Miss M. Acheson, who filled the position very well. A letter, relating to the convention was read. Final arrangements were made for the winter social of Oct. 31st, were made and committees appointed. Some accounts were passed. For the program Mrs. Acheson and Mrs. Laycock each read papers on temperance. The chorus was "Home, Sweet Home"; Miss Saunders gave a temperance reading; Misses Grace Dixon and Hilda Long sang "Tiptoe through the tulips" and Miss Abercrombie sang "Carolina Moon"; Miss Acheson played a piano solo. The meeting closed with National Anthem, after which lunch was served. November meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. F. Olmstead.

Eugenia
 Our snow has nearly all disappeared. Hope we may have some fine weather now.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Quessel and family of Owen Sound visited over the week-end with Mr. Jos. Sherwood.
 Miss Gertrude Lever of Flesherton visited on Sunday at Mr. C. Martin's.
 We are very sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Fred Brown of Flesherton with infantile paralysis. We hope for a complete recovery.
 There will be a complete write-up next week about the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Smith.
 A number from this vicinity attended the anniversary services at wareham Church on Sunday last. Mrs. R. McMillan and daughter Margaret of Markdale are spending a few days with the former's mother Mrs. Wilson.

 Mrs. Sprunt of Toronto visited a week or so with Mrs. Jos. Williams. Messrs. Trimble and Abernathy of Toronto were guests of their friend Mr. J. A. Williams over the week-end.
 Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hogard and daughter and Miss Helen Graham of Thornbury also Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Graham and family of Walkerton visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Graham.
 Mrs. Porter Beard of Springhill is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Graham.
FOWL WANTED—Highest market prices paid for live and dressed fowl. Live fowl preferred. Markdale Creamery and Produce Co. 817

IT'S THE MARK OF DISTINCTION AND VALUE—THE FASHION-CRAFT LABEL

LOOK TO THE LEADER
 FOR VALUE
FASHION-CRAFT
 leadership gives you more in style, fabrics and tailoring.
 Ulsters in rich chinchillas, warm fleeces in color and style most becoming to you.
 SPECIAL VALUE AT $18, $20, $25
P. J. THOMPSON
 Men's and Boys' Outfitter
 Markdale Ontario

"I sure thought of the old Sun Life when I was under there!"

A MAN, a rising foreman in Chicago, took out a policy for $2,500.00 on October 16th, 1926.

Four days afterwards he was killed in a fall from a building.

His wife and four children were left with a family of five dependent on him.

The Sun Life of Canada paid the policy for $2,500.00.

"I sure thought of the Sun Life when I was under there."

The Sun Life of Canada protect you too, at a moderate cost.

See one of its Representatives

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA
 HEAD OFFICE
 MONTREAL

TODD'S
 Bicycles, Accessories, Tires and Sporting Goods
 Softball Supplies Fishing Tackle Re-Built Bicycles

122-9th St. E., Owen Sound
JAMES E. MATSON
 Insurance Agent—Fire and Casualty
 Several companies represented.
 No policy fee.
 Losses promptly adjusted.
 Office Hills' Block, Markdale
 Dodgers, posters, pamphlets and all kinds of office stationery neatly printed at The Standard office.