Won Buick Car

Fortune smiled with distinct favor last week on Mr. David Graham of town when he became the winner of a new 8 cylinder Buick sedan, presented by the St. Thomas Baseball Club. Dave had purchased four tickets at an outlay of one dollar while he was working in the Flower City some time ago and put them away in a drawer, forgotten, and it was a surprise when his family here received notification of his having won the fine car, the draw having taken place the first of last week and being made by a little six year old girl at one of the theatres there. Dave is at present of Nepigon, Ont., with the hydro so his sister-in-law, Miss Edna Burrit, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Lever, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Graham of Markdale, motored to St. Thomas on Thursday last, made their claim and returned with the car. It is the second time that Dave has made a lucky strike in winning a car at one of these raffles, and his friends congratulate him on his extra good fortune.—Flesherton Advance.

Riverdale

(Intended for last week)

A change of temperature last week from the tropics to the north pole in four days would certainly evoke an expression that this is a heck of a climate.

Miss Muriel Crane of Montreal, accompanied by her sister Margaret and Catherine Davidson, of the West Backline were delightful callers in this vicinity one evening last week.

Mrs. Lepard sr. returned home recently after visiting friends at Toronto and Buffalo.

Riverdale's popular school teacher, Miss Pearl Clugston, spent over the week-end at her home in Rocklyn.

Messrs. Tom Woods and Dick Moody are engaged putting in a cement stable for Mr. Dunn Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Lang of St. Catherines spent over the week-end with friends in this vicinity.

Engagement

Mrs. H. S. Merriam of Markdale announces the engagement of her sister, Dorcas Isabelle Purvis, to Mr. Cecil S. McTavish, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. McTavish, Flesherton, wedding to take place in November.

Amazing Accomplishment

The announcement that the Bible Society during the year just closed has distributed over 12 million copies of the scriptures in whole or in part brings to mind the immense power which this organization wields for the cause of Christ.

Union Hill

Everyone is enjoying real winter weather.

Mr. Caldwell was in our burg on Wednesday repairing the Bell Telephone lines.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Semple of Eugenia, who are spending their honeymoon, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Semple.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Stewart and Mr. Herman Cords of Owen Sound visited with Mr. and Mrs. Russel Allison.

Mr. W. Campbell and lady friend of Toronto visited with Mrs. James McFadden.

Mr. Herb. Brown and Miss Alma Brown attended service for the deaf and dumb in Owen Sound on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Semple and daughter Shirley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore of Flesherton.

Mr. W. McMann from Owen Sound has bought the Jos. Walker farm. Mr. and Mrs. McMann and family are settled in their new home. We welcome them to our community.

Mr and Mrs. Robt. Bradley, Ernest and Ina spent Tuesday with friends at Proton.

Mrs. Peter D'Arcy

The sudden passing of Mrs. Ellen D'Arcy, widow of the late Peter D'Arcy which occurred on Thursday afternoon, October 23rd, came as a great shock to her family and to the community. The late Mrs. D'Arcy had not been well all summer, but her condition was not considered serious until a few days before her death, when she was confined to her bed with heart weakness. Despite medical attention and the care of a trained nurse she gradually sank until the end came.

Deceased, who was fifty-nine years of age, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moran, and was born and brought up on the townline of Holland and Glenelg. Thirty-four years ago she married Mr. D'Arcy, settling on a farm in Glenelg, from which they afterward moved to a farm a mile and a half west of the village. To them were born four sons and two daughters, both girls dying while young. Mr. D'Arcy died two years ago.

The late Mrs. D'Arcy was a kind and loving wife and mother, a good neighbour and a consistent member of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, Markdale.

Surviving are four sons, namely: Leo, Frank, Joe and Leonard also five brothers, Thomas, Charles, Richard Moran of Holland and William and Joseph Moran of Glenelg, and a sister, Mrs. J. Vasey of New Westmisister, B.C.

The funeral took place Saturday morning to St. John's cemetery, Glenelg. Rev. Father F. J. McHugh had charge of the service.

Mrs. Willard Gilbert

On October 15th this community received a shock on hearing of the death of Mrs. Willard Gilbert in the hospital at Markdale, following an operation. Mrs. Gilbert had been in poor health for the last six months, but it was not realized how serious was her condition, until after the operation.

Mrs. Gilbert, whose maiden name was Etta Wickens, was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Wickens of Kimberley. At the age of eighteen she went West and two years later was married to Mr. Willard Gilbert of Moose Jaw. They lived in the West until eight years ago, when they returned to Kimberley and have since resided on the Gilbert homestead near Kimberley.

Mrs. Gilbert was of a cheerful disposition and was beloved by her many friends.

The funeral, which was conducted by Rev. Silas McAuslin, pastor of United Church, Kimberley, took place from her home and interment was made in Markdale Cemetery.

Mrs. Gilbert leaves to mourn her death her husband, two sons Kenneth and Mervyn and one little daughter Leota. She is also survived by her parents, two brothers and three sisters, John and Fred, Mrs. Frank J. Weber, Mrs. Chas. Camack all of Kimberley and Mrs. (Rev.) Wm. Banks of Loverna, Sask.

The floral tributes were very beautiful consisting of :

Wreath, father and mother; pillow, brothers and sisters; wreath, Ladies' Aid and Women's Institute; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ellis, Pedlar family, Kimberley Public School, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wiley.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Robt. Lawrence Robt. Chard, Elmer Ellis, Russel Ellis, Andrew Fawcett and Harvey Cornfield.

Thomas H. Brett

An impressive funeral took place at Paynton, Sask., October 3rd, when the remains of the late Thomas Brett were laid to rest in Paynton Cemetery with full honors accorded to the departed Orangeman. Rev. W. H. English conducted the service at Christ Church, assisted by Rev. D. Munro of North Battleford and Rev. B. Saunders and Rev. R. Stevenson of Lashburn. The hymns "Peace, Perfect Peace" and "O God, Our Help" were sung.

The following were the pallbearers from Loyal Orange Lodge 1972, Lashburn: Rev. B. Saunders, Rev. R. Stevenson, Messrs. Wm. Sanderson, W. J. Hobbs, J. McNaughton and Wm. Echibild.

In addition to the ordinary burial service, the lodge service was read at the graveside and the lodge colors, orange and black, were dropped upon the casket.

Among the many beautiful floral tributes were: his sorrowing wife and family, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Gladys and Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chisholm, Mr. and Mrs. MacKay and Katie, the Setter family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Larkins, Lashburn; Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, Ida Holmes and Christ Church W.A.

The late Mr. Brett had farmed in the Paynton district for some years and had also conducted the barber business and pool hall up to within two weeks of his death, which took place in the Lashburn hospital, after an operation for appendicitis.

He leaves to mourn his loss his widow and five children, Herman, Frederick, Marjory, Gladys and Muriel. Also two sisters, Annie, Mrs. Chas. Fothergill of Markdale, and Laura, Mrs. Dave Aelick of Little Current, Manitoulin Island.

The high esteem in which the late Mr. Brett was held was shown by the large number who attended the funeral services. The school flag was lowered at Paynton as soon as the sad news came through from Lashburn of Mr. Brett's decease. All places of business were closed during the funeral service.

Loucks - Lougheed

With a floral setting of pretty cut flowers and ferns, the marriage took place on Wednesday, October 15th, at the manse, Chatsworth, of Miss Blanche Josephine Lougheed, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lougheed of St. Vincent township, and Mr. Cecil Loucks, son of Mr. P. Loucks of Chatsworth. Rev. S. Martin, M.A., performed the ceremony. Winsome indeed was the fair young bride in her beautiful travelling suit of brown, her dress being of Havana brown, trimmed with transparent velvet and gold stitchings, made on princess lines. She also wore a handsome long coat of beige brown broadcloth with French beaver collar and long cuffs, with hat and shoes to match. After the ceremony the happy couple left by motor amid a shower of confetti and good wishes by many friends who accompanied them for a trip to Montreal, Ottawa and other places. On their return they will reside in Chatsworth.

Previous to her marriage the bride, who is one of St. Vincent's popular young people, was showered with many beautiful and costly gifts for her new home. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial check.

Celebrated 80th Birthday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Flecher was invaded by brothers and sisters and close relations on October 15th, it being the occasion of another milestone being passed by Mr. Fletcher, he being 80 years of age on that date. The house was prettily decorated and at high noon 24 guests sat down to a sumptuous fowl dinner. The table looked lovely with asters and dahlias, the centre being adorned with a three-storey birthday cake with 80 pink candles thereon. The cake and decorations were the work of Miss Ida McDonald of Creemore. After ample justice had been done, all repaired to the living room, when a splendid program was disposed of consisting of speeches, music, song and reading, along with good wishes from the company for many more happy birthdays. Many photo snaps were taken, which in the years to come will be happy reminders. Mr. Fletcher also received many beautiful gifts. The guests present were Mrs. McDonald and daughter Miss Ida, Mr. John McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Hood of Creemore; Mr. and Mrs. H. Pell, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fletcher and Miss Poole of Toronto; Dr. and Mrs. Wolfe and daughter of Durham; Mr. Oliver, Mr. Ridsdale and daughter Norma of Galt; Mr. and Mrs. James Beatty of Orange Valley; Mrs. Glen McGee and daughter Dorothey of Vandeleur; Mrs. R. Whittaker and son, I. B. of the 4th line. The community also extends its best wishes to Mr Fletcher.

Annual Fowl Supper and Program

The annual fowl supper and entertainment under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of Annesley Church held on Thursday evening of last week was a decided success in every particular. The supper, served from five to eight o'clock was enjoyed by all. The audience assembled in the auditorium of the church after the supper and were entertained by radio selections while waiting for the program which was provided by the choir of Central United Church, Owen Sound.

The quality of the several numbers gave evidence of careful and efficient training. Among the numbers were a chorus and solo, "The City Beautiful"; two choruses "The Harp that once thr' Tara's Hall" and "Praise Ye the Lord O Jerusalem;" contralto solo "Little Mother of Mine" by Mrs. Menzies; a duet "Pale Moon" by Mrs. Waugh and Mrs. Menzies; soprano solo "Something Worth While" by Miss Bessie Sinclair; readings "Betty at the ball game" and the "Jewish Wedding" by Mrs. McKay; violin selections by Miss Jean Maxwell; tenor solos by Mr. Rupert Legate.

Mrs. Moore presided at the organ most efficiently. The program was a pleasing one throughout.

Married

MAY - LUSH—At Temple Hill manse by Rev. J. R. Wilkinson, on Saturday noon, October 25th, 1930, Luella Joy, youngest daughter of Mr. William and the late Mrs. Lush of Rocklyn, to Davis Arthur May, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. May of Meaford.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eagles wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for sympathy during the long weary weeks their son was in the hospital.

CREAM

The Cream season is about ended. Patrons who are through selling cream for the season are asked to kindly return empty cans to us and leave name and address with us so that we can mail you a 1931 calendar.

Please note that under the new Provincial act it is against the law to use cream cans for any other purpose than holding cream.

FOWL

In our previous advertisements we predicted a lower fowl market. Those who sold us their fowl early received the benefit of a high market price. We are expecting a still lower fowl market and therefore we advise you to sell your fowl to us as early as possible.

All fowl must be in good shape and well starved before they are brought in.
