A quiet wedding took place in the presence of a few near relatives on Thanksgiving Day, November 10th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Saunders, when their second daughter Rose was married to Mr. Gordon Raddell of Colpoy's. The mariage took place at three o'clock p.m., and after a buffet lunch, the happy couple left by motor for Owen Sound and thence to Toronto for a few days. After their return on Monday evening, Nov. 17, a miscellaneous shower was tendered them in the hall by their merry friends. The young couple will reside on the groom's farm at Colpoy's and have the good wishes of a large circle of friends.

The fowl supper and program of the Anglican Guild held on Thanksgiving evening was a decided success. A most beautiful day tempted a large number of people to attend the evenings entertainment. Supper was served in Mr. Dixon's building and although about sixty-four could be seated at once nearly three hours was necessary for all to dine. During the waiting for the program, Miss Farzell and Rev. Mr. Parsons played several musical numbers. Rev. Mr. Parsons was chairman of the evening. Rev Mr. Lowry was [illegible] and made a few humorous [illegible]. The following people took [illegible] program: Miss Jean Finlay, Miss Irene Saunders, Miss Abercrombie, Miss W. McDougal, Mr. H. Fligg, Mr. D. Morrison, Maurel and Murray Acheson. Proceeds of the supper, about $148.00.

Mr. and Mrs. A. King, Miss Audrey and Walter, Miss Ruth King and Clark Scott spent the week-end near Brampton and Scarboro Junction.

The Orangemen partook of a fraternal chicken supper served in the Orange Hall on Saturday evening.

A very well attended meeting regarding Hydro Electeric matters was held last Tuesday evening in the hall, when Mr. S. Cooper and a Hydro engineer addressed those attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook motored to Powassan last Wednesday for a few days hunt and visit, returning home on Monday.

Mr. Bert Dixon spent a few days in Owen Sound recently.

Wodehouse

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fawcett visited Mr. and Mrs. Russell Risk of Epping on Sunday last.

T. I. and Mrs. Fawcett and daughter Vera spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. G. E. Cornfield of the valley.

Miss Vera Fawcett remained in the valley for a short visit.

Mrs. Rorke treated a few of her friends to a social evening recently.

The farmers are wearing pleasant faces these days owing to the fine weather which is giving them a chance to get ahead with fall work.

Mrs. Leslie Fawcet and children spent a few days last week at the home of her sister Mrs. Harry Beckerley.

Mr. Samuel Milsap

Mr. Samuel Millsap, son of the late William and Mary Ann Millsap, early pioneers of Glenelg township, died at his home at 94 Simpson Ave., Toronto, on Tuesday, November 11, after a lingering illness. He had recently been in the Sanitarium at Battle Creek, Mich., and at Hamilton.

The late Mr. Millsap, who was 70 years of age, was born on lot 22, Con. 11, Glenelg, where his early years were spent. His father died when Mr. Millsap was a youth and consequently the care of his mother and responsibility of nine brothers and sisters rested heavily on him. When the family grew up he went to Toronto where he held some responsible position. For a number of years he was a guard at the Central prison and prison farm at Guelph. By industry and integrity he accumulated considerable. After making his home in Toronto 44 years ago he united with Woodgreen Tabernacle on Queen St. East. Rev. M. Marshall, his pastor, spoke very highly of the late Mr. Millsap as a christian whose character was above reproach.

The deceased was unmarried. He is survived by three sisters; Mrs. Wm. Walker in Minnesota; Mrs. M. Armstrong in Toronto and Mrs. T. H. Wilson of Markdale.

The funeral took place in Markdale on Thursday on the arrival of the 11.47 train. Rev H. S. Warren, pastor of Annesley Church, conducted the burial services. The pallbearers were all old friends of the deceased: Messrs. S. H. Wright, A. L. Walker, Alex. Smith, J. B. Thibaudeau, J. J. Richardson and R. W. Wilson.

Among those here from a distance for the funeral were Mrs. M. Armstrong and Mrs. Riley of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. H. Jackson and Mrs. J. McCutcheon of Wareham; Misses Edith and Bertha Johnston of Dundalk; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Talbot and Mr. and Mrs. A. Best of Flesherton and Mrs. W. S. Chalmers of Owen Sound.

Born

DENNISON—In Markdale Hospital, on Sunday, November 9th, 1930, to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dennison, a son.—John Howard.

Married

McTAVISH - PURVIS—In the Annesley Church parlor, on Monday, November 17th, 1930, Dorcas Isabel Purvis, R.N., sister of Mrs. H. S. Merriam, Markdale to Cecil Shier McTavish, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. McTavish, Flesherton.

A Growing Demand

The Bible Society states that though up to the present time it has circulated the Scriptures in 630 different languages, it is yet unable to meet the demands for the publishing of new translations of the Scriptures. From a mere literary standpoint the Bible Society's work is not merely unique, but is unapproached by any similar effort.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and sympathy during the illness of Mrs. Jackson. We appreciate every token received.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jackson
Berkeley.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McNally wish to thank the neighbors and friends for kind assistance when their house was destroyed by fire. They also desire to expres thanks to the teacher at S.S. No. 4, Miss Kyle, who was so kind to their daughter.

Barrhead Women's Institute

The institute met at the home of Miss Emma Littlejohns with ten members and one visitor present. It was opened in the usual manner. The minutes of the last meeting were then read.

A paper was given by Mrs. Hatton on Bees and their Value which was very interesting.

A letter from Mr. T. Stewart Cooper was read thanking the Institute for their donation to the School Fair.

It was decided that Mrs. Wilson be sent as a delegate to the Convention to be held in Toronto.

It was decided that in the future the meetings would be held in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Torrie, Dec. 4th.

The meeting was closed by singing "God Save the King."

A dainty lunch was then served by the hostess assisted by Miss Hatton and Miss Mary Bowles.

Holland Centre

The Ladies Aid Society of the Holland Centre United Church is to be congratulated on the success of the concert which was given under their auspices on Thursday evening last. A high-class program was given by the Harmony Quartette of Owen Sound. Each number was splendidly rendered and heartily appreciated by the large audience assembled. The quartete was supported by Mr. McLeod of Berkeley, who delighted the audience with Scotch songs. To add to the attraction of the program Messrs. Sutcliffe and Harper gave several instrumental selections, all of which was much appreciated. At the close of the concert lunch was served in the Sunday School room. The social half-hour spent this way will not soon be forgotten.

The service in the United Church on Sunday evening was in charge of the young people's society and was greatly appreciated by the congregation.

CREAM

The Cream season is about ended. Patrons who are through selling cream for the season are asked to kindly return empty cans to us and leave name and address with us so that we can mail you a 1931 calendar.

Please note that under the new Provincial act it is against the law to use cream cans for any other purpose than holding cream.

FOWL

In our previous advertisements we predicted a lower fowl market. Those who sold us their fowl early received the benefit of a high market price. We are expecting a still lower fowl market and therefore we advise you to sell your fowl to us as early as possible.

All fowl must be in good shape and not starved before they are brought in.
