The Gringo Privateer

By PETER B. KYNE

Kenneth Burney is given the job of general manager of Bradley Bardin's ranch providing he gets rid of Bruce Martin and Miguel Gallegos, who have been stealing Bardin's cattle. Burney has outwitted Bruce twice efore and Bruce has sworn to kill him. Muriel Bardin has become interested in Burney. Burney and his bodyguard go into town and in an encounter with Bruce he calmly accepts an insult, much to the disguist of his men. Later he crosses 'e houndary into Mexico and calls on Senor ite Haro, a Mexican official, who agrees to allow Burney and an armed party into Mexico provided they wipe out Miguel Gallegos and his crowd.

"Just try reaching for a gun with your left arm, old settler," he warned, "and I'll break your right arm. Then I'll take your guns away from you and this time I'll keep them. Poor old Martin Bruce!"

He pursed his lips as if to spit in the snarling face, but refrained, while Miguel Gallegos and the other man stood helplessly by, for Burney had adroitly twisted his victim until Bruces body presented a shield in the event the latters' friends should open fire. "Close in" Burney ordered his CHAPTER XVII—(Cont'd). "Thank you. Now, I am going to ask the same favor for Senor Martin Bruce and an armed party I have reason to suspect he will lead across the international boundary. It would Le to our mutual interest if he should remain undisturbed on his journey." But why permission for Bruce? H a bad egg, that old man."

"He will come to El Cajon Bonits to fight me." "And you desire this fight?"

"I do not desire it, but it is necessary, senor. If we fight on the soil of our own country there will be disagreeable results for those that survive, whereas, if we fight on foreign soil the survivors may return to their own country, which will ask no questions. And once we are out of Mexico your government will of course have no interest in making an inves-

"Trile. Well, Senor Burney, / think the matter can be arranged. will close my eyes to much, provided we get rid of his fellow, Gallegos. And to get rid of him it is necessary, I suppose, to fight on Mexican soil. And it will be a private war?" Burney nodded. "I have a plan for getting rid of Martin Bruce on American foil, provided he escapes the fight I am preparing for him in El Calon Bonita." "Provided he comes to the fight, "He will come. I have laid my plans for that. While I live he is in danger. I am a menace to his enterprise, and mas, be disposed of. And he will prefor to dispose of postin Mexico, since, in the United States, he will be imname from punishment for the crime committed in Mexico., In the United Stages he is not so certain that I may tol succeed in disposing of him. He is warr.od "But can you prove that this Senor Trues beands the cattle of Senor Bar-

"I cupied to prove it. Senor De Itageo, within one week, and when the evidence is addreed it would please me to have Your Excellency and a numin Moves and sattle thieves are as "We shall, perhaps, meet again, Senor was silent for a whole hour.

happy to be present, senor."

proceed immediately to confer with our chuck-wagon, drop in and have a His Excellence, your governor? I bite with us." should like to have his reaction to my pian before committing pryself to it. make it a point to come by your chuck-I will return one month from today."

CHAPTER XVIII.

Back at the Hotel International half, merrier." er hour later Ken Burney and his bodyguard oinea in the hotel grill, while acress the room old Martin Gruce Mignet Gallegos and the other turn are and eyed them colly from ness that brought us to Huachita tion to time. After dina : Burney boys. We'll leave our saddle horse went to the hotel desk and asked for in the livery stable and pick them u a clay in blank. As he leaned across next week when we pass through this the counter writing on it, Martin way enroute to El Cajon Bonita Lirues came up alonguice of him and stanged on the small toe of his left antest place in the world for us, s fire. Without a word Burney moved we'll just hire an automobile and drive ever to give him more room. "Lemme have the key to my room,"

Bruce ordered the clerk, and drove his ethow into Burney's ribs. latter saluted him politely.

4

"Sending a telegram for more help?" the old wolf queried harshly. "I would, if I was you. You'll need it." - "What a seer you are, Mr. Bruce Are you, by any chance, the seventh son of a seventh son and born with a caul? You must be, for you have made a most astonishingly correct Martin Bruce the elegram. It read: Golden West Arms Compar y;

Los Angeles, California. Please express collect immediately two light Lewis machine guns and chair. "Lovely evening," the general thirty Springfield rifles United States Army Model. Also one hundred thousand rounds ball cartridge. Bill to El Ranchito Division

Bardin Land and Cattle Co.,

Kenneth Burney, General Manager The old scoundrel was interested. "What you aim to do, sonny boy? Start a revolution across the line?" "I intend to make El Cajon Bonita a mighty good place for you and your tol. So I hired a car and came home men to keep away from; I intend to in order to avoid the occasion of sin." the Bardin cattle."

"Why, our Willie's on the peck, ain't he?" Martin Bruce murmured sneeringly. He handed back the telegram which Burney gave to the clerk to file. "Well, thanks for the tip, son. reckon I can pick up a couple of experienced machine gunners myself, an' being floated from the woods to the it you can buy Springfield army rifles I reckon I can, too. Pleased to meet you some bright day over in El Cajon' Bonita. Good night!" With the word he again dug viciously at the younger man's ribs with his right elbow. In-

"Just try reaching for a gun with fire. "Close in," Burney ordered his henchmen. "If they start anything,

He half squatted and presented his ft knee as a seat for Martin Bruce; violent downward pressure on the latter's arm caused Bruce to squat in pain on that left knee, whereupon Burney suddenly withdrew it and with Wide-eyed a violent shove hurled Martin Bruce Partridges creep. over backward. He struck the flood Up into the trees, with a rib-cracking jolt; before he could scramble to his feet Burney had The road-haunting. possessed himself of the small gun worn inside the trousers band on the Partridgesoffy. right side. "Quiet," he warned, and When winter night come ielped himself to a forty-five worn inder Bruce's left coat lanel. "That's the third time I've disarm-ed you and the second time I've manhandled you within ten days, Mr. Bruce," he explained, as the latter got to his feet. "Each time you have The green-ruffed been the aggressor. I tell you you're too old to be picking on the young fellows."

Martin Bruce stood staring at him, ashen of face, the glint of mucder in his cold blue eyes. Suddenly his lower lip commenced to tremble; then two big tears started across his sun-bitten face and he turned and walked out of the hotel.

"My friend," said Miguel Gallegos softly, "when men like Martin Bruce weep a man always dies. Only death can avenge that insult, and you have signed your own death warrant I am truly sorry for you, my friend. Because con are very young, you have been very feolish.'

Burney bowed to the speaker. wouldn't it le a bright idea. Senor Miguel Gallegos," he purred, "if you hopped across the Line to territory upon which you have a citizen's right to air your unimportant opinions regarding the antics of two foreigners? I think I'd go if I were you. Really I would. The atmosphere is a bit surcharged here. As you pass out will you kindly return these guns to your time myself." "With pleasure, senor." Miguel Gallegos pocketed both guns, and, bowing again, smiled, showing a set of Let of competent Mexican witnesses teeth that would have won him first I have is still law and justice prize as a dentifrice advertisement.

All the law here as they are as the are as

"Some day, over in El Cajon Bon-Senor Do Haro howed. "I shall be ita. T understand that's your stamping ground, Senor Gallagos. We'll be 101 w seed you word in ample time. branding down there presently and if Meanwhile, may I hope that you will you should happen to be traveling past

> "You are very kind, senor. I will wagon. I may have a few friends with me.

"Bring them, too. The more

"Buenas noches, senor."

"Buenas noches."

Burney turned to his bodyguard Well, I've cleaned up all of the busi Meanwhile, this town isn't the pleas back to the ranch. And we'll stick the king for the bill." King Bardin and the princess we lounging on the veranda about nine Oh. good evening, Mr. Bruce," the oclock that night when Ken Burney and his bodyguard drove up in the hired car.

"All intact?" the king demanded "Right-o, Your Royal Highness."

"Come up here and tell me abou Mr. Burney." "Do, please," the princess pleaded To her father she said: "Something Read that, and he handed must have happened. He went to town on horseback but returns in a rented Ken Burney came up on the ver anda. The king motioned him to a manager murmured, "but almost too warm for comfort." "Never mind the weather," His Ma jesty warned with a slight show of impatience. "Report!"

So Ken Burney reported in metic lous detail and, in conclusion, added: "I had a feeling that if I went into the stall in the livery stable to get my horse, some inconsiderate wretch might rise up out of the manger and (To be continued.)

SINKAGE OF LOGS

It has been estimated that about two and one-half million dollars a year are lost in Eastern Canada on account of the sinkage of logs while mill. This problem is being studied by the Forest Products Laboratories of Canada, Department of the Inter-

An old farmer was complaining bit- terior, Ottawa, working in co-operastantly Burney's left arm slid under trly to the minister of the terrible tion with the Gold Commissioner at Bruce's crooked forearm; his fingers bad weather for the crops, when the Dawson. grasped the left lapel of Bruce's coat latter reminded him that he had much in a firm gr.p. while his right hand to be grateful for, all the same. "And CANADA'S MAJOR POWER SYSTEM of or Martin Bruce's right wrist. remember," said the good man, "Pro-

Big Trade Increase What New York With British Indies

Is Wearing

Illustrated Dressmaking Lesson Fur

nished Wich Every Pattern

Canada Does 400 Per Cent. BY ANNABELLE WORTHINGTON More Business Than

Quebec.-Canada's trade to the Briish West Indies has increased 400 per cent. since 1912, in which year the first trade treaty involving the British West Indies generally and Canada was signed, declared F. W. Fraser. Canadian trade commissioner to the British West Indies, in a recent inter-

Mr. Fraser has visited Canada in the interests of even further increase in trade. As an instance of the reciprocal increase in shipments of tropical fruits to Canada, Mr. Fraser cited the case of Jamaica, which shipped a million stems of bananas direct to Canada last year, compared with none at all previous to 1925 and the trade treaty of that year. The Road Along the autumn road As the robins go to sleep The brown-backed As a dog lopes by Thunder-winged Where the white drifts for

The snowshoe-footed

Partridges burrow

On the fallen logs.

When the spring-ti

Furry-legged

Partridges drum. -Kemper Hammond Broadu 2561

A black canton crepe endorses the wrapped flared tunic skirt. It's so

The curved seaming and button trin of, 39inch material with 14 yard of Crepy woolen, crepe satin and flat crepe are suitable for this model.

HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS

ly, giving number and size of such

The Dark Pines

This harmony of height and girth

Are things of earth, yet not of earth.

eauty, this cool bark.

Breath upon by brow

soul a certain sign;

f this dark pine.

Write your name and address plain-smart for Aut in wear.

ming details.

the shoulders.

ery slender.

and wearable.

This libered

There bides

39-inch contrasting.

On the Wing The very rich man gave his wayward son a thousand pounds and packed him off to South America, telling him not to come back again until he had made good. Some months later the rich man received a cablegram from his son. It read: "Have bought ranch and fifty head of cattle. A feather in my cap." The rich man sent a cablegram congratulating the boy. Two months passed and he received another message from his son: "Have bought fifty acres of land and two hundred head of cattle. Another feather in my cap." Again the rich man cabled a message of congratulation. Another cable quickly followed from South America. It read: "Ranch destroyed by forest fire. Cattle lost. Please wire passage money home." Father cabled back: "Cannot send passage money. Suggest take feathfriends? I can only use two at a drs from cap, stick in self, and fly

Nett Gains

For years Jock had been courting "Penny for your thoughts, Jock said the girl

"Well," replied the Scotsman, coming suddenly bold, "I was just thinking, Maggie, how fine it would be if you gave me a wee bit kissie." "Of course, Jock" said the girl. After she had complied, there was

And in my another long silence Else would I kneel, a Druid, now., "And what are you thinking about Idolatrous now, Jock?" she asked coyly, after a while. "Another kiss?" "Na, na, lassie," said Jock. "I was

A Sure Way

The two suburbanites were walking

"I've spent hundreds of dollars of my savings sending my boy to a good school, and the young scrondrel does not even trouble to write to me," said

"That's funny, replied Boots. "I al-

"Oh," said Robinson. "How do you

"Easy," replied Boots. "I send him a letter saying I am enclosing $25, and "I always have a feeling that George we won't see him again until spring.

"He's such a bear",

"What a peculiar notion. Why?"

YUKON WATER-POWER

the only feasible source of energy for large-scale mining enterprises. These water-powers are administered by the Dominion Water Power and Reclama tion Service, Department of the In-forget to enclose the cheque."

ways manage to get my son to write."

in the park, and the conversations turned to their respective children.

me thoughts."

Robinson.

do it?"

I swear this is no mortal tree. No perishable root would dare just thinking that it was about time Stand robed in such sublimity, you were paying me that penny for Exhaling a celestial air.

Who drew my dreaming to this hill Alone responds. Some hidden Will Is overshadowing my own.

My feet are lpst; I am waylaid. There is a Witness watching me. Beauty from her bright balconade Leans like a living deity.

O Being, so superbly seen, Betray me not upon the steep. O God of this dark evergreen, Beware! . I have my soul to keep. -Clifford J. Laube

A Handy Xmas Gift

A nice Christmas gift for a man is soft-collar dase You can make it from any material you like, but a black, or maroon red, navy blue or brown faille silk

Your finished case can be either long enough to lay the collars out tion he is more active now, evidently straight in it or it can be long enough to fold them through the back in each day with a new idea for keep and have ample space for them that ing my fire from smoking. He wedged way. The majority of cases fold the f.rebricks in the side, of the fireplace, collar, but it a man is fussy, and and later whittled a long stick, which would be bothered with that crease he forced into a crack in the front through the centre of the back, make sheathing. But the fire still smoked him a long one.

For the full-sized case, have it fin- who sent for a chimney sweep. ished to measure 17 or 18 inches "I also met Garvin, a portly gentle will disappear late in the autumn and that long and from 12 to 16 inches He shares his room with Whitely, who wide. Fit a piece of cardboard in chiefly acts as counsel in 'Poor Perso that the flaps fold down over the gets from it. The water-powers of the Yukon Ter- collars, and stitch the outside edges ritory, Canada, are inseparably linked all around. with the mining development, since mining provides the only considerable button and loop or you can use the little legal work. Palmerston is a market for power, and water-power serviceable snapper.

"I'm Hummngi" The landlady dashed upstairs.

"What is it?" she asked per only boarder.

consider the first rest of the air are fed each day." "Aye," being defined as those with an annual was his reply "And then tell me if given any employees, by favor of Canada has eighteen "large" hydro- to say?" of this wn left arm, which acted as a replied the farmer, darkly, Off my output of 100,000,000 kilowatthours you think there is anything useful

American Admires English Courts

Lawyer Practising in London Says Trial of a Case is Decorous and Pleasant

Tells of Quaint Customs

The English barrister appears to in a class by himself. He cannot sue a client who refuses to pay him for his services and the amount of onorarium for handling cases is ar ranged for him by his clerk. These and other interesting details of legal practice in England are given by an American lawyer practicing in ondon, P. S. Dyer Smith, who write about it in The Landmark, organ of the English-Speaking Union. Mr. Smith confines his description of the famous Temple to the observation that it is a legal community, a place of mellow, old, sunflecked courts. dim passages and gardens hidden the "chambers" of barristers and their halls, libraries and law schools. "I used to practice law on the 26th floor of the Woolworth Building in New York," continues Mr. Smith.

Everything was very efficient, convenient and bustling. Now I have floor of a sombre, blackish brick building several hundred years old. My room is large and peaceful, with a cheerful coal fire. The birds are twittering outside. It is dignified, if "The Temple is much the same a when Thackeray described Pendennis as living there are complaining about the lack of washing facilities then. , to wash, go down the steep stone steps into the basement, clinging to a rope at one side, for the stairs are very dark. Turning into the base ment, a little light is given by tiny gray windows opening just above the flags outside.

LAWS MAJESTY UPHELD BY

of the hip yoke are decidedly slim-"I leased my chambers from the The supple bodice shows slight allchamber-renting among a number of around blousing. Pin tucks narrow side lines. In his main business he is, of course, a necessary adjunct of The dainty flared lace cuffs of the the British law, because British baring sleeves make the arms appear risters, as well as 'me lud' the judge, and the clerk of the court, all wear Style No. 2561 is youthfully smart gowns and wigs. The judge's wig is and a decorous sight, with the coundistinguished from the barrister's by sel and judges, dignified and handsome It is designed in sizes 16, 18 years, a different arrangement of curls. Thus in their gowns and wigs, stating their 36, 38, 40, 42 44, 46 and 48 inches the law upheld. The 33-inch size regulres 31/4 yards

"The wigmaker offered me the choice of space in King's Bench Wall: overlooking Temple Garden, Pump Court, Fig Tree Court, etc. Pump Court has no pump, but is a pleasant paved quadrangle with trees in the centre; and an old sundial. It is near the round Norman church built by the patterns as you want. Enclose 20c in Knights Templars in 1185. Fig Tree stamps or coir (coin preferred; wrap Court has no fig tree, but it is recordit carefully) for each number, and ed that one flourished there in the year 1515. "Entering the quarters which ponderous outer doorway, within which are painted the names of the occupiers. Through the entry we come, in semi-darkness, to the mas-These waited, plumes at heaven's are, sive oak outer door of our chambers. This, upon knocking, will be opened by the clerk. "A barrister's clerk is a distinctly British institution, unlike anything i an American law affice. He stands as a buffer between the barrister and solicitors and others, books all ap- a defect in the lighting apparatus. pointments and attends to all money matters.

"In our case the clerk is a rosy cheeked eager young person with temperamental hair, bright eyes and a honeyed tongue. He, and also most Who set this snare? A falling cone of the barristors in this suite, are times—ch?" proofs that English people are not standardized products, as it is said Americans are coning to be, but are strikingly individual.

SOME BARRISTERS NEVER PRACTICE.

"The barristers should now be presented. I counted ten names on the mother, hoping to be specially impres outer door, to my surprise, for it sive, said: seemed impossible for so many people to have table space in these few keep on doing many naughty things rooms, and actually several of them do not. The barristers' calling is still a gentleman's occupation in England. and men with independent incomes study law and become barristers without ever practicing. They arrange merely to have their names painted on doors.

"I met a number of these men my case, lined with scarlet, silver or first few days in chambers. Watson beige, makes a good color combina- is a scholarly looking elderly gentleman with a white beard. He is also an amateur tinker, at which occupathan the law. For some time he came until the clerk consulted the wigmaker, long, not counting the flaps that fold man, who comes in regularly to an over and fasten. Cut both the out inner room, reads letters, telephones side and the inside of the case twice his broker, and then goes for the day. through the centre and stitch the case sons' Cases' under the new divorce all around the cardboard to hold it law. This work, however, costs him in place. Then cut out the corners, more in out-of-pocket expenses than he "To complete my tabulation, Crawdon is a brilliant mathematician, who To fasten you can put on a fancy lectures at London University but does Momber of Parliament, who were the chambers only as a lorwarding ad dress. Vernon is a kindly, whimsical man, a specialist in ecclesiastical law The dining room bell rang flercely, who spends much time in drawing con vevances of churchyards. "It may be as well to state that un der the British local system some "I want to speak to you about this barristers are extremely busy and egg," said the boarder. command large ees, while many others have little to do and live largecommand large ees, while many rister is only retained as coursel, or

ISSUE No. 47—'30

No other Orang Pekoe can equal this in Flavour

Tale of "Seven League Boo's" Traced Back to Men on Stilts

'Fresh from the gardens'

and legends of "seven league boots," country much more rapidly than the. shoes of swiftness," and other similar ning men; highing no difficulty, tor ... aids to fast running heroes or evil- ample, in dutting off and knifng out. away behind the buildings on one side doers are not prophecies of modern side invaders not equipped with of Fleet Street. The Temple contains railways or automobiles, Miss Alice B. or in reaching the outer end of some Gommo has suggested to the Folk-road into the marsh long about of Lore Society, in London, but are dim flyeing jayblides. Many of the local of folk memories of people who once of the seven league boots down lived in the fens and marshes of southern England and northwestern Eur- be a quite a ural concin ion of the ope, and who were regarded with ter- ers outside the marsh hand who ror by the peaceful farmers, of the these mars, then walking alaba at chambers in the Temple on the ground nearby solid ground because they distance apparently with their walked on stilts. The fen men habit- 10 or 12 fe above the ground. ually used these tall stilts, Miss time probed the marsh land Comme suggests, to move about in the drained and reclaimed, the swamps and shallow ponds and dyked stilts crared and was forgation for fields of their homes. Becoming extended the memory of specify fact was to say the memory of specific fact was to say the say that the memory of specific fact was to say the say that the memory of specific fact was to say the say that the memory of specific fact was to say the say that the sa tremely expert on these, as the still giants pers all, took or a dec walking shepherds of the French sand tural cast all became per of dune country in Gascony still are, the European fillore.

Origin of the innumerable myths fen dwelles could move acres has

... nt would do. LEGAL PROCEDURE SURE AND

"The English legal procedure was reformed in the last century, with Christmas the result, as all agree, that justice the trees date been purchase is surer, quicker and less impeded by problem walk which many home. distinction between barrister and be configurated during the house technicalities than in America. The vig and gown maker, who includes solicitor was retained, however, while son. The see York State College it was dropped in the Unite. States, Forestry at Bradus University where a lawyer practices all branches gests that the most practical of his profession. of his profession. "I will not here go into such ques-are the majesty and the decorum of views in the quiet, crisp voices of English gentlemen, with consideration each for the other, and unfailing politeness. "The Temple is an important part of the great British inheritance from the past. Its estinitic value s undeniable, and even those to whom efficiency is the sole criterion must admit that its final product, British justice, is of the highest quality? The world may be becoming standardized into a drab. efficient sameness. The law may be in process of changing from a gertlemans profesfinally selected, we first pass through sion into a recognized business with the ethics of other businesses. Heaven forbid that these movements should go much further! But if they do the Temple long will stand, an oasis of tree in water previous to floor as sturdy individualism and of the pleasant, leisured, odd o'd ways, in the desert of change."

When It Was Dark

The gas company's inspector called on the busy housewife to repair pine, club "You're not always troubled with poor light, are you?" he asked.. "Oh, no," replied the housewife "not always!"

"Ah," murmured the inspector, " "Yes; only after dark," came retort.

Hereditary

Little Peggy was often ver naughty, and on one occasion, when she had been particularly trying, her

"Do you know, Peggy, that if you your children will be naughty, 'too." The child gave a triumphant smile "Oh, mummy," she said, "now yo have given yourself away."

solicitors and cannot, of course, go out Keep Imas Trees in Cool Humid Places event the a-How to rates from falling out the tree being placed in a room w' ... tions, but I will say that an English the atmospice is dry and the law court during a trial is a pleasant perature have Keep the tree and a decorous sight, with the counhand place the branches at leaves will by dry out. This has accomplished by setting the tree doors when he sun transmit states I doors where or in a shed garage or batt, i. if the tree data be kept in an ut. room of the home until the day Christmas Jonly slight deter will occur before the tree : with its previous freight and all If the tree is kept in ing lights. places entil it is ready for men. usually regain its venture ...

holidays. The higher the temperature , room and khe drier the atmthe sooner I the needles will that Sprinkling the tree with watharmful air a longer istruction of the heart the stems. Setting the base ne : A will impart longer life to the not of In other words, the durability .: . . tree is langely goverhed by arp pheric configures. The same day be said of Cat Xu wreaths and other forms of detions made of plants such as ground oss and holly. . Small live ing trees then may be obtained in-! pots and t lized for brnamental purposes during the holidays and success. fully planted ater, if not kept too joing in the hous Thus, trees used in connection with the colebration of Christmas may stille two purposes.

Just off the Boardwa k FireBroot Construction On & Residential Avenue Harmoni 3. restful surroundings with receational advantages American Plan from $4 Daily WEEKLY OR SEASON RATES O MAPPLICATION

MEAN Don't be helpless when you suddenly get a headache. Reach in your pocket for immediate relief. If you haven't any Aspirin with you, get some at the first drugstore you come to. Take a tablet or two and be rid of the pain. Take promptly. Nothing is gained by waiting to see if the pain will read of worse! Why postpone relief?

throbbir a nead. Quiet a grumbling tooth. Relieve nagging pains of neuralgia or neuritis. Or clieck a sudden cold. Even rheunadisin has lost its terrors for those who have learned to depend in these tablets. Gargill with Aspirin tablets at the lifst suspicion of sore throat, indreduce the infection. its own accord. It may grow Look ich Aspirin on the boxand the Genuine in red. There are many times when Genuine Aspirin tablets do Aspirin tablets will "save the not depus the heart.

Prince of Wales and the second of the second o lailed as the leading royal air pr the world resently after he had the more than 200 miles and fandled controls of two machines within t and one-half hours, In addition to piloting the deflying boat DO-X for in minutes. Galshot on November 1206, the

Norway Recognize Arctic as Canada flew an amphiblan place than the Friendly Note Removes () Ground for Dispute Ox

ered and explored 1: "! by Commander O

maps and princes that Canada said

STEPPING UP CANADAS

one willian to nearly six mill been a marvel of persistency. dove opment has maditained a s through the pre-war slump, he

Circuit the drastic ups and dow midst of world-wide depression. program of hydro-electric install This ability of water power the face of regession in almost farming and favorable facto