Durham Anglican Church congregation celebrated in November the 80th anniversary of the commencement of church services there. Archdeacon Mitholland of Owen Sound was in charge of the first service which was held in John Edge's house and was attended by many from all parts of the territory.

There has been very little election talk in the village up to the present although several names have been mentioned as prospective candidates for the Reeveship. In Holland, things are quiet, too and no definite announcements have been made. Nomination Day, Dec. 29th, will clear the air however. Glenelg, Artemesia and Euphrasia elections have already been held.

Owing to Christmas coming on Thursday of next week The Standard will be printed on Tuesday evening so that it may reach subscribers on Wednesday. Correspondents and other contributors should have copy in as early on Monday as possible. Merchants and others desiring space for Christmas greetings should arrange for same at once and have copy in by nine o'clock Saturday morning.

Mr. Wesley Bell of Glenelg was a heavy loser on Tuesday morning when his barn was destroyed by fire. He was in the mow throwing down feed when the lantern was upset and before Mr. Bell could get out of the way his clothing was on fire and the flames spread so quickly it was impossible to save anything in the barn. Besides the building he lost all his hay, straw and grain, harness, some implements, seven sheep and about 50 hens. There is some insurance but not nearly enough to cover the loss.

Jimmie Sullivan, formerly of this place, is playing hockey with Windsor this season and, according to reports, is making good. In reporting a game in Toronto last week The Mail and Empire said "Sullivan on the defence for Windsor, was one of the best men on the ice with strong defensive work and consistent rushes." The Globe: "For the Windsor team Sullivan was the most conspicuous player. He is a clever stick-handler and plays well on the defence. With a little more assistance from his comrades, he might have counted on several occasions."

Annesley Church Sunday School will hold the annual Christmas tree and concert in the school room on Friday evening, Dec. 19th. Admission 25 cents.
