A public reception was held from 2. to 5 o'clock in the afternoon when large number of friends called to hower their congratulations and good wishes on the bride and groom f fifty years ago. The house was ecially decorated for the occasion with potted plants and ferns and the tea table was centred with a large owl of golden 'mums. During the Mr. and Mrs. Bowers from freinds the Neville community. A very ppropriate address was read by Rev. Mr. Gibbard, pastor of Neville United Church to which Mr. Bowers fittingy replied.

In the evening a turkey dinner was erved to members of the family and few invited guests. The tables were heautifully decorated with cut flowers. The bride's table was centred with a three-storey wedding cake. Following the dinner, a toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Mr. J. O. Tisdall to which everybody responded by singing "For they are jolly good fellows". Mr. J. W. Ford, formerly of Markdale, in a short speech recalled the happy times spent with the Bowers family in Markdale, and other friends spoke of the high steem in which Mr. and Mrs. Bowers find family are held in the commun-
