In Memoriam

ENGLISH—In affectionate memory of a loving husband and father, Robert E. English, who went home, January 7th, 1929.

It's just two years, how swift time flies,
Love's sweetest memory never dies,

We miss his help, his cheery ways,
With him we spent some happy days.

We miss him when we need a friend
On him we could always depend,
He cheered our lives, he soothed our pain,
God grant some day we'll meet again.

Deeply loved and sadly missed
By his wife, son and daughters.

Maggie and Jiggs at the Golden Gate

With changes based on the original. St. Peter stood guard at the Golden Gate.

With a solemn mien and air sedate,
When up to the top of the Golden Stair,
Maggie and Jiggs ascending there,
Applied for admission and came and stood

Before St. Peter so great and good.
In hope the City of Peace to win
And asked St. Peter to let them in.
Maggie was tall and dark and thin,
With a scraggly beardlet on her chin;
Jiggs was short and thick and stout
And his stomach was built so it rounded out;

His face was pleasant and all the while
He wore a kindly and genial smile,
The choir in the distance the echoes woke
And Jiggs kept still while Maggie spoke.

"Oh thou who guardeth the gate," said she,
"We two come hither beseeching thee
To let us enter the heavenly land
And play our harps with the angel band."

Of me, St. Peter, there is no doubt,
There is nothing from heaven to bar me out,
I've been to meeting three times a week
And almost always I'd rise and speak.

"I've told the sinners about the day
When they should repent of their evil way;
I've told my neighbours, I've told them all,
'Bout Adam and Eve and the primal fall;

I've shown them what they'd have to do,
If they'd pass to heaven as the chosen few;
I've marked the path of duty clear;
Laid out the plan of their whole career.

I've talked and talked to them loud and long,
For my lungs are good and my voice is strong;
So, good St. Peter, you'll clearly see
The gate of heaven is open for me.

But Jiggs here, I regret to say,
Hasn't walked in exactly the narrow way;
He smokes and swears and grave faults he's got,
So I don't know whether he will pass or not.

"He never could pray with earnest vim
Or go to revivals or join in a hymn;
While I the sins of my neighbours bore
He gadded about with that Dinty Moore;

He made a practice of staying out late,
Which is a sin you know all women hate;
But at last when he did come home,
The rolling pin went straight for his dome.

"I know him, St. Peter, know him well,
To escape from me he'd go to hell.
But St. Peter, I need him badly here
And hope you can see your way quite clear;

On earth I bore a heavy cross,
Give me in heaven still Jiggs to boss;
I've brought my rolling pin, plates and jars
To keep him dodgin' among the stars.

"But say, St. Peter, it seems to me
This gate isn't kept as it ought to be;
You ought to stand by the opening there
And never sit down in the easy chair;

And say, St. Peter, my sight is dim
But I don't like the way your whiskers are trimmed;
They're cut too wide, with an outward toss;
They'd look better narrow and straight across."

St. Peter sat quiet and stroked his staff
But in spite of his office he had to laugh;
Then he said to the woman with a flash in his eye,
"Who's tending this gate, Maggie, you or I?"

Then he rose in his stature, grim and tall,
And pressed a button against the wall
And said to the Angel who answered the bell:
"Escort the female around to hell."

Slowly Jiggs turned, by habit bent,
To follow wherever Maggie went;
St. Peter standing on duty there
Saw that the top of his head was bare

For he called the old boy back and said:
"Jiggs, how long hast thou been wed?"
"Thirty years," he answered with a weary sigh,
And then he thoughtfully added, "Why?"

St. Peter stood silent with his head bent down,
He raised his hand and scratched his crown;
Then seeming a different thought to take,
Slowly half to himself he spake:

"Thirty years with that woman there
No wonder the old man hasn't any hair;
Swearing is wicked and smoking's not good;
He smoked and swore, I should think he would.

"Thirty years with that tongue so sharp!
Ho! Angel Gabriel, give him a harp;

A jewelled harp, with a golden string,
Good sir, pass in where the angels sing."
And Gabriel gave him a seat alone,
One with a cushion, up near the throne.

"Call up some angels to play their best
For Jiggs has surely earned a rest."
"See that on finest ambrosia he feeds,
He's had all the hell on earth he needs;

It's certainly not the thing to do
To roast him on earth and in heaven, too."
They gave him a harp with golden strings,
A glittering robe and a pair of wings,
And Jiggs looking down from his high level
Thought of Maggie and felt sorry for the devil.

A Private Income of $100 a month for Life ... from age 55!

IF IN GOOD HEALTH
—$100 A MONTH.

IF IN ILL HEALTH
—$100 A MONTH.

IN CASE OF DEATH
—$10,000 CASH.

Just picture it. At 55, while still well and vigorous, to come into a private income (over and above other revenues), guaranteed for the rest of your life, of $100 a month. You simply make yearly or half-yearly deposits of an agreed amount for a specified period, at the end of which you begin to receive a monthly income for life.

That's only part of the story. If, meanwhile, through sickness or accident you should become totally disabled, you cease paying premiums and receive $100 a month during such disability. At age 55, the regular income of $100 a month, unimpaired, comes into effect.

Look how your family is protected. Should you die at any time before reaching 55, your family receives $10,000.
