The Late Orr Minnis

The funeral of the late Mr. Orr Minnis, who passed away on Monday evening of last week, took place on Thursday, Jan. 1st, to the Presbyterian Church cemetery at Chatsworth where the remains were laid to rest beside those of his parents.

The late Orr Minnis was a son of the late John and Sarah Minnis and was born in Halton County in 1855. In 1860 the family moved to Holland and here the deceased grew to manhood. In 1893, in partnership with his brother, Mr. Kennedy Minnis, he purchased Barrhead mill. In 1911 the saw mill was moved to Markdale. For several years Mr. Minnis supplied electric light for the village, first from the plant at Barrhead and later from Hayward Falls. The system was sold to the Hydro Electric Commission in 1915.

In religion the late Mr. Minnis was a Presbyterian and in politics a Liberal. He was also a member of Hiram Lodge No. 496 A.F. & A.M. and the funeral which was held from the home of his brother, Mr. Kennedy Minnis, near Arnott was under Masonic auspices. Rev. Mr. Gregg, Presbyterian minister at Chatsworth, conducted a short service at the house and a public service in the church at Chatsworth. After the church services at the grave the Masonic burial service was read by the Wor. Master, Mr. T. Stewart Cooper, who was assisted by several of the brethren from Markdale, Holland Centre, Flesherton and Chatsworth. The pallbearers were Dr. A. Brown, Messrs. C. R. King, A. Griffith, A. E. Hunt, W. J. Howard and A. E. Colgan.

Among the floral tributes placed on the casket were wreaths from the Presbyterian Church congregation here and from the Masonic lodge.

The late Mr. Minnis is survived by one brother, two nieces and two nephews.

Death of Shirley Meridel Mills

A sad death occurred on Jan. 2nd at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Mills of the eleventh line of Euphrasia near Cherry Grove, when their little six months old daughter, Shirley Meridel, passed away suddenly, convulsions being the cause of the death.

The funeral was held on Saturday, Jan. 3rd, at 1.30 o'clock. Service was conducted at the home by Rev. Parsons of Walters Falls.

The pallbearers were Vera and Elva Smart, Odessa Burnett and Jane Dickie. The body was conveyed by evening train from Markdale, interment being made in the vault at Duadalk. Rev. M. Oldham officiated. The parents, three brothers and one sister survive.

Deeply loved and sadly missed by his wife, son and daughters. I miss you when the morning dawns, I miss you here, I miss you there, Dear Grandad, I miss you everywhere.

Lovingly remembered by his granddaughter, Mable Beatty.

Mr. C. R. Itic Gives Advice

Dear Mr. Editor: Being one of the great army of unemployed this winter I find that I now have time to fulfill one of my great ambitions: that is to write for the newspaper. I have thought for quite a long while that I should have been chosen for editorial work in my younger days but have always been too busy trying to make enough money to keep the "speaker of the house" and the youngsters from having to call on the neighbors for their daily supply of bread.

Well, the most interesting thing to write about to-day is the election which is being held in town. There are eight of our neighbors running for office and I haven't yet made up my mind whether I should vote for them all or not. None of them has formulated and circulated a program of progress or retrenchment and I don't know whether they are in favor of the things I want or against the things I don't want.

I want all the good things that it is possible to get but I don't want them to tax me for them. The fellow who will come out on a policy of that kind will get my vote early and often. Would it not be a good idea to have a program for a year's work in the municipality prepared by a committee of experts, and if my ears do not deceive me there are a great many of such experts, and then before a candidate could get his name on the ballot make him answer a long list of questions thus compiled. We would then have some reasonable chance of being able to pick on the candidate whose ideas corresponded with our own. But what's the use of spending time—I have nothing else to spend—when the election will be over, to-night and there will be nothing left for us to do but find fault until it's time for another election at the end of the year.

When I started out I had no intention of telling you how to run an election but I have and we'll let it go at that for this week. If some person don't come along with a job for me before next week I'll try to make it plain to you and your readers that it's a big job finding work for the unemployed when there's no work to be done.

Yours truly, C. R. Itic.

Communication

To whom it may concern:— One of the candidates in the recent municipal election is credited with hinting that the Council of 1930 or some previous council had spent money in putting gravel on the lane leading to the chopping mill. If this statement was made there is no truth in it as I have paid for all gravel and all other work done to improve the entrance to the mill. No gravelling has been done on this lane during 1929 or 1930.

Yours truly, W. J. McGuire.

Card of Thanks

Mr. Kennedy Minnis, Mr. Arthur Murray and Miss Olive Murray wish to express their thanks for the many kind acts of helpfulness and sympathy at the time of their recent bereavement. The floral offerings were also much appreciated.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. T. Mills and family wish to thank their friends and neighbors for kindness and sympathy at the time of our sad bereavement.

The arched tie-bar of chrome nickel and the horn mounted beneath the left hand-lamp are characteristic. Wheelbase of the 1931 with radiator grille and cowl lamps and six wire wheels.
