The Gringo Privateer

By PETER B. KYNE

SYNOPSIS

SYNOPSIS

Ken Burney is given the general managership of Brasiley Berdin's ranch, and the understanding that he dids Burdin of two cuttle theres. Martin fernoe and Miguel Gallegos. Bardin's daughter, Murlel, falls in love with Ken. Ken, with thirty picked and arained men meet and defeat Galleros' force of two hundred in El Cajon Bonita. He then makes arrangements to meet Bruce and his men and the remainder of the Gallegos forces, in the same place. Murlel implayes her faither to stop Ken from endangering his life. Brasiley Bardin follows Ken's out; fit and overtakes him; he demands that Yen return to the ranch but Ken holds kim to his bargain, intimating that he owes an obligation to the Mexican government to carry out his contract.

CHAPTER XXXI.

CHAPTER XXX .- (Cont'd.)

troop of rurales—not less than sixty. On the ground beside him iny half a sabres—is going to permit him to dozen rockets and a box of matches, enter unmolested and then drop in behind him.

"What he does know is that there within the pass, there came a ripple of rifle fire; within a minu's some fifty horsemen emerged."

driv it will elect to believe he doesn't of his caddle and the horse stopped instantly, faced around and gazed instantly, faced around and gazed carbon control of the faced around and gazed control of the faced around rested as illegal entrants a charge of breaking the neutrality laws would be ladged cominst us; or it night be asstand frat we were landits or smug on the opposite lite of the valley cam into action also. Then suddenly But Ceferse and off we'd go to a firing Ley heard a solid crash of musketrysound or a filthy Mexican peniten-

"Conversely the same conditions apply to Bruce and his party. He reasons that we are two souls with but a sirgle thought, two hearts trat beat as chapt that we year, to settle our prihameters, that we year, to settle our prihameters and this transfer of the principles and a hundred rifles assailing them from the front and this transfer of this transfer of the principles.

the tactical situation.

"What happens after Ken Burney, Martin Bruce and Captain Eliseo Beliavines with their respective commands find themselves in that pass together is problematical."

"If I were only young stongs in the control of the survivors, endeavoring to identify themselves to face Muriel so I'm going to borrow your blankets Ken, hole up here to-night with the cook and await news to Martin Bruce this morning and that stricken field save the wounded nor in earn win the Huachita Nation-they elected to lie still.

Bruce's watchful outposts gleared the news was apparent to Burney when, the crest of a low ridge to the left of the pass entrance, a horse legos. "If won't be long now," Mr. Burney

told Tom Bledsoe

It lacked half an hour of dawn when the men of El Ranchito rode out into El Cajon Bonita. But they rode at a walk now, their horses' footfalls deac-ened by the long luxuriant grass. In sonformity' with orders previously given him, Tom Bledsce led fifteen men across the valley to the left and men of El Ranchito rode out into men across the valley to the left and some fifty yards into the thick scrubby pinon pines that grew down to the base of the flanking range on that side. Burney, with the other fifteen men, rode to the right and hid himself and party in similar fashion.

def and fixed his binoculars on Gallegos and his followers. "Get on him, men. Ready! Aim! Fire!"

As Gallegos crumpled, Burney touched a match to the fuse of the rocket. Up it soared with a rush, bursting with a prodictions report and Slowly the gray light stole over Et Burney sent up another rocket. This Cajon Ponita. First the hills across the valley appeared indistinctly; gradually little hummocks, small bushes, to its summons the rurales rode out tufts of grass and cattle became of the pass in column of two, sweet into line and charged down the valley.

sharply outlined in the foreground

CHAPTER XXXI.

CHAPTER XXX.—(Cont'd.)

"That is Bruce's plan. At least, I think it is, because it would be my plan if I estimated the situation as I think he has. Until tonight he was I think he has. Until tonight he was I a faint clicking of bolts as the ina neutral as to which route I would select, but he knows now that I plan to enter from the north. He will permit are to make a peaceable entry to the pass, then he will enter behind me.

But what he doesn't know is that a troop of rurales—not less than sixty on the ground beside him iny half a subres—is going to permit him to dozen rockets and a box of matches.

"What he does know is that there is but one troop of rurales within a radius of two hundred miles of El Cajon Bonita and that a commanding officer of that troop isn't quite fool enough to tangle with the Gallegus forces. He just couldn't win, he knows it and so do they. Also Bruce cealizes that the Mexican government has adopted an attitude of patient watchful waiting as far as Gallegus is concerned. Unless he gets unbelievably dirty it will elect to believe he doesn't exist. Also, Bruce knows that my

"Commence firing."

An instant after Burney's men had opened the action, Tom Biedsoe's force on the opposite life of the valley came into action also. Then suddenly Burney action also. into action also. Then suddenly Bura single ragged volley-and machin guns commenced to chatter.

single thought, two hearts trat beat is some constitution of the straight of t to go down spilled those following after them, while a steady stream of bullets spat into the screaming, gruntmands find themselves in together is problematical."

"If I were only young enough to ride in with you!" His Majesty comlained sadly. "You call me king and a king ought to lead his troops. I feel like a bewildered mouse. I can't go back to El Ranchito tonight. I can't hack to El Ranchito tonight. I can't face Muriel so I'm going to borrow face Muriel so I'm going to borrow their appeals went unheeded. Nor was the manufactured to the plan of Miguel Gallegos and Martin Bruce to extend quarter that day, their appeals went unheeded. Nor was the graph of the gallegos and the gallegos and martin Bruce to extend quarter that day, their appeals went unheeded. Nor was the gallegos and the galle The frantic cries of the survivors, endeavoring to identify themselves to the Gallegos men, were unintelligible above the noise of battle; their signals ware intermedal. it any part of Ken Burney's plan. He forthwith. If he qualified, he had to knew he was engaged in a battle of bring his prospective bride an ade night with the cook and await news knew he was engaged in a battle ct of your fate as early as you can send extermination; as the Bruce riders it to me tomorrow. Don't delay—I'll be suffering. Son, have you got your fallen horses Burney's men concentration. be surering. Son, nave you got your latten norses Burney's men concen-house in order against a hasty exit from this vale of tears?"

"Yes, sir; I surrendered my horse had opened on them nothing mored in there's a thousand dollars waiting to there's a thousand dollars waiting to the me in escrow in the Huachita National Bank. That, my outfit and my pay cheque constitute my entire estate. I have made you my executor and my father is my sole heir."

"What? Haven't you left some little remembrance to that girl you're so crazy about?" The king just could not help this little fishing expedition.

"Nothing but a memory, sir. And perhaps I flatter myself in thinking that she will even remember me six months f.om now."

The ling winced. His fish had slipped off the hook.

When Ken Burney and his men rode

When Ken Burney and his men rode

When Ken Burney and his men rode

The ling winced will be that some money would be found; certainly there and fit wood saddles, bridles, spurs, when the little parties to put this on with a knife, as then it is fairly thick. Press some breadcrumbs through a colander and scatter over the bottom of the pic dish. Peel and quarter some good cooking from hiding; their leader was too bandit nature. In the pockets of the fallen it might well be that some money would be found; certainly there was fifty good saddles, bridles, spurs, when he was a soft and the crumbs When Ken Burney and his men rode into the rass at three o'clock next morning they did so at a smart trot.

The state of th morning they did so at a smart trot. Indeed, the drumming of hoofs on hard earth, the jingle of spurs and bits and the creak of leather would have proclaimed to any one half a mile distant the news of his approach. And that at least one of Martin Bruce's watchful outposts gleared the news was apparent to Burney when, torious troops; through his binoculars Burney recognized him as Miguel Gal

> "Got to make certain of Gallegos today," he decided, and indicated the target to his men. "Wait until his mob has reached the Bruce dead, then men across the valley to the left and ed and fixed his binoculars on Gallo party in similar fashion.

"Distribute yourselves along the edge of the bush and preferably behind bowlders, men," Burney ordered. "Select a position where you will have considerable protection but which affords an unobstructed view of the valley, and under no circumstances commence firing until I give the order and the range. The horses are pretty tired bursting with a prodigious report and unlossing a tiny parachute from which floated a small Mexican flag. Instantivy the two machine guns he and Senor De Haro had secreted on their first visit to the valley came into action against the excited and unsuspecting Gallegos force, grouped among the Bruce dead. At the same moment the range. The horses are pretty tired the range. The horses are pretty tired after a twenty-mile ride. I don't think they'll be restless or do any neighing."

Slowly the gray light stole over E!

Burney sent up another rocket. This

(To be continued.)

Universe Moves About Sagittarius

Sun and Earth Are Small Parts of Galaxy Which Fills Virtually Incomprehensible Space

Pasadena, Cal.—The size, shape and ge of the universe was recounted iere in figures intelligible only to hose of mathematical mind.

sharply outlined in the foreground.

Burney bent a pair of hinoculars on the karranca sown the valley and made out a mar's head upthrust above the bank. A sentry, doubtless.

Suddenly two men rode out of the pass into the valley, where they pulled up and gazed about them. Burney decided they constituted Bruse's advance of the statements he made cided they constituted Bruse's advance of the statements he made cided they constituted Bruse's advance of the statements he made cided they constituted Bruse's advance of the statements he made cided they constituted Bruse's advance of the statements were revealed at the seminar of the Monnt Wilson Observed to the statements were revealed at the seminar of the Monnt Wilson Observed to the seminar of the Monnt Wilson Observed to the seminar of the Monnt Wilson Observed to the mer at Mount Wilson, was the speak er. Among the statements he made his listeners were the following:

The galaxy, of which the sun 690,600,660,000,600 grams (10 follower by 42 ciphers).

More than 300,000,000,000 stars, each the size of the sun, comprise this galaxy. Sun Far From Centre

Sagittarius, in the scale back-there, and not the san, seems to be the centre of this huge space. In fact, the sun is some 40,000 light years reloved from the centre.

As to its shape, the galaxy is quite irregular resembling a pancake. Dr. Strender, with the tregular milion is not due to "star streaming," as previously believed, but to lack of symmetry. It takes our own galaxy approxi-nately 250,000 years to rotate about Sagittarius. When Dr. Stromberg went to the blackboard and chalked mathematica equations clear across its expanse, the most delighted person in the room was Dr. Albert Einstein, noted Ger man mathematician, who owed to these astronomers the proof of his theory of relativity.

Having difficulty in explaining point of his own, even in his native German, Einstein strode to the board and wrote what he called a simple formula upon it.

Finds Woman Ruled in Maya Civilization Archaeologist Claims She Did

As She Pleased While

Man Was Slave Modern women, with their ideas o the equality of the sexes, could learn much from a study of the women of the Maya civilization, which flourished in Pucatan in prehistoric times, ac cording to recent reports from Dr. Franz Blom, German archaeologist who is at the head of an expedition excavating the ruins of the ancient

There was no equality of the sexes in the ancient civilization, Dr. Blom has discovered. But it was not man who ruled—it was woman. Woman held complete dominion over man, and did in general as she pleased without hindrance.

Woman at that time was the suitor. She would search until she found a who appeared to be the best mate for her and would then put him through a trial period to see whether he came up to the standards she de-manded. If he failed, he was rejected forthwith. If he qualified, he had to quate dowry.

Women alone had the right of di vorce whenever it pleased them to be free of their mates, according to Dr. Blom. Polygamy was not counten-anced, but women had the right of free love, which was denied to their

the apples are soft and the crumb

Manager: "In act two of the new olay you take ye ancient battle ax and cleave the enemy."

De Hamlet: "Let Richard De Roads take the part; he's had more experience carving boarding house steak."

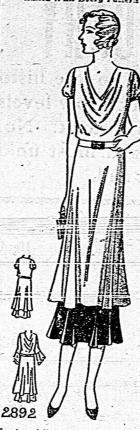

A Good Lawyer Man (just acquitted) to counsel: "Thanks very much! What should ! avo done without you?". Counsel-"Oh, about five years."

London draws its water from several different sources. The Thames above Hampton, the River Lea, and the chalk wells of Kent all contribute to the supply; and the New River my insurance agent." brings water from the Hertfordshire springs to London.

Be charitable before wealth makes thee covetous.-Sel.

What New York Is Wearing

BY ANNABELLE WORTHINGTON Illustrated Dressmaking Lessons Furnished With Every Pattern

Here': a delightful tunic frock-de igned to flatter. The puffed sleeves are very feminine. The cowl neckline is exceedingly becoming. The tunic extends into moderately flared hem from a snugly fitted hipline.

The original used sky blue flat crepe silk. Contrast introduced in the under-skirt of black crepe appeared again n the arm bands. The belt fastened with a black buckle.

Style No. 2892 may be had in sizes

16, 18 years, 36, 33, 4 and 42 inches It is interesting made with long leeves with flared cuffs, seen in minature view.

Crepe marocain, wool crepe, chif-fon and sheer metal lame are equally appropriate for its development. Size 36 requires 25% yards 39-inch, with 1 yard 39-inch contrasting and 2 yards 35-inch for clin yards 35-inch for slip.

HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS. Write your name and address plain-, giving number and size of such afterns as you want. Enclose 20c in stamps or coin (coin preferred; wrap it carefully) for each number, and address your order to Wilson Pattern Service, 73 West Adelaide St., Toronto.

Comparisons Many persons laud the East, Others proudly praise the West, Arguments are freely used Just to prove one place is best.

List Toronto first of all, Say some judges of repute, But citizens of Hamilton Keep the question in dispute. Montreal and Winnipeg

Have opinions wide apart, While London, Halifax and Guelph Claim to nave a goodly start. So the wordy warfare goes, Unconvinced is either side;

Designating home with pride. Gananoque, Neepawa, Ogahalla, Oshawa, Hamilton, Orangeville, Terra Cotta, Gypsumville.

They continue harmless for

Revelstoke, Wetaskiwin. Chicoutimi, Walkerton

ledicine Hat, Morrisburg, Wawanesa, Tilsonburg, asabowie, Estevan, Minnipuka, Bolssevain.

inistino, Ottawa, Ombabika, Kelowna Madawaska, Edmonton, Kapuskasing, Penticon.

Moose Jaw, Wampum, Wassewa, Flin Flon, Xena, Wakopu, Dipples, Snowshoe, Innisfree Birdstail, Dropmore, Calgary.

Red Deer, Blackfoot, Hespeler, Lobstick, Tignish, Hanover, Turtle, Juaco, Openogo, Arthabaska, Overflow.

Dishnish, Yellek, Vegreville, Wild Goose, Windsor, Hagersville, Brandon, Kowkash, Eganville Saskatoon and Richmond Hill.

t's a list of varied names. But the curious thing of all. Each man thinks his shome town

Grenville Kleiser in "The Montrea

Naturally

The dramatic actor was recounting ome of his experiences to a friend.
"Yes," he said, "when I played Romeo, I died so naturally that a man in the audience fainted." Wonderful!" exclaimed his friend.

"But why?" "Well,' 'explained the actor, "he was Jockeys who ride in flat races only have a hard time keeping fit in the May stay with her, winter, Turkish baths, tennis, walk. When childhood's wondering hours ing, dieting, and hunting being em. Have passed away ployed in the fight with weight.

Economy Corner

Caramel Frosting

Three-fourth cap brown sugar, 2/2 cup white sugar, 2/2 cup water. Boil together until it spins a thread. Add slowly to the stiffly beaten white of one egg. Beat with eggbenter until all is mixed, then with fork until constituent to suread. sistency to spread.

Chicken Croquettes

One cup corn meal mush, 1 cup chopped chicken, few drops onion juice, 1 egg and sait and pepper. Mix lagredients together, make into cakes, mill in few and only the cakes, make into cakes, mill in few and only the cakes and the cakes are caked to the cake and the caked to the caked coll in flour and saute in a frying pan or shape in balls, roll in erumbs, egg and crumbs again, and fry in deep fat. Time 2 minutes each; serving S.

Boiled Dressing

Three ess yolks, % cup sugar, % teaspoon sait, 1 tablespoon mustard, 1 cup thick sour cream. Cook until thick in a double boller. One may substitute sweet milk or sour as you may have on hand, but when boiling milk add 1 tablespoon butter. Keeps indefinitely if kept cool.

Gletime Cape Cod Dinner

Two large onlons, peeled, slice into pottom of kettle; 2 pounds of fresh spare ribs. Lay the spare ribs (or pork enops) over the onions; add salt potatoes, naived, it large.

When the potatoes are nearly done, cover with dumplings, and cook 15 minutes. Serve on largo platter, reserving some gravy to be used with dumplings.

Have hot corn bread, boiled beets in vinegar and a dessert of baked apples with cream and the dinner will be Corn Bread-One cup of corn meal

1 cup flour, 14 cup sugar, 2 teaspoons baking powder. 12 teaspoon salt. Sift all together and add 1 cup milk, 1 egg and butter the size of a walnut.

Real Scotch Broth

Soak 2 tablespoons of barley over night. Put barley, 2 onions cut fine 2 pounds of beef, in chunks, and enough cold water to cover, in a large kettle. Simmer until meat is nearly done, skimming from time to time. Add 1 cup diced carrots and ½ cup diced turnips. In 10 minutes, salt and pepper to taste and finish cooking. The neat is kept for another meal, but we cometimes leave it in the broth for a change, then it becomes a stew in-stead. A little chopped parsley or celery leaves add a lot to the flavor of any soup or stew.

Baked Finnan Haddie Soak fish in cold water 40 minutes. Drain. Put into boiling water and let stand 10 minutes. Put into greased shallow pan and almost cover with top milk. Sprinkle with ½ cup dried bread crumbs and dot with butter. Bake in a hot oven (40 degrees Fahr.) until a delicate brown—20 to 30 minutes. Serve with the sauce left in the ice Box Cookies One-half cup butter, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 egg, 2 cups flour, ½ teaspoon oda, 14 teaspoon salt and 1/2 cup

Cream butter and sugar thoroughly: add egg and continue to beat. Sift. add with nuts to the first mixture. Pack in a mold and leave on a board and slice as thin 2s possible and bake in hot oven. Time in oven 10 min-utes; servings 30.

Honey Recipes

One-third cup honey, 1 egg, 1 cup milk, 2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, 2 cups corn-flakes, ¼ cup butter. Cream butter and honey and add well-beaten egg then milk and flour sifted with baking powder, and salt and lastly cornflakes Bake in small sized greased muffir tins twenty minutes (400 degs. F.) Yield, 12 muffins.

Honey-Date Pudding

Two cups dates seeded and chopped fine; ½ cup nut meats, cut fine; 2 eggs, beaten light; ½ cup honey; ½ cup flour; 1 teaspoon baking powder; ntes in moderate oven (375 degs. F.). Serve with cream, whipped or plain May be rolled in powdered sugar and Salad Combinations Asparagus tips in tomato cups with nayonnaise.

Cabbage, celery, oranges, with onion lavored mayonnaise. Orange, candied ginger, white rapes, with cream dressing. Grapefruit and romaine with Roque ort cheese, cream dressing.

Grapes and pears with cream cheese nd mayonnaise.

Endive, grapefruit and melon, with coquefort cheese dressing. Celery and cabbage with Rusia Cranberry filold Use 4 cups cranberries, 2 cups wate and 2 cups granulated sugar.

Boll cranberries with water until berries stop popping. Strain through a fine sieve. Add sugar and stir; then boll rapidly for 8 to 10 minutes or until a drop jells on a cold plate. Turn at once into a wet mold and cool.

The Robin's Song

Upon a little knoll of grass I saw her stand, She clasped an apple In her baby han Her playthings all unheeded: For just then Upon a thorn tree's bough A robin sang! And she ecstatic, listened, Tense with delight And lost to all around, But just the glory Of liquescent The robin's radiant hymn

Such delicacy of flavour is not found in other teas

Fresh from the gardens'

est queen. "An able, brave and noble woman."

2. Margaret of Navarre. "Clifted grandmother of Henry IV., most be-oved of all French kings."

3. Catharine II. of Russia. "A remarkable personality, a natural born leader." One of the few dissolute wo-

4. Anne, Duchess of Longueville.

Dumas' famous heroine. Intriguing nature, immense political genius. Sis-

5. Sophia, Duchess of Brunswick,

Ambilious, proud and virtuous?
Ranks in highest grade or intellect.
6. Isabella of Castile. One of the

10. Jeanne D'Albret. Highly intelectual mother of Henry V. of France.
11. Amelia, sister of Frederick the Great. Almost the equal of her brothers Frederick and Henry. Remark-abie talent for music.

12. Sophia, half sister of Peter the 13. Blanche of Castile. One of the heroines of Spanish history.

14. Medina-Sidonia Louisa. "Exer-

eised paramount influence on Portu-

15. Christina, daughter of Gustavus

ary woman."

19. Elizabeth, daughter of Frederick V. of Palatine. "Remarkably intellectual; a woman of great powers."—
"Tae N.Y. Herald-Tribune."

men in all royalty.

ter of "The Great Conde

Royal Genuises Number Forty-Four

Both Men and Women Geniuses of Royal Birth Figure in Long List of Distinguished Names

One out of every twenty members of royalty over the last 1,000 years has been a man or woman of genuine genius who would rank with the most distinguished men and women. Fol-lowing is the list of these forty-four. At least forty others have been of cook two hours, adding water if necessary. When the meet falls from bond lofty character and completions deeds of columbus.

The cook two hours, adding water if necessary. When the meet falls from bond lofty character and completions deeds of columbus.

The columbus of columbus of columbus.

The columbus of columbus of columbus.

The columbus of columbus.

The columbus of columbus of columbus.

The columbus of columbus.

Steer of Frederick the Great. Known as "The Minerva of the North." Dominated her country.

The columbus of columbus of columbus.

Steer of Frederick the Great. Known as "The Minerva of the North." Dominated her country.

The columbus of columbus of columbus of columbus of columbus of columbus.

Steer of Frederick the Great. Known as "The Minerva of the North." Dominated her country.

Steer of Frederick of Fre are attached.

1. Frederick the Great. "One of the greatest generals that ever lived."

2. William the Silent. "One of the greatest men of all time."

3. Gustavus Adolphus. Sweden's greatest hero king. "Aa original genius in the art of war."

4. Gustavus Vasa. "Next to Gustavus Adolphus Sweden's vicetiest hero king. "Next to Gustavus Adolphus Sweden's vicetiest hero king." The four famous grandchildren of William the Silent.

10. Jeanne D'Albret. Highly intelested.

tavus Adolphus Sweden's greatest king." "An illustrous statesman and soldier" 5. Louis II. of France. "The Great "Celebrated general."

6. The Great Turenne. Said by Napoleon to have been "the greatest mas-ter of military science in all history."

7. Frederick William. "The Great Elector." "Founder of modern Prus-ia. "A great general." sia. "A great general."

8. Archduke Charles.

Austria's greatest warrior. Led southern Europe against Napoleon. 9. Maximilian I. Emperor of Holy gal; elevated the fortunes of her coun-Roman Empire. "A great diplomat try and king."

10. Henry IV. of France. Creat general. Idol of French chivalry."

11. Gaspard Colignity. One of the greatest naval commanders of all history. Turned back the Turks from Europe.

12. Mayanda, Parmase, Colebrated.

ope.

12. Alexander Farnese. Celebrated general, diplomat and statesman.

13. Maurice of Orange. Son of William the Silent. Esteemed by historians to have been superior as a general even to his father. Called "the greatest captain of his age."

14. William III. of England. One of England's greatest kings.

England's greatest kings.

15. Alfonzo. Founder of Portugal.
Celebrated warrior. 16. Dennis of Portugal. Called "the

16. Dennis of Portugal. Called "the father of his country." Beloved in Portuguese history and considered the founder of Portuguese literature.

17. Henry the Navigator, of Portuguese in Portuguese i gal. First great picneer in promot ing maritime discovery.

18. Henry of Cassel. Brother of Frederick the Great. Great military strategist, the equal of Frederick on he battlefield. 19. Peter the Great. Dissolute, but in undoubted genius. Founder of nodern Russia.

20. Eugeno of Savoy. Celebrated commander, Saved Italy from destruc-21. Maurice, Elecor of Saxony.

great hero of the wars of the Refor-mation. Called "the savior of German Protestantism." 22. Don John of Austria. A child prodigy, precocious soldier in boyhood. Defeated the Turks and even William the Silent in great battles. 23. Gustavus III. Another of Sweden's long line of hero kings.

John "The Great" of Portugal Celebrated king and diplomat.

Women Geniuses of Royalty 1. Maria Theresa. Austria's great-

ary woman."

Silence is the victory of mind over

Don't be helpless when you suddenly get a headache. Reach in your pocket for immediate relief. If you haven't any Aspirin with you, get some at Aspirin with you, get some at the first drugstore you come to. Take a tablet or two and be rid of the pain. Take promptly. Nothing is gained by waiting to see if the pain will leave of the pain will be a pain w its own accord. It may grow worse! Why postpone relief? There are many times when

Aspirin tablets will "save the day." They will always ease a throbbing head. Quiet a grumbling tooth. Relieve nagging pains of neuralgia or neuritis. Or check a sudden cold. Even rheumatism has lost its terrors for those who have learned to depend on these tablets.

Gargle with Aspirin tablets at the first suspicion of sore throat, and reduce the infection.

Look for Aspirin on the box and the word Genuine in red. Genuine Aspirin tablets do not depress the heart.

Made in Canada