Flesherton

Glad to report that Genevieve, little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Milne, who has been ill, is able to be up again and Miss Milne has returned to Durham hospital.

Mrs. Morrison of Meaford is visiting her nephew, Dr. Milne and family.

Mrs. E. Morgan and son Douglas spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith of Eugenia.

Mr. George Armstrong entertained his Sunday School class of boys to a tobogganing party last Thursday night after which the boys were royally entertained at the home of the teacher's aunt, Mrs. F. W. Hickling. Lunch was served and a jolly time was spent. Before leaving the boys showed their appreciation by giving three cheers for their leader.

Spring Hill Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Haddon Hutchinson last Friday when a most enjoyable time was spent.

Nurse Burritt is still in attendance on Billie Cairns, who is gaining slowly.

The debate, held last Tuesday night in the United Church, between Kimberley and Dundalk Young People. The affirmative side was taken by Miss Jean Smith and Miss Opal Weber of Kimberley. The negative was upheld by Miss Brown and Mr. Schell of Dundalk, both teachers.

We think it would have been better for both sides to have been in the same class, as of course, we expect more of teachers than two young girls, who are new on the job. It was a real good debate and was listened to by a large audience. The judges were Rev. Mr. Wolsteincroft, Mrs. Murray and Dr. Bryce. The president, Mr. Howard Graham, presided and we think that with Mr. Wolsteincroft, that it would be much better for the young people to be under the supervision of the church.

Mr. T. Clayton, who has been ill, is improving, we are glad to know.

Mr. R. Arnott and daughter of Hatherthorn called on friends in town. Cora remained for a few days visit with Mrs. Inkster.

Down's unloaded a shipment of cars last Monday.

Mrs. Hickling spent a week with her sisters in Toronto recently.

Mr. Pete Dow spent the week-end in Toronto.

Mrs. John Heard was taken ill on Saturday with an attack of appendicitis and was removed to Durham hospital by Dr. Milne on Sunday, where an operation was performed by Dr. Brad Jamieson. Her many friends will be glad to know that she is doing as well as can be expected and hope that she may make a good recovery.

Rev. Mr. Scott, who has been ill, is feeling much better, but was unable to take his work last Sunday.

Mr. R. K. Love, a student of Emmanuel College, Toronto, took charge in a very acceptable manner. Despite the inclemency of the weather good congregations attended both services. Mr. Love also preached at Ceylon. He was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hickling. During the evening services, Mr. Roydon McDonald added much to the music with his saxophone. Mr. Bert Morton was unable to be present to assist with his violin.

Dornoch

A large crowd from around here attended the shower given in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Bert MacIntosh. We wish Bert and his bride many years of happy wedded life.

Our local hockey fans are disappointed to hear that the Greys were defeated in Toronto last week.

Mr. R. J. Corbett had a very successful wood-bee last week.

Miss Philomina Walsh of Detroit is visiting her cousin Miss Marie Walsh. We notice some of the boys smiling very pleasantly those days.

Mrs. Ed. Leifso and Mrs. Jos. Totten have returned to their homes in Saskatchewan, after spending some time with their mother, Mrs. J. Sweeney.

Mrs. Mike Casey spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Nicholas Meloche.

The funeral of the late Mr. Duncan McGillivray was held from the manse last Monday to Rocky Saugeen Cemetery.

Sorry to report that little Delphine Hamilton is quite ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Nicholas Meloche has been on the sick-bed for the last two weeks but we are glad to report she is improving.

Miss Catherine Lister is spending a few days with the Sullivan family at Irish Lake.

Mrs. Eldred of Owen Sound has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson.

Traverston

March has always quite a kick in it. Sunday's "cutten up" filled all north and south roads to the fence tops. Land navigation was closed to all save a few ardent lovers.

Miss Molly Kyle of Townsend Lake school was a week-end visitor with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McCrae and Master Stanley and Mrs. Joseph Atkinson of Palmerston are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards at present.

After spending the greater part of a week in Toronto Mrs. John O. Greenwood returned home on Thursday.

Mrs. W. J. Greenwood returned home on Saturday after a week's pleasant visit with kindred at Moleworth.

Miss Gertrude Holmes of Durham was a week-end visitor at grandma Firth's.

Rev. Mr. Almaack of Fenwick, who was exchanging pulpits with Rev. H. S. Fiddes, failed to get out to Zion on Sunday owing to the deep snowdrifts.

Ray McClocklin doesn't believe in curtailing production. He hauled home four tons of high grade fertilizer on Saturday. Mr. Herb Allen brought home two tons.

The members of the Davis family spent Thursday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. MacFarlane near Durham.

Mrs. Wm. Baker has been quite ill of late, suffering from pneumonia and congestion; but is on the way to recovery.

Coming along the 4th con. on Friday last we were surprised to see the big change Mr. John O'Neill made in his home late last fall. He had it all covered with vernal brick shingles making it very neat and attractive.

The Ladies Aid of the North Glenelg Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Baker one day last week. There were 11 members and 4 visitors present. Miss Gladys served a dainty lunch at the close of a busy session.

Mrs. John A. Beaton is spending a few days with her daughter at Nobleton.

The funeral of the late John S. Black took place on Friday morning and was an exceptionally large one. Rev. Father F. J. McHugh conducting a most impressive requiem mass and paying a high tribute to the life and noble character of the deceased at the close of the service.

The six sons were pallbearers, Angus, John, George, Frank, Alex, and Joseph and the massive oak casket, with its sacred remains tested the powers of these robust sons.

The respect and esteem of the community was attested by 114 mass cards, by three floral wreaths from Mr. and Mrs. W. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. J. Graham and the T. Eaton Co., of Toronto, by the presence of the monster throng among whom were many former municipal office-holders. We noticed Mr. Geo. E. Arrowsmith of Ceylon, former reeve Thos. Nichol of Priceville, Councilor S. H. Wright of Markdale, treasurer W. J. Ritchie and clerk H. H. McDonald of Edge Hill.

Many, many were the words of appreciation expressed of the honour, uprightness and acts of kindness of the deceased in his long life and in his fifty-two years of service in the township.

The day prior to the funeral, the six sons and the five daughters surviving all dined together for the first time in 38 years. Some of them had travelled long distances to show their love for an esteemed parent.

The daughters are, Mrs. Dougal McCormick of the 10th con., Mrs. Alex McDonald on the farm adjoining the old home, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Bowie and Mrs. F. Graham of Toronto. Other kindred present from a distance were, Mr. Bowie and son Roderick, Mr. Graham, son and daughter and Mrs. Hendrick of Toronto, Miss Catherine Black and Mrs. Everett of Jackson, Mich., Mr. Windall Black of Saginaw, Mich. Thirty-nine grand children will deeply mourn a beloved grandfather. The history of Glenelg is largely intertwined with the life, words and deeds of John S. Black and his memory will pass down through the years as an incentive to others to live and give of their best gifts and talents. May he rest in peace.

Irish Lake

It looks as if March is going to spoil its good record of the first week as the last few days have been quite stormy. However, so far our obliging mail-carrier, Mr. Kleist, has never missed a trip this winter.

Miss Margaret Black has returned to her home after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Patrick Sweeney.

A number from around here attended the funeral of the late John S. Black, an old resident of Glenelg. Mrs. Dan McCormick of Glenelg Centre, has been spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. T. L. Hughes. Miss Katherine Lister of Dornoch is spending a few days with the Sullivan family.

lended the funeral of the late John S. Black, an old resident of Glenelg. Mrs. Dan McCormick of Glenelg Centre, has been spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. T. L. Hughes. Miss Katherine Lister of Dornoch is spending a few days with the Sullivan family.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hughes on the arrival of a daughter, Feb. 27th, 1931.
