The Ultimate Goal

It requires a great deal more will power to maintain an ordinary thrift program than it does to inaugurate it. There is the very human temptation to spend, coupled with the well known fallibility of the average man to invest with safety. Spasmodic saving and impulsive spending are a combination which is fatal to the success of any investment program. The hazards are largely eliminated if the Life Insurance plan of accumulation is adopted. The consistent saving of a definite portion of one's income in Life Insurance will effect steady progress towards the ultimate goal—INDEPENDENCE.

Rev. Charles Donald, Missionary of India, who, with his wife and family are on furlough with friends in Toronto, took charge of the services, morning and evening, in the United Church. Large congregations attended both services and listened with great interest to two splendid sermons on his work in India and what it meant for the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be preached to the different castes of that country. He also spoke of the great need of medical missionaries and teachers and trained nurses. As you know in India the women are not supposed to have as great brain power as men so the missionaries have schools where both boys and girls attend so as to show that girls are as clever as boys and by this means to have the future generation with a greater respect for women. At the morning service Mr. Holland and Dr. Murray sang a duet which was greatly appreciated. In the evening the address was illustrated by lantern slides which were good. On Monday about fifty ladies were present at the Easter Thank-Offering meeting when Mr. Donald gave a very interesting talk on the work of our W.M.S. in that place. It was an inspiration to the members and visitors and gave us each more zeal and encouragement to work and give as never before. A good thank offering was received. Mrs. Scott, president, presided. At the close of the meeting a dainty lunch was served and a pleasant half-hour was spent together. Rev. Mr. Scott sang "There were Ninety and Nine", which we all appreciated.

Walters Falls

A most interesting meeting was held last Wednesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. R. H. Olmstead. About forty ladies were present including four visitors, namely, Mesdames Juniper of Meaford; Parsons Treffry of Otterville and Mrs. W. Lemon. The meeting was opened in the regular manner after which the secretary read the minutes of previous meeting, which were adopted with a slight correction. Several letters were read, one regarding judging a coaching class for the near future and one in reference to the Girls Conference to be held in Guelph in May. After some discussion it was decided to make an endeavour to have the class and Miss Hilda Hanna was appointed to attend the conference. Other business was the settling of the library for another year and some suggestions for the park.

The program was then taken up and being Grandmother's meeting was well taken. A cookie contest, with about ten varieties of cookies, was given. The visitors were invited to judge the cookies and Mrs. T. Dixon's were awarded the prize. Fancy containers of powder were tendered the two great grandmothers, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Shepherdson, while one was also given the newest grandmother, Mrs. T. Dixon.

The Little Brown Church in the Vale" was sung as a chorus. Fourteen grandmothers sang "Silver Threads among the Gold". The birthday cake was then brought in by the donors, Mrs. Menary and Mrs. Patterson. It was decorated with seventeen pink candles which were lighted and as each grandmother's name was called by the secretary she came forward and expressed a wish or toast and extinguished a candle. A contest of things that grandmother didn't have was the next feature, four ladies tying for prize which was rather unusual. A duet in costume by Misses H. Long, as little boy and G. Dixon as grandmother was very well done. "I'll take care of you grandma". After singing God Save the King, lunch was served. The May meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Jno. Laycock.

A farewell party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Dell Walter and family last Friday evening. Quite a number of old friends were present. During the evening Mr. V. Wales read an address and Mr. R. Hanna presented Mr. Walter with a purse of money, who thanked the donors in a few well chosen words. The evening was spent in dancing and cards.
