Recipe for Making Men

Ingredients

One Red Blooded Boy Some Study (not too much)
Parents' loving care Reasonable amount of work
Outdoor exercise Nourishing food (plenty of good bread)

Method

Mix work and play with study. Combine wisely under direction of loving parents. Add muscle building foods—plenty of nourishing bread. Rear with patience and understanding. Turn out at 21, a credit to parents. This recipe makes one man.

Only a mother knows the painstaking care required to raise a boy right. Good bread and plenty of it is a great help. Is it any wonder that smart mothers patronize bakers who make good bread?

On Friday evening, May 8th, in the Harkaway United Church a large number of the congregation and community gathered to bid farewell to Rev. and Mrs. Wakefield who are going to reside in Holland Centre. Mrs. Barry read the address and Messrs. William Middleton and Russell Lawson making the presentation.

To Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield:
Dear Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield,—
It is with mingled feelings of joy and sorrow that we have assembled here to-night. Joy because of the many pleasant associations we have enjoyed together. Sorrow because those associations must now (partly at least) be severed. During your stay in our midst you have always manifested that beautiful Christian spirit which has endeared you to both old and young alike. And which cannot fail to leave its impress for good on the lives of all with whom you have come in contact. In the community you have always stood steadfastly for the best things. The cause of temperance missions and worthy local interests have always had your unflinching support. You have stood by the various pastors who have served the church with steadfast support and help and council. In disposition we have always found you unassuming, earnest and thoughtful, kind and considerate, manifesting that choice Christian spirit indeed.

You will be sadly missed from the community, church and Sunday School. We cannot allow you to leave without in some small way showing that we have appreciated your many helpful acts of kindness. We ask you to accept this Electric floor lamp, toaster, iron and sum of money, not for its intensive value, but for the spirit that prompted the gift. Hoping you may both be long spared to enjoy the comforts they may bring. Signed on behalf of the Harkaway United Church and community.

Mr. Wakefield replied for he and Mrs. Wakefield in a few well chosen words and many, many thanks for the gifts received.

We will miss Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield but what is our loss is others gain.
