Harkaway

The W.M.S. met on Wednesday afternoon, June 16th, at the home of Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin the president in charge. The meeting opened with hymn 157, "Who is on the Lord's Side", followed by the Lord's Prayer. Psalm 24 was read alternately. Minutes of last meeting read and adopted. Roll call was answered by thirteen members, followed by prayer by the president. Hymn 279 "Just As I Am" was sung. A letter was read by Mrs. Barry from the Fred Victor Home, Toronto. It was decided that we donate 2 dozen jars of fruit and a crate of eggs to this home. A discussion on the budget took place and it was moved and seconded that we drop the budget but each member pay $2.00, this money to be in by the August meeting and also have a bazaar in the fall. Miss Hawken then gave a splendid talk, taking the 13 chapters of Numbers as her text. This was very much enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Barry then read an address to Mrs. Wakefield and Mrs. Will Hawken. The latter, who was unable to be present owing to illness and Mrs. Lawson made the presentation of Life Membership pins. Mrs. Wakefield replied in a few well chosen words thanking the ladies for her gifts and Miss Hawken replied for Mrs. Will Hawken. "Blest be the tie that binds" was then sung. Word "Give." July meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Richard Johnston. The meeting closed with prayer. Luncheon was served by Mrs. McLaughlin and daughter, Shirley and Miss Maggie Johnston. There were eleven members, nine ladies and five gentlemen visitors present for lunch. Tea money $3.02.

The Harkaway garden party Friday evening was a success in every way, the weather being ideal. The ball game between Rosedale and Cherry Grove was won by the latter. Proceeds of the evening amounted to $72.30. Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Barry were Mr. and Mrs. Will Wiley and daughter of Markdale, Mr. and Mrs. Will Halbert and children, Miss Ina Thompson and Miss Morrison. Mrs. Wradrope of Chatsworth was a visitor with her sister, Mrs. D. L. Binns last week. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dennison and friends of Hanover were last Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rae. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rodman and boys spent last Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thompson and family. Mr. Jack Crompton of Owen Sound spent several days last week with his sister, Mrs. A. A. Lyons. Mrs. John Moore is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Smart at Cherry Grove. We hope Mrs. Moore's eyes will soon be well again. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rae and family spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dennison in Markdale. Born—On Monday, June 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lyons, a daughter in the Markdale hospital. Mr. Will Hannah and Miss Nettie Johnston of Temple Hill were Sunday visitors with Mrs. L. Johnston. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lyons and daughter Lulu spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Rodman.

Wodehouse

James Kirkpatrick
The late James Kirkpatrick was born on the 11th line of Euphrasia 67 years ago. A son of the late John Kirkpatrick, who emigrated from the County of Antrim, Ireland and settled on the farm now occupied by Mr. Archie Kirkpatrick. In the year 1891 he and Miss Jessie Burns were married and resided in the Goring district until 1905 when he purchased the Geo. Morwood farm at New England. His wife predeceased him a few years ago. He was a member of New England Church. The funeral was one of the largest seen here for some time. After interment in the cemetery here a service was conducted in the church by Rev. McCausland, assisted by Rev. Wilkinson of Temple Hill, which was listened to by a large number of relatives, friends and neighbors which filled the church. The floral tributes bore silent testimony to the esteem in which he was held and consisted of sprays from the church, the Woods family and H. Sewell family, J. Burns and family and wealth from his family. Two sons and one daughter are left to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate father. The names of the pallbearers appeared in a former issue of The Standard. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cherry moved to Thornbury on Wednesday of last week where Harry secured work on the new fruit packing establishment which is being erected there to replace the one burned a few months ago. We are pleased to report Mrs. Clifford Risk on the mend but still quite sore. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fawcett accompanied by the former's parents here were visitors on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Fawcett of Cherry Grove. Mrs. Alex. Cherry of Epping is engaged taking care of Mrs. Risk.

Harvey visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bowler at Walters Falls. Mr. Charlie Bennett of Dundalk spent a couple of days recently with Mr. Dan McLay.

Eugenia

Fire! Fire! Fire! Mr. Thos. Fenwick has burned another kiln of lime. Come to the play "The Secret Society of Cabbagville" by Eugenia taken under the directorship of Mrs. Chas. Martin in Providence Church, 12th line, Ardena, on Monday evening, June 22nd, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid. There will be a booth. Refreshments served before and after the play. The ladies will also offer their autograph quilt for sale. Come and have a real good time. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page and son Carson and Mr. Thos. Elliott of Markdale, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Stewart of Ceylon, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Akitt, George and Ruby of Flesher-ton were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hanley. We express our sympathy to the sorrowing relatives of the late Mr. Robt. Cook of Ceylon who passed away on Sunday and also to the friends of the late Mr. Abe McMaster whose death occurred on Friday last in Toronto. Mr. John Stoddart and Viola and Ernest of Paisley, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Simmons and Betty of Drayton; Mr. Jas. Blakey and Roy and Mrs. T. Blakey of St. Catharines, also Mrs. Ellen Hollingshead of Buffalo were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Magee and family. Mr. Harry Burke and friend, Miss Queenie Kaitting of Feversham, called on Mr. and Mrs. Will Kaitting on Sunday. Mrs. Garnet Magee received the sad news of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Jas. Blakey of St. Catharines on Sunday. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones. Miss Bernice McKeeown of Duncan spent the week-end with her uncle, Mr. Will Kaitting and family. Members of the Fisherman's Club at their club house over the week-end were, Major A. C. Snively and wife and family, Mrs. Griffith and daughter, Dr. Wright, Mr. Cliff and Mr. Hall. Mr. Roddy Gordon of Toronto is spending a few days with his wife and family in the village. Miss Acheson is busy these times preparing her classes for their final examination. She is putting in extra hours with the entrance class. There will be four entrance candidates, Verlie Fawcett, Bernice Campbell, Argyle Martin, and Teddy Campbell, all four have spent a year in the Junior fourth and a year in the senior. We hope they will all be successful. Mrs. Badgero and son John and Mrs. Laurie Betts of the 4th line visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Campbell and family. Sorry to report Mrs. Fred Duckett still on the sick list, Miss Betsy Turner is assisting her. Mrs. E. Parker and children from near Feversham visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Short recently. Mrs. Ben Short and son Lyell visited with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Esland of Feversham. Miss Loreen Graham of Walkerton visited her cousin, Miss Phyllis Graham for a week. Mr. F. Weatherall of Kingston visited his wife and family at the Eugenia House for a few days recently.

Dornoch

The sympathy of the community is extended to the relatives of Mr. James McCarty who died recently. The funeral was held at St. Paul's Church, on Monday, June 15th. Mrs. J. H. Picard of Toronto spent a few days with friends here this week. Miss Vernie Sherwell came home from Owen Sound on Monday to visit her mother, who is quite ill and returned to her position on Tuesday. We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Will Smith and hope she will soon improve. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Picard were in Toronto for a few days this week. A number from the burg attended the dance in Mr. Lunn's new garage on Tuesday night. Evermore reports an enjoyable evening. We wish Mr. Lunn success in his new garage.
