Mrs. Annie J. Hill

The Gore Bay Recorder of May 28th, reports the death of Mrs. Rowland Hill, widow of the late Rev. Rowland Hill, who was the second rector of Christ Church, Markdale. He was here from 1865 to 1871. The Recorder's report is as follows:

One of the early pioneers of Manitoulin Island in the person of Mrs. Annie J. Hill, passed away Wednesday May 20th, at the home of her daughter in Sandown, N. H., U.S.A.

The late Mrs. Hill was born near Port Hope in 1850, where she spent the first ten years of her life. Her parents then moved to Eugenia in the County of Grey where her father conducted a general store for many years.

In 1870 she married Rev. Rowland Hill, B.A. and came to Little Current where her husband was a missionary to the Indians. Mrs. Hill told that at that time there were only seven white families in Little Current, the only connection with civilization being by steamboat in the summer and dog team in winter.

As a bride she spent many lonely hours, her husband's duties taking him away long distances from home.

Of a brave cheerful nature she endured loneliness and hardship uncomplaining.

Some years were spent in the parsonage at Sheguiandah and in 1887 Mr. Hill moved his family to the farm at Monument Corner in Carnarvon township where Mr. Hill died in 1917.

Since that time Mrs. Hill has lived mostly in Sudbury and Little Current.

Last July she went with her daughter to Sandown, N.H., hoping to spend her last days in a milder climate, but her health failed rapidly during the winter and for the last two months she has been almost completely helpless.

Her remains were brought to the old home where her son Arthur now lives.

Funeral service at Monument Church on Sunday, was conducted by Rev. L. E. Atkinson, assisted by Rev. H. Bamford. Rev. P. G. Lehman and Rev. Wm. Vincer; preceded by a short service at the house. Rev. H. Bamford read the twenty-third psalm and the 14th chapter of the gospel of St. John.

Rev. W. Vincer paid tribute to the sterling christian character of the deceased.

Rev. P. G. Lehman gave an address on preparedness taking as his text, "What is your life". Rev. L. E. Atkinson also gave an address.

Interment took place in Mindemoya cemetery, the pallbearers being Herbert Caddel, John Caddel, Wm. McDonald, Melvin Bock, Findlay McDermid and James Wilson; the service was conducted by Rev. L. E. Atkinson and Rev. P. G. Lehman.

Mrs. Hill is survived by two sons, James of Forest, Alta., and Arthur of Spring Bay and three daughters, Mrs. Harry Braniff of Lochvale, Alta., Mrs. H. J. Pineard of Claremont, N. H. and Mrs. P. W. Pineard of Sandown, N. H. Her son R. R. Hill was killed in France, in 1918.

Many beautiful floral tributes testified to the love of friends and relatives

Abraham McMaster

Gloom was cast over the community when it was learned that Abraham McMaster had passed away in Toronto after a lingering illness of over two years.

The late Mr. McMaster was 55 years of age, unmarried, and born on the 3rd line of Osprey, the youngest son of the late Abraham McMaster and Mrs. George Hillock. Although he spent the latter years prospecting in the north he was well known in this district and was a highly and respected citizen.

The deceased is survived by four brothers and one sister. Robert of Flesherton, Will of Desbarats, Ont., George of Maxwell, Edward Hillock and Mrs. D. Gordon all of Maxwell, Ont.

The remains were brought by motor to the home of his brother Geo. at Maxwell. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon and after Rev. Oldham delivered the funeral service the remains were laid to rest in St. Mary's Anglican Cemetery.

Those from a distance attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McMaster of Desbarats, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McMaster and family of St. Joseph's Island and Mr. Wilfred McMaster of Guelph.

In Memoriam

McFADDEN—In loving memory of my dear husband, James McFadden, who passed away, June 18th, 1924.

He went on his long last journey.
On that beautiful ship called rest;
Leaving our home and all so lonely,
But God in his wisdom knows best.
We mourn for you in silence,
Your name we oft recall.
There is nothing left to answer
Just your picture on the wall.
Sweet memory will linger forever.
The years seem long it's true
Years to come cannot sever
Loving thoughts dear Jim of you.
His home in the Beautiful City with God
By the valley of rest so fair.
Some day when our task is finished
With joy we shall meet up there.

Sadly missed by his widow.
