Decoration Service

The annual Decoration Service under the auspices of Saugeen Lodge #327, I.O.O.F., took place at Markdale Cemetery on Sunday afternoon last. The members of the Orange Order joined the Odd Fellows and there was a good representation of both orders. The procession was formed at the lodge rooms and to the music supplied by the Owen Sound City Band they paraded to the Cemetery. Mr. Harry Shaw, a Past Grand of the Odd Fellows' Lodge, opened the proceedings in a short address. Mr. A. E. Hunt, the Noble Grand, acted as chairman and Rev. H. S. Warren as chaplain. The latter also gave a splendid address. Mr. W. J. Howard, Past District-Deputy Grand Master, gave the Noble Grand's charge. Several selections were contributed by the band. A. E. Colgan spoke briefly on behalf of the Orange Order. Thirteen graves of departed Odd Fellows were decorated with flowers and seventy graves of deceased Orangemen were visited and flowers placed thereon. This service has grown to be a big community affair and on many graves flowers were placed by friends. The day was ideal for the event and a large crowd was in attendance.

In the evening the Owen Sound band gave a splendid program in the Armouries which was much enjoyed by the large audience. Under the direction of Mr. Cowie the band has developed into a well balanced organization and their rendering of the several selections showed marked musical ability. Mr. S. J. Edgerton, a former Markdale boy, is one of the slide trombone players.

Richardson - Wilson

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wilson, Dunnbrook Farm, near Markdale was the scene of a pretty but quiet wedding on Wednesday, June 17th, at high noon when their third daughter, Mona Frances was united in marriage to Mr. Harold C. Richardson only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richardson of Flesherton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. O. Miller. The bride, who was becomingly attired in brown silk georgette with accessories to match and carried a bouquet of flowers and ferns entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march, played by the bride's mother and took her place beside the groom under a beautiful arch of evergreens, white flowers, bells and streamers. The bride was attended by Miss Ethel Shaw, who wore a rose shade crepe de chine dress and carried a bouquet of flowers and ferns. The groom was attended by Mr. Wallace Wilson, brother of the bride. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid a gold brooch set with pearl and the groomsmen a tie pin. After the usual congratulations the guests repaired to the dining room where a dainty dinner was served. The dining room was prettily decorated with white and yellow streamers and bells. Later in the afternoon the bride and groom left by motor and showers of confetti and good wishes on a trip to Barrie, Bracebridge, Meaford and Owen Sound and on their return will reside at the groom's home one mile north of Flesherton on the King's highway.

The bride received many beautiful and useful gifts among them being a shower given by her friends and associates in Toronto before coming home of linen, china and silverware, also a shower from her neighbours of a kitchen enamel ware and other articles. The Barrehead W. I. also presented her with a cut glass sherbet set.

Rose - Bowles

A very pretty wedding took place on Tuesday, June 16th, at the United Church parsonage, Markdale, when Gertrude Marguerite Bowles, only daughter of Mrs. Agnes A. Bowles and the late Samuel James Bowles of R. R. No. 4 Markdale was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to John Rose of Shelburne, Rev. Warren officiating.

The bride looked lovely in a long wedding gown of ivory georgette and radium lace, white picture hat and white kid shoes and stockings and gloves to match.

Miss Marguerite Montgomery of Wroxeter, who acted as bridesmaid, was wearing a bright blue georgette gown.

Mr. Amos Bowles, brother of the bride acted as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of the bride's mother where about forty guests assembled to partake of a sumptuous feast.

The bride and groom left for a motor trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo for their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a grey silk flat crepe dress, white hat, blue coat and fox fur, the gift of the groom. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a white gold bracelet with rubies and to the groomsmen a pair of white gold initialed cuff links.

Upon their return from their trip the young couple will reside in Shelburne.
