Oil Burning Furnaces

We have secured the agency for the new Oil Burning Furnace and have already installed one in Markdale. We will be pleased to give a demonstration to any interested party. There is a big saving in fuel besides the elimination of all the labor in looking after a furnace. Come in and let us convince you that an oil burner is a heat producer with less labor and at lower costs.

Stratford

A marriage of interest was solemnized by Rev. Wm. Coultas at Stayner manse on Wednesday, Aug. 26th, 1931 at 12 o'clock when Miss Gladys Baker, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Baker of the tenth concession became the bride of Mr. Earl James Brown, youngest son of Mr. James Brown and the late Mrs. Brown of Markdale.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of embroidered tan bluish georgette with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaid, Miss Alma Brown, sister of the groom wore a frock of printed roseda green taffeta with harmonizing hat and shoes. She carried a bouquet of butterfly roses and baby's breath.

Mr. Ellison Baker of Toronto, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

After the ceremony, the bridal party returned to the bride's home where a sumptuous dinner was served, by girl friends, to fifty guests. The dining-room was artistically decorated with pink and white streamers and bells. The colour scheme was also carried out in the floral arrangements.

The beautiful three storey wedding cake added all the more to the festive occasion.

The gift to the bride was a handsome cabinet radio; to the bridesmaid, a lovely purse and to the best man, a fountain pen.

The popularity of the couple was manifested in the splendid array of numerous, useful and costly gifts.

The bride's travelling costume was of avon green with eggshell trim and over this she wore brown English cloth coat with fox fur trimming and hat and shoes to correspond.

After the joyous occasion, the happy young couple left Markdale station, mid showers of confetti and rice, for an extended honeymoon trip to the Pacific Coast. They will call on friends at Saskatoon, Elbow, Winnipeg and Toronto on the return trip then take up home making in the picturesque little village of Priceville where the groom is a valued employee of the C.P.R. Their many friends extend hearty congratulations and best wishes.

Presentation

On Friday evening the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wiggins gathered at the home of Mr. Thos. Wiggins when an enjoyable evening was spent. The young couple were called to the centre of the room at midnight and a witty address was read by Mr. Jas. Collins of Toronto. The young couple were presented with a tin of luck, from which, when the lid was raised, a white cat jumped. The bride was also presented with a rolling pin. We hope she doesn't imitate Maggie.

After this a couple of large baskets of lovely gifts were opened by Bill Stafford and Gladys Rowe and the verses were read by Miss Vera Hannah. The bride and groom in a few well-chosen words thanked all for their kindness and then those present all joined in singing, "For they're jolly good fellows." Lunch was served and dancing indulged in until the wee sma' hours of the morning.

Fire

The same house on the farm belonging to Mr. Thos. Fitzsimmons was completely destroyed by fire on Friday evening about 9.30 o'clock. The contents, with the exception of a few pieces of furniture, were destroyed. Mr. Fitzsimmons had gone early in the evening to Holland Centre to see his wife, who has been bedfast for some time and he had intended bringing her home this week. The neighbors turned out but the fire gained such rapid headway that it was impossible to do anything to save the house. It is not known just how the fire started and only partial insurance was carried. Much sympathy is felt for them in their loss. About ten years ago their barn was burned.

A quiet wedding was solemnized last Wednesday at high noon, when Miss Pansy Jerry, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt Jerry, became the bride of Mr. Ben White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will White of the 11th line. Rev. Mr. Lowrie performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families. The young couple left for a few days visit in Hamilton and Toronto and on their return will reside on the 11th line.

One of the very oldest men of this vicinity passed away on Sunday evening in the person of Mr. Dave Young, sr. who had passed his ninetyeth year and had lived for a great many years on his farm on the blind line of Holland. Further particulars later.

The W.I. met at the home of Mrs. T. Dixon last Wednesday afternoon with an attendance of about thirty-five. After the usual opening by the president and the reading and adoption of minutes several letters of minor importance were read. Several items of business were discussed and a committee appointed to deal with some of them. A chorus of the Institute version of the "Good Old Summer Time" opened the program. Various opinions were expressed on the value of the Institute to the community. Miss M. Acheson played a piano solo. Mrs. (Rev.) Dickson made a few interesting remarks descriptive of the Indian W.I. on the Reserve. Two girls then exhibited two adult breakfasts on trays. Miss H. Hannah's was considered the best, the prize being a green glass plate. The roll call was answered by a pickle recipe. After singing the National Anthem, lunch was served by Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Shepherdson with some junior assistants.
