Young Couple Showered By Friends

On Tuesday evening about ninety friends gathered at the home of Mr. Aaron Thompson, the object of the gathering, being a miscellaneous shower.

Early in the evening the bride and groom were asked to be seated where a fine display of useful and pretty gifts were arranged, and the following address was read by Miss Hazel Fawcett.

Dear Alvin and Florence:
We, your many friends and well-wishers, take this opportunity of coming here this evening to present to you our heartfelt congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

We trust that you will be serenely happy and as your life progresses you will be blest with all that makes for happy homes and contented people.

Therefore to put our good wishes into form more tangible than mere words, we ask you to accept these various gifts as a token of the high esteem in which you are held.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors,
Russell Fawcett
Edgar Fawcett
Sandy Brown

In reply Alvin expressed thanks and appreciation of the kindness of their many friends.
Following the presentation, lunch was served and the rest of the evening was spent in games and dancing.

The small depositor builds the nation!

The small depositor is the backbone of the nation. When he deposits his savings in his bank, his money helps to turn the wheels of industry, stimulate trade, create employment and promote Canadian prosperity. In return is the inestimable benefit to himself—the possession of an always-available cash fund, steadily growing and earning interest, ready to use the moment it is needed or, if added to consistently, capable of smoothing the path of old age. Save for prosperity. Your future depends on your assets. The saving habit returns dividends in security—in many luxuries and extras denied to the unthrifty—in freedom from financial worries. PLEASE

There are a good many of the subscribers to The Standard who have let their subscriptions become in arrears and the sum of such arrearages makes quite a total. We need the money and would ask all those indebted to us to please make an effort to let us have a remittance at the earliest possible moment. The amount of each individual account when multiplied by four or five hundred means much to us.

Please let us have your little contribution.
