ESTABLISHED 1859

Traverston

The forest glory lies close to mother earth.
Mr. J. H. Robson and sons resided their home last week with Nova Scotia's extras. The original roof was on 28 years.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Embury and Mrs. Kenial of Greenbank are visiting at the Cook homestead at present, having arrived on Sunday. A goodly number of live stock, from this neighborhood was disposed of to Durham shippers on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Atkinson and family moved from the Darkies' Corners to Mr. T. B. Blair's farm on Wednesday of last week. The neighbors welcome them and wish them every success. The attendance of No. 5 school will be increased from eight to eleven.
All roots are housed, except an odd patch of turnips, which will go into the root houses before Halloween.
Mr. Will Banks Jr. arrived home from the West the early part of last week.
Many are the congratulations being showered on Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards over the arrival of a little girl on Thursday evening, Oct. 22nd in Durham hospital. Master Raymond is pleased to have a little sister.
On Tuesday morning of last week nine aeroplanes sailed south over this vicinity, two of them quite low over our roof field and big "Barney", our black work horse, nearly took a flying fit too. We thought they were viewing the beauty of Geneleg's flaming woodlands.
Mrs. Chas. McClocklin spent a few days at the close of the week, with her daughters, Mrs. F. Twamley and Mrs. W. Campbell at Welbeck.
Mr. Ben Mays and daughter Elsie of Guelph arrived on Friday night at the Fifth home to assist with the sale which was held on Monday.
Mr. E. R. Peart spent the week-end with friends at Hamilton and Brantford.
Mr. Chas. Robson, Miss Clara Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ritchie visited with kindred at Molesworth over the week-end.
Mr. and Mrs. John McNally of town spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McArthur.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Magwood and family spent the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peart.
Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Peart visited early in the week with Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Ramage and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Barbour of Egremont.
An important real estate deal is taking place on the 8th con. Mr. James Morrison Jr. is disposing of the fine old Morrison homestead to Mr. E. J. McCarthy of the 10th con. The purchase price was close to $5000 with hay and feed included. The farm is in fertile condition well laid out, good fences, snug buildings, protected by a spruce windbreak, that has few equals in the county. Mr. Morrison has been down to Ashfield Tp. in Huron Co., looking over farm properties, with the prospect of an immediate purchase.
A big crowd from far and near, on a sunny afternoon, an alert auctioneer and ready bidders, all combined to make the sale of the late Mrs. Wm. Firth's stock, implements and household effects on Monday afternoon a splendid success. The farm was also offered for sale; but at time of penning this, we are not sure whether the bid offered was accepted or not. The cows and young cattle were in good condition and brought prices far exceeding city prices.
Miss Marcella Connor returned to Toronto early in the week after enjoying a visit with brothers and sisters.

On Thursday evening of this week Mr. Walter Harris of Markdale, will give a talk in New England Church on "The Law pertaining to women and children and property rights." A short program of music will be given at intervals during the evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Thompson and daughter, Miss Mavis of Markdale, were visitors on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Wiley, Jr.
Mr. E. Boyle had a narrow escape from serious injury recently while doing some repairs to his silo in preparation for the corn crop. A board fell from the top of the silo and missed his head by a few inches, striking him on his collar bone, breaking it, which lays him off work for a time. We hope for his speedy recovery from his injury.
Mr. George Thompson and son Bertram of Toronto were visitors for a short time last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lawson.

Born—On Friday, Oct. 23rd, to Mr. and Mrs. Wesley-Patton, a son, Stillborn.
The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. John Graham on Oct. 1st with the president in charge. Opening hymn 384, "What a friend we have in Jesus," was sung, followed by the Lord's Prayer, repeated in unison. Scripture reading, taken from Matt. 28, 19-20, read together. Minutes of last meeting read and adopted. Roll call answered by nine members and ten visitors present. Duet by the Misses Freda Binns and Mabel Wise. A letter was read from Mrs. Murray, asking our auxiliary to try and attend Sectional Conference held at Kimberley, also a letter on Temperance was read. Mrs. Lawson read a letter concerning a study book on Korea.
An appeal is made for clothing for men, women and children of the west, the same to be left at the church. It was moved and seconded that we have a bazaar on Nov. 11th and each member to make 25 cents of sugar into candy and admission to be 15 and 10 cents. Hymn 90 was sung followed by prayer by the president. Readings were then given by Miss Freda Binns, Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. Barry, Mrs. Binns and Mrs. Chester Rodman on Korea. Theme song was sung. Place of next meeting, Mrs. W. J. Lyons. Word "Faith." The meeting closed with the watchword. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Graham assisted by the young ladies present. Tea money $2.25.
Miss Lillian Elliott of Regina, Sask., visited the past week with friends in the vicinity.
We are very sorry to report the serious illness of Mrs. Wesley Patton and also Mr. Wesley Lyons of Markdale. We trust that they may be restored to health again.
We extend our sincere sympathy to the relatives and friends of the late John Burton of Markdale.
Nurse Thompson of Wodehouse is on official duty at the home of Mr. Wesley Patton.
The proceeds of the fowl supper on Wednesday evening last amounted to something over $100.
Mr. and Mrs. Ira Madill have gone to reside in Holland Centre.

Vandeleur

The annual fowl supper which was held in the church on Tuesday evening, Oct. 13th was an unqualified success in every respect. A high class supper was served in the basement where the ladies again demonstrated their ability to supply the needs of the inner-man. Following this a fine program was rendered in the auditorium of the church, which was presided over by the pastor Rev. H. S. Warren. The following took part in the program: Readings by Mr. W. J. Howard of Markdale, Howard McGee, Mary Summers and Minnie Swanton; vocal selections by Mr. Gordon Beaton of Markdale, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Buchanan and Norman Genoe; musical numbers by Mr. Davis and Mrs. Fitzsimmons of Toronto. Miss Macphail gave a short address.
The October meeting of the local Women's Institute was held on Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. W. J. F. Hutchinson. A fine program of readings, papers, music, etc., was put on by the members, also a fine address by Miss Agnes Macphail. It was decided to have a fowl supper for the members and their families at the home of Mrs. Morrison on November 19th. A dainty luncheon was served at the close of the meeting.

In Memoriam

IRWIN—In loving memory of our dear daughter, Ira May Irwin, who passed away one year ago to-day, Nov. 1st, 1930.

Just when your life seemed brightest, And you were needed most, You were taken from this world of sorrow To join the heavenly host. Every day our thoughts are wandering, To your grave not far away, Where they gently laid your body Just one year ago to-day.

Sadly missed by father, mother, sisters and brothers.
