The 8th line school section held their annual school meeting last week. Mr. Bert Magee was elected a trustee. Mr. Chas. Hanley retiring. Reeve Cameron still holds the position of secretary-treasurer.

The annual school meeting of S. S. No. 13, Eugenia was held on Dec. 30th and was well attended. Mr. Cardwell Graham was given the office of secretary-treasurer again at a salary of $15. Mr. Stanley Campbell, the retiring trustee was re-elected again. Mr. Will Walker resigned as trustee and Mr. Robt. Purvis was appointed trustee in his stead. Mr. Stanley Campbell received the caretaking of the school, his tender being, $70. Last year the caretaking of school was let at $75 but washing woodwork and curtains, and attention to out-buildings was paid for extra. This year the form of contract included all these and the school must be scrubbed 10 times during the year instead of 6 times as before; curtains, woodwork and windows, etc. to be washed twice during the year and at all times 5 cords of wood to be kept in the basement. The wood contract was let at $2.50 to Mr. John Williams. Mr. Will Walker received the contract for the cedar.

Mr. Sam MacDonald returned to Toronto to resume his duties as teacher there.

Mrs. Nelson Tempest received the sad news of the death of her dear sister, Mrs. Seward Wells. She passed away at her home in Wolcott N.Y. on Tuesday, Dec. 8th after a prolonged illness. Mrs. Wells was only 47 years of age. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Tempest in her sad bereavement.

Wodehouse

Mild weather continues to predominate.

"Ding dang, ding dong, Oh those nuptial bells—
Some one believes in beginning the year properly."

The young people of Sligo and New England assembled in a field of Mr. E. Boyle on Tuesday night, donned their skates and had a merry old time together for several hours. After this they were invited to partake of a dainty luncheon prepared by Mrs. Boyle and Grace which was much appreciated by their happy guests.

Master Stanley Thompson happened with a very painful accident on Tuesday of last week while chopping wood. The axe he was using glanced, striking him on the right leg below the knee. The wound required ten stitches to support the muscle and ten more to close the flesh wound. We hope it will soon heal and become well once more.

New Year's day passed along with its usual round of visitors and celebrations. Geese and ducks paid their usual penalties owing to the alacrity of their prey.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Clark and family treated their many friends and neighbors to a very delightful evening in a "1931-32" dance. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves as not one moment was stale.

Mrs. Rourke, who has been the delightful guest with her sisters and friends here for the yuletide returned to her home in Kitchener.

Mr. Frank Ball spent the yuletide with friends and relatives in Toronto.

While you are reading these few lines the members of New England choir will be getting their teeth all sharpened up for a real feast of fowl on Thursday evening, served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilcox. The evening will be finished with games, music and singing.
