

Traverston

The spring birds, robins, black-birds, killdeers, etc. arrived in this vicinity on March 27th; but they failed to bring real spring.

The sympathy of many is extended to Mrs. Colgan and the members of the family in the loss of their beloved mother, Mrs. Bailey of Hamilton.

Mrs. J. C. Cook spent the greater part of the Easter week at the parental home near Chesley.

On Tuesday, April 12th, Mrs. M. J. Davis of the 6th con. will celebrate her 84th birthday. Though she has passed recently through a severe attack of the flu she is as active as ever and loves to be in the sugar bush.

After having his tonsils removed by Dr. Carefoot in Markdale hospital on Thursday last week, Ray McClocklin returned home on Saturday.

The council fathers met in the township hall on Saturday and re-appointed all the patrolmen who were in office last year. With much patience, yet strong determination Reeve Brodie pressed for a reduction of salaries which finally was embodied in a by-law making a cut of ten per cent. in the salary of clerk, treasurer, road superintendent, members of the council and set the wage of day labour at $2 and $4 for man and team. The members of the council realize the necessity for the curtailment of expenses. The condition of the roads this spring will require an unusual amount of dragging, grading and repairs.

On a secluded swampy farm, near at hand, seven deer have been living happily for some weeks.

Miss Sarah E. McLean of Bentinck resumed her school duties on Monday, after spending a happy Easter week at the parental home. The school room had been scrubbed and generally brightened up during the week.

Miss Winnie Binnie held a sale of stock, implements and furniture on the old homestead on Tuesday of last week and she and her mother are moving into the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. J. P. McGillivray. Her cousin, Mr. Geo. Bell bought the fine 150 acre farm last fall and now gets possession. It is one of the best farms in the township.

Mrs. Herb Timmins was taken by Dr. Carefoot to Markdale hospital on Thursday last, so as to be under closer medical care.

A very happy event of deep interest to many Glenelgers, took place at the fine home of Mr. Alex. Ellison, near Elbow, Sask. on March 16th, when their children, grandchildren and "Aunt" Weir (nee Miss Janet Bell) met to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. Alex. Ellison and Fanny Bell were wedded in 1892 and after fourteen successful years moved West, finally settling on a rich farming land five miles from Elbow. They have been specially successful out West. Mr. Ellison excels in thorough-bred cattle and horse-raising and extensive grain raising. The union was blessed with two sons and four daughters, but the youngest son Willie made the supreme sacrifice in 1918 in the World War. The other members of the family, with the nine grandchildren were all present on the joyous occasion. After a bright program was given by the grandchildren a loving address was read, followed by the presentation of a handsome 8-day clock. A rich feast followed the presentation, the table being graced by a 3-storied wedding cake as well as the groom's birthday cake. Then a happy few hours of social enjoyment. Many friends in Glenelg join with the family and wide circle of friends around Elbow in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Ellison many, many happy returns of their wedding day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Atkinson and family are moving this week from Zion's Corner to Wm. Hill's farm south of Durham.

A pioneer daughter and former resident of this community in the person of Miss Catherine McKechnie passed away at the home of her niece, Mrs. Archie MacLean, Bentinck, north of Aberdeen on March 30th, 1932. She was in her 75th year and had been a sufferer for the past ten years from arthritis, her condition taking a serious turn about Christmas, since when she has gradually failed in health and passed away on Wednesday morning.

The late Miss McKechnie was born in Vaughan township and when a child of eighteen months of age came with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. John McKechnie, who settled on lot 7, con. 11, Glenelg. The deceased lived here with her brother John until his death nine years ago, when with an only sister, Miss Elizabeth, she went to make her home with her niece, Mrs. MacLean by whom she was given every care.

The funeral was held from the MacLean residence on Friday afternoon, with interment in Latona cemetery. Rev. John Galloway of Mulock Baptist Church had charge of the service.

Many old neighbors and friends were in attendance at the funeral to show their respect for the departed.

Principals in Heroic Sea Rescue

On the afternoon of Saturday, March 12, there was enacted off Halifax a true drama of the sea, replete with all the best traditions of "those who go down to the sea in ships." The salvage ship Reindeer, herself on the way to aid a vessel in distress, became a wreck and sent out an S.O.S., which was picked up by the Canadian Pacific liner Montcalm, bound from Liverpool to Halifax. Captain A. Rothwell, her commanding officer, at once altered course and raced to the sinking Reindeer. Within two miles, volunteers were called for and a lifeboat, under command of Second Officer H. S. Knight, battled with wind and high seas for nearly four hours to reach the stricken ship. Captain Rothwell handed the Montcalm so as to make a lee for the rescuers and kept oil going in their track. Captain Featherstone and his crew of 27, to say nothing of a police dog, were safely taken off and the return trip to the Montcalm made in about 15 minutes, thanks to the wind. The shipwreck victims were given a rousing welcome and their rescuers cheered to the echo by the Montcalm's passengers, who witnessed the entire event. Later, a purse was taken up for the volunteers and a silver cigarette case presented to Second Officer Knight. A telegram was also sent to E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, commending the Reindeer, with Captain Rothwell and Second Officer Knight, in uniform. Beside Captain Rothwell is Captain Featherstone. Lower picture shows the brave men who manned the Montcalm's lifeboat. In Seapen J. Carr; H. Addicott; L. Page; H. Pearce; the forecarg are Second Officer Knight and Captain J. Lawry and W. Hughes; Boatswain W. Doyle and Rothwell. Left to right from top are: Able-Bodied J. Smythe, lamp-trimmer.

The World Owes Much to Advertisers

ALL OF US would be poorer if there were no advertisements in our newspapers—poorer in pocket, mind, comfort, culture.

Advertisements have been called the "Poor man's University," for they are wonderful teachers—wonderful mirrors of the world's scientific and cultural development.

It is advertisements which keep us informed about what is being accomplished by the world's best engineers, chemists, research workers and technicians, in every field of human endeavor—in the realms of radio, motor-car and tire manufacturing, food preparation, remedial preparations, domestic and personal hygiene, building materials and construction, and agricultural economy, home easements and beautification.

If there were no advertisements in our newspapers and magazines, we'd all slip back—back to the levels of life of 50 and 100 years ago. We'd read less, move about less, lower our living standards, be content with poorer machines, eat coarser foods and wear coarser clothing, live in unattractive homes, do a vast amount of distasteful labor, wear ill-fitting shoes, see ugliness everywhere, have more illness, meet with more accidents, have more toothaches; and our stores would be very dull places indeed.

To blot out advertisements would be like blotting out the sun—the source of light and energy.

Be grateful to advertisers, and show your gratitude by buying what they bring so faithfully to your attention—in this and other newspapers.

And always remember that advertisers are the world's civilizers and your true friends.
