Mr. Thos. Anderson of Schrieber was a recent visitor with friends in the neighborhood.

Miss Clara Greenwood treated the group of young folk, who took part in the play to a social time last Friday evening.

The pancake social held last Thursday evening at North Glenelg Baptist Church proved quite a success. Rev. J. Galloway presided over a splendid program. There was a good attendance but the ladies of the congregation are first class providers so there were ample pancakes and lunch for all.

A happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Brodie, north Glenelg, on Monday at eleven o'clock when their daughter, Mildred, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Campbell, second eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Campbell of the fourth concession, Glenelg. The bride was attired in a becoming gown of navy blue georgette. The attendants were Miss Lena Ellison and Mr. Robert Brodie. Rev. J. Galloway of Mulock tied the nuptial knot. Following the ceremony, a sumptuous wedding dinner was served to the invited guests and relatives. The young couple will reside on the groom's farm on the 4th concession. The community extends best wishes to this happy young couple.

Wodehouse

The correspondent deeply regrets the error of omission which appeared last week in the following item which is now corrected. Mr. Willie Stoddart of Markdale is spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fawcett.

Mr. Frank Ball entertained his many friends to dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Clark on Friday night last where a good time resulted.

Mr. Cyril Johnson, who was employed with Mr. Geo. Wiley received a call from his brother in Quebec to accept a position with him for the summer. He left on Monday for his new abode after a week-end visit with former friends at Vandeleur.

We are sorry to lose Cyril from our community as he was an invaluable aid in the choir as well as other social gatherings.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fawcett visited over the week-end with the former's uncle, Mr. Geo. Chapple and wife and his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fawcett of near Meaford.

The saw mill at Wodehouse swung into operation on Tuesday and its familiar 'buzz-z-z-wang' will likely be heard over moor and glen during the next several weeks.

We are pleased to state the steady progress in Mr. Aaron Thompson's health since his severe attack of pleurisy.

We Are Depending on You to Pay

When we do not get our money we are placed in an awkward position with our creditors.

It matters not whether we are able to collect from those indebted to us, we must meet our regular obligations for supplies, labor and other necessary expenditures. If those indebted to us would come across with the cash, no matter how small the amount, they would help us to meet our obligations. Again we appeal to subscribers-in-arrears to let us have what you can. If you are indebted to us we mean YOU.
