On the Sidewalks of Eugenia

On the sidewalks of Eugenia.— You can view the horseshoe game flitting horseshoes up so high. Knocking glass from the window frame. On the sidewalks of Eugenia. Where the people talk for fun, They say the forming of an orchestra. Has been a very slow one. On the sidewalks of Eugenia. They have "window peepers" too Just like they have at Harriston Who peek and see what people do. On the sidewalks of Eugenia, Those peepers told what they did see, They saw that two of our young men Each had a 'sweetie' upon his knee. On the sidewalks of Eugenia— They will guess who were these men? Was it Charlie, Joe or Ken? Was it Ranald, Jack or Glen?
