

THOMPSON'S STORE FOR MEN

TO BE WELL DRESSED
DRESS APPROPRIATELY

BUSINESS and professional men realize the importance of correct attire and naturally they demand quality and value. That's why so many successful men wear Fashion-Craft Clothes.

FASHION-CRAFT CLOTHES

Special Value at $18, $20 and $25

Other lines at $12, $15 and $16.50

P. J. Thompson Men's and Boys' Outfitter Markdale, Ont.

DANCE

Orange Hall MARKDALE Friday, May 20th

Dancing from 8 to 12 o'clock

A prize of $1.00 will be given to the person whose name is first drawn from the box.

Admission 25 cents

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In the matter of the Estate of JAMES RYAN, late of the Township of Glenelg, in the County of Grey, farmer, deceased.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to Section 51 of the Trustee Act, R.S.O. 1927, Chapter 150 that all creditors and others having claims or demands against the estate of the said James Ryan, who died on or about 25th day of April, A.D., 1932, at the Township of Glenelg in the County of Grey, are required on or before the 10th day of June, 1932, to send by post, prepaid, or deliver to Walter E. Harris, Solicitor for the administrator of the estate of the said deceased, their christian names and surnames and addresses and descriptions, the full particulars in writing of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the security if any, held by them.

And take notice that after such last mentioned date the said administrator will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which he shall then have notice and that the said administrator will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof to any person or persons of whose claim notice shall not have been received by him at the time of such distribution.

Dated at Markdale this 16th day of May, A.D., 1932.

Walter E. Harris, Solicitor for John Ryan, Administrator.

Cook's Regulating Compound
A safe reliable regulating medicine. Sold in three degrees of strength—No. 1, $1; No. 2, $1.50; No. 3, $5 per box. $20 by all druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of price. Free pamphlet. Address: THE COOK MEDICINE CO. TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Wickes)

Death of Mrs. George Hill

The sudden and unexpected death of Annie Jane Logan, beloved wife of the late George Hill of Euphrasia, occurred at her late home on Monday, May 9th, after an illness resulting from a fall on the verandah about eleven months ago. She had been in fairly good health up to the time of the accident but had been confined to bed most of the time since. All that loving hands could do was done for her care and comfort.

The late Mrs. Hill was a daughter of the late Joseph and Annie Jane Logan and was born in Toronto 51 years ago. When eleven or twelve years of age she moved with the family to Amaranth where her father had purchased farms for his four sons. While in Toronto her father conducted a dairy and a bakery business. She was married to the late Mr. Hill in Amaranth and for a few years lived there and at Walden before coming to Euphrasia fifty years ago.

The deceased was the last of a family of six. Her husband died about ten years ago. Surviving are five sons and three daughters, namely: Thomas, Robert and Nat in Euphrasia; Oliver at Meaford; Herbert of Butte, Montana; Mrs. Chas. Eagles of Markdale; Mrs. William Bennett of Dundalk and Mrs. Geo. Sargent of Berkeley. A daughter, Mrs. George Nesbitt, died eleven years ago. She is also survived by twenty-seven grandchildren and twenty-one great grandchildren.

She was a kind and loving mother and an obliging and helpful neighbor always ready to assist in time of need or sorrow. In religion she was a member of the United Church but in her declining years was unable to attend the services. Although living to a great age her passing is keenly felt by many warm friends outside the family.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Thursday afternoon to Markdale Cemetery from her late home in Euphrasia. An impressive service was conducted by Rev. H. S. Warren of Annesley United Church.

Beautiful floral tributes bore testimony to the sorrow in the hearts of many friends and included a pillow from Mr. and Mrs. Nat Hill; cross from Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hill and family; wreath from Mr. Thomas Hill and family; wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hill and family; wreath from Mr. Herbert Hill; spray from Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett and family; spray from Mrs. Chas. Eagles; spray from Mrs. Henry Wells. The flower bearers were two granddaughters, Misses Verna Hill and Ruby Nesbitt and Misses Jane Dickie and Muriel Harvey. The pallbearers were six grandsons, Lorne and Reg Hill of Meaford, Almer Nesbitt of Berkeley, Gordon Bennett, Clarence and Harry Hill of Euphrasia.

Among those from a distance present at the funeral were Miss Mary Boggs, Mr. James Boggs, Mrs. Laban Boggs and Mr. Ben Boggs of Marsville; Mr. Samuel Boggs of Orangeville; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hill and daughter Ruby; Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Hill, Mr. Reg. Hill, Mr. Harold Hill and Mr. Wilbert Hill of Meaford; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bennett, Mrs. Nat Bennett and son Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bennett of Dundalk; Mr. Almer Nesbitt of Berkeley; Mrs. Chas. Eagles, Mrs. Henry Wells and Miss Eveline Hill of Markdale.

One precious to our heart is gone, A voice we loved is still; A place made vacant in our home Can never more be filled.

Our Father in His wisdom called; The boon His love had given. Although on earth the body lies The soul is safe in Heaven.

25 YEARS AGO

Gleaned from The Standard of May 10th, 1907

Will Noble had his hand badly injured when it caught in a pulley at the Hill store.

John Teeter of Armesia delivered to Pickell & Burnside a fine bunch of cattle for which he received $700.

James Wiley of Wodehouse had his house destroyed by fire on Tuesday of that week.

An excursion was advertised to Toronto and Niagara Falls. The fare to Toronto was $2.05 and to Niagara $2.10.

Butter was 20 cents a pound and eggs 16 cents per dozen.

In Memoriam

HALBERT—In loving memory of our dear father, S. J. Halbert, who passed to his reward May 17, 1930.

His memory ever lives in our hearts.
Son and Daughter.

Rt. Wor. Bro. J. M. Aiken visits Hiram Lodge

At the regular meeting of Hiram Lodge No. 490, A.F. & A.M., on Thursday evening last Rt. Wor. Bro. J. M. Aiken of Orangeville, D. D.G.M. of Grey District, paid his official visit. Wor. Bro. Chester Rodman, Master of the lodge, and his officers conferred the first degree on a candidate and were complimented by the distinguished visitor on the efficiency of their work. After the business of the lodge had been completed the brethren adjourned to the banquet hall where a tasty lunch, prepared by the wives of the members, was served. This was followed by a banquet program presided over by Wor. Bro. Rodman. The toast to the King was responded to by singing the National Anthem. Wor. Bro. Ran Bradey proposed the toast to the Craft to which Rt. Wor. Bro. A. E. Colgan responded. The toast to Grand Lodge was proposed by Wor. Bro. T. Stewart Cooper and replied to by Rt. Wor. Bro. Aiken. His address was one of the finest ever heard at a Masonic gathering in Markdale and those present were greatly pleased and interested. "The Ladies" was proposed by Wor. Bro. C. R. King and replied to by Bro. Rev. C. O. Pherrill. A toast "To the Visitors" was proposed by Bro. W. J. Messenger and brought replies from Wor. Bros. W. O. C. Ahern, G. M. FitzGerald and G. H. Campbell of Orangeville. Rt. Wor. Bro. Aiken proposed a toast to Hiram Lodge to which Wor. Bro. L. G. Campbell replied. Bro. W. J. Howard contributed a reading and Bro. G. A. Beaton a solo. Community singing was also enjoyed. The gathering was brought to a close by the singing of Auld Lang Syne. The D.D.G.M. was accompanied from Orangeville by Wor. Bros. G. M. FitzGerald, H. Darragh, G. H. Campbell, F. Bowles and W. O. C. Ahern and Bros. A. S. Elson, Russell Morrow, A. W. McGillivray, J. A. McBride, E. Whelan, A. H. Woodland and C. B. Gillespie.

James Radley

James Ernest Radley of Osprey Township passed away at the home, 222 Collingwood Gravel Road, on Tuesday of last week, May 3, after having been suffering from heart trouble all his life. He was in his 63rd year. He was the youngest son of the late John Radley and Elizabeth Treilford, pioneers of this section, who came from Grimsby, Lincolnshire, England, about 100 years ago.

He was married to Miss Elizabeth Counts, 35 years ago, who along with 10 children survive. The family consisted of three sons and seven daughters: William of Peace River, B.C., Ernest, Donald and Miss Grace at home; Mrs. Frank Youngs (Lily), Orangeville; Mrs. J. Yearly (Sadie), Toronto; Mrs. Olan Bowes (Ann), Concord; Mrs. Cyril Brillinger (Mildred), Richmond Hill; Mrs. Wm. McDonald (Nellie), Toronto; Mrs. Chas. Fisher (Ida) of Toronto. The eldest daughter, Myrtle, died on March 17, 1917.

The late Mr. Radley spent most of his life here, farming the homestead, which his father had cleared out of the solid bush at the time Grey County was opened up. Owing to poor health he kept a hotel at Cayton for five years and also spent five years in York County, returning to his farm near Maxwell in 1925. He then received an appointment of Road Superintendent of Osprey township. He was an affectionate husband and father, a kind neighbor with a genial disposition and his home registered hospitality for all. Now death has ended that fine virtue, but the memory of association will long continue.

He was a member of O.F. and Orange Lodges and an adherent of the United Church. His father helped build the first Maxwell primitive Methodist Church.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon and his pastor, Rev. Pope preached a comforting message at the service held in the Maxwell United Church, from Luke 11:9 "Ask and it shall be given you."

The Church was filled with sympathetic friends who came to pay their respect to the memory of one who held the esteem and regard of the community. Interment took place in the Maxwell United Cemetery, with the I.O.F. lodges from Flesherton and Maxwell officiating at the grave.

The floral tributes consisted of a pillow from the family; sprays, T. Bemrose, Willard Counts, Jacob Corbett, Andrew Pallister, Ella Robinson, C. Rolls and Austin Brillinger.

The pallbearers were Jack Magee, John Fenwick, Chas. Heron, Chas. Brodie, Geo. Ross, Levi Pallister. Flesherton Advance.

Grey Presbyterian

Annual Meeting of Grey Presbyterian and Women's Missionary Society Held in Markdale

There was a large attendance at the annual meeting of the Grey County Presbyterian and the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church held in Annesley Church, Markdale on Wednesday of last week. The opening session commenced at 9.45 in the forenoon with the auditorium of the church well filled and at the afternoon and evening sessions the galleries were also occupied. There are fifty senior auxiliaries in the Presbyterian and thirty-five of these answered the roll call. Representatives were also present from the Young Women's Auxiliaries, Mission Circles and Mission Bands.

The convention was very interesting and inspiring and the addresses were particularly instructive. Mrs. W. D. Staples of Hanover, who has for several years occupied the position of president most acceptably, retired and is succeeded by Mrs. E. C. Murray of Flesherton.

"Peace" is the theme of the Presbyterian this year and the following is their inspiring theme song:

Thy Kingdom come, O Lord, Wide-circled as the sun; Fulfill of old Thy word, And make the nations one; One in the bond of peace.

The service glad and free Of truth and righteousness, Of love and equity.

Mrs. Albert Ferguson of Chatsworth and Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson of Kimberley took the worship theme at the opening of the morning session. Reports followed by the Strangers' secretary, Mrs. A. D. Cornett; Associate Helpers, Mrs. W. J. Scott; Supply, Mrs. Louis Long; Missionary Monthly, Mrs. A. E. Cummings; C. G. I. T., Mrs. J. H. Rutherford; Mission Band, Mrs. J. McDonald; Baby Band, Miss Blyth; Literature, Mrs. R. E. Wright; Correspondence, Mrs. I. Nicoll; Temperance, Mrs. F. J. Ritchie.

The morning session concluded with the message by the president, Mrs. Staples. Her message was in a way a valedictory, in which she thanked her executive officers for the loyalty and support of the past years and asked a continuance of this co-operation for the new president. Mrs. Staples based her message on 2nd Kings, chapter 6, verse 17: "And Elisha prayed and said, Lord, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man and he saw; and behold the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire about Elisha." Mrs. Staples exhorted her hearers to open their eyes that they may see the vineyard of children and youth in every community. Stand for spiritual values, she said. Hold aloft the light. Centre your lives around the things that will endure.

Both lunch and supper were served in the basement of the church, the ladies of the church being delightful hostesses. During the lunch hour greetings from the Presbytery of Grey were extended to the Presbyterian by Rev. Edward Baker of Dundalk. Greetings were also given by the Markdale Auxiliary.

The afternoon opening worship period was taken by Mrs. E. P. Hamill of Massie, and Mrs. W. J. Logan of Meaford. Mrs. J. H. Packham of Owen Sound conducted an impressive memorial service in tribute to 23 members of the Presbyterian, who passed way during the year.

One of the special missionary speakers of the afternoon, Miss Florence Fee of Holland Centre, was introduced by Mrs. (Rev.) R. J. McCarty, who expressed the pride felt by the entire Presbyterian in Miss Fee's services in China in the cause of Missions. Miss Fee outlined some of the needs awaiting the missionary in China. These needs are not alone spiritual, but physical and social. Great suffering is caused by unsanitary living conditions, hunger and want and superstition. China presents a challenge to the Christian church—the challenge of Jesus moved to compassion by the multitudes. It is forty years since the first missionaries went to China. Then they were alone in their task. Now the missionary has the eager assistance of the Chinese Christians who also see the need and have the vision of service in the Master's cause. In China there are wide open doors and many adversaries—communism, atheistic teachings, fear and hate of Japan, opium and militarism. Speaking of her own work during four years in China, Miss Fee said that she had seen great suffering among the women, but had also seen women transformed and made victorious over their difficult environment through belief in Christ.

Mrs. Fred Harris presented the treasurer's statement for the year. The receipts of the year were $11,941.35 and the amount sent to the Conference Branch treasurer was $11,774.84. The secretary of Christian Stewardship and Finance, Mrs. W. R. Alder of Durham, explained that the Presbyterian had fallen short of the allocation of $13,325. "But we are not discouraged," she said, urging the Auxiliaries to keep banded together. The financial objective for the ensuing year remains the same.

The remaining speaker of the afternoon's program, Miss Louisa Mayowna of Czechoslovakia, who is attending the United Church training school in Toronto, contributed one of the happiest memories of the convention. Dressed in a native costume, gay striped skirt, waist and apron, with snowy blouse, and a charming figure, while her message of Christian service, performed with a love for humanity, shining with the inspiration of Jesus Christ Himself, found the heart of every one of her hearers. Speaking in a quaint, though warm and colorful English, Miss Mayowna described how she had come to Canada. She was invited to come out two years ago by the United Church W.M.S., following her services as interpreter to Rev. Mr. Ridout during his travels in Russia, Poland, the Ukraine and other countries in central Europe. Miss Mayowna speaks many languages and very humorous was her description of her initial learning of the English language from books and dictionaries. She was invited to come to Canada for special work, to serve the new Canadians at the doors of Canada, namely the ports of entry. She started her duties at Saint John, N.B., later being stationed at Quebec until the immigration was closed owing to Canada, under present conditions, being unable to assimilate more people. Very vividly she described the lonely foreigner, who arrives in a strange country, where even the tongue is unfamiliar to him. It is so easy to get into trouble, said Miss Mayowna, when you do not understand.

Miss Mayowna is at present spending a year in the United Church training school with the desire to learn more about Canada, her traditions, her ideals, her customs. She paid tribute to Dr. Dow, lecturer at the mission school, whom she said, had given her her most beautiful picture of Christ, "He can show you Christ, she said, because he lives so close to Him." Miss Mayowna did extensive social service work in Germany as a nursing deaconess, in Russia, Poland, etc.

The report of the nominating committee was presented by Mrs. W. H. Smith, after which Miss Mayowna had the privilege of installing the new officers. The following is the new executive: President, Mrs. E. C. Murray of Flesherton; past president, Mrs. W. D. Staples of Hanover; first vice-president, Mrs. W. J. Scott of Flesherton; second vice, Mrs. E. E. Amos of Thornbury; third vice, Mrs. W. J. Dowkes of Owen Sound; fourth vice, Mrs. R. R. Douglas of Owen Sound; fifth vice, Mrs. E. Baker of Dundalk; sixth vice, Mrs. S. A. Morrison of Meaford; recording secretary, Mrs. R. Dezell of Owen Sound; corresponding secretary, Miss I. Nicoll of Owen Sound; treasurer, Mrs. W. R. Alder of Durham; work for young women, Mrs. J. R. Morden of Meaford; C. G. I. T., Mrs. J. H. Rutherford of Owen Sound; Mission Bands, Mrs. J. McDonald of Keady; Baby Bands, Mrs. R. G. King of Walters Falls; Associate Helpers, Mrs. McLaughlin of Woodford; Supply, Mrs. A. M. Cole of Owen Sound; Strangers, Mrs. A. D. Cornett of Owen Sound; Literature, Mrs. R. E. Wright of Owen Sound; Missionary Monthly, Mrs. Haney of Elmwood; Temperance, Mrs. F. J. Ritchie of Markdale; Press, Mrs. Cecil Baker of Owen Sound.

An interesting feature of the afternoon was the awarding of the banner to Mrs. H. S. Bunt and Mrs. Nichol of Owen Sound as leaders of the banner mission band in the Presbyterian, namely, Central United Band. Hopeville Band also did particularly good work during the year. A very sweet vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. Robert Douglas toward the close of the session.

At the evening session, at which the members of the choir of Annesley Church were present in full and led in splendid music, the new president, Mrs. E. C. Murray, presided. The special speaker of the session was Rev. John Coburn of Toronto, well-known social service worker. Mr. Coburn gave his hearers a very interesting account of the redemption work for girls and women carried on in the four United Church women's homes across Canada, at Truro, N.S., Moncton, N.B., Toronto and Vancouver, B.C. He stressed the two separate sides of social service work, the social and the spiritual and applied them to the work being carried on for women, the direct spiritual influence and the industrial activities of the homes, both of which had their up-lifting effect. During the evening the report of the secretary of young women's work was presented by Mrs. J. R. Morden of Meaford, who had a very happy message, especially encouraging at the present time. A pleasing musical feature of the evening was a vocal solo by Mr. G. A. Beaton.

Barrhead Women's Institute

The May meeting of Barrhead W. I. was held on Thursday evening at the home of the president Mrs. Luther Torry with nine members and eight visitors. After singing the ode and repeating the Lord's prayer in unison the meeting was open for business.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Two letters of thanks were read. It was decided to have the Vandeleur Institute visit us at our June meeting. The election of officers followed. President, Mrs. J. Hatton; Vice, pres., Mrs. Eva Foster; Sec.-Treas., Miss Mary McNicoll; assistant sec., Mrs. Allen White; directors, Mrs. S. Hill, Mrs. B. Sewell, Mrs. L. Whitehead, Mrs. J. Hamilton; District director, Mrs. Ben Sewell; district representative, Mrs. W. Bowles; press reporter, Mrs. W. McNicoll; organist, Mrs. W. Wilson; flower committee, Mrs. B. White, Mrs. E. Smart, Miss Mary Bowles; auditors, Mrs. George Hargrave; program committee, Mrs. McNicoll, Mrs. B. White, Mrs. E. Foster, Mrs. W. Wilson, Mrs. J. Hatton, Mrs. L. Whitehead.

The meeting was then closed by singing "God Save the King." The hostess served a dainty lunch, assisted by Mrs. Wilson and the Misses Torry, Dennett, and Alliston. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Wilson on June 2nd at 8 p.m.

Man's Heart Stopped by Stomach Gas

W. L. Adams bloated so with gas after meals that his heart missed beats. Adierika brought out all gas and now he eats anything and feels fine. R. L. Stephen, druggist.

COMING

MR. H. W. LAWSON, OF LAWSON'S BEAUTY PARLORS, OWEN SOUND, will be at MR. W. ALCOX'S BARBER SHOP IN MARKDALE ON MONDAY NEXT, MAY THE 23rd Expert Work & Every Permanent Guaranteed Prices: $5.00, $7.50 and $10.00 Call at Barber Shop for appointment

At the Markdale Meat Market for Friday and Saturday

BEEF
ROUND STEAK	15c per pound
BEST BEEF BOIL	9c per pound
BEST ROAST BEEF	12c per pound
PORK
PICNIC HAMS	8c per pound
BOIL OF PORK	8c per pound
PORK CHOP	2 pound for 25c
VEAL
VEAL BOIL	10c per pound
BEST VEAL ROASTS	14c per pound
VEAL STEAK OR CUTLETS	18c per pound
BACON, COOKED MEAT AND SAUSAGE
BREAKFAST BACON	2 pound for 25c
CHOICE PEAMEAL BACK BACON	20c per pound
BEST QUALITY COOKED HAM	30c per pound
BOLOGNA	2 pound for 25c
PURE PORK SAUSAGE	2 pound for 25c
FISH
SALMON TROUT	2 pound for 25c
PINK SALMON	2 cans for 25c

Delivered Any Place in Markdale

Terms Strictly Cash

HASLAM & JOHNSTON

BUY YOUR Purina Chick Feed

FROM

C. R. KING

Phone 149

Markdale

Northern Nurseries

Owen Sound

Cut Flowers
Gift Bouquets
Wedding Flowers
Funeral Designs

Landscape Gardening
Perennials and Shrubs

All Orders Receive Careful Attention. Promptly Delivered by Mail, Express or Bus.