Mrs. Wm. Henderson and son Huntley of Toronto are holidaying with Mr. Dave Henderson.

"Bruce" went through a serious operation last night with two doctors in attendance. Dr. Phillips Newfoundland dog called "Bruce" met a nice sized porcupine in the swamp near the village Monday and proceeded to dispatch the bundle of quills. Well you know what happened and who got the worst of the fight.

Fisherman's Paradise. "Speckled Trout District." Signs and bill boards are placed here and there directing tourists to the fishing streams in this district which is all right so far as they go, but when the visitor finds the fishing place he is warned by other signs that the waters are reserved and that trespassers will be prosecuted. If we want the tourists to flock to the territory it is up to us to see that the streams are not all reserved for the wealthy city fellows.

Chatsworth has a wonderful crop of hay on their streets, possibly the council intend storing it for good prices. On both sides of cement walks the hay is at least four feet high and forms an arch where you pass through and receive a nice cooling bath after a heavy dew or rain storm all free of cost. Possibly Dec. 1st would be a suitable time to have the weeds and grass cut.

Rev. Marth exchanged pulpits with the minister of Holland Centre on Sunday evening. We enjoyed the service very much.

J. H. Sudden opened his general store on Thursday with a new stock bought at the new low prices. He will be pleased to serve all his old customers and many new ones.
