Randle - Stuart

On Tuesday, June 21st, at Trinity United Church the marriage of Denéla, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Stuart, and Arthur Edwin Randle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Randle, was solemnized.

The ceremony was conducted by Rev. G. S. Smith before the altar which was banked with pink and white peonies. Little bunches of white marguerites were used to mark the guest pews. The stately bride, who was given in marriage by her father wore a gown of powder blue lace with a transparent velvet coat of deeper blue. Her graceful hat was of pink mohair, and her shoes of a blending shade. She carried a bouquet of pale pink roses and lily-of-the-valley. Her bridesmaid was her sister, Fern Stuart, whose gown was pink organdy with blue mohair hat and matching gloves and shoes, and she carried deep pink roses. Mr. Belre Pitts was groomsmen. The ushers were Mr. Donald Butchart and Mr. Frank Brown. Miss Margaret Randle, A.T.C.M., sister of the groom, played the wedding music and Miss Helen McArthur sang "All Mine Alone" during the signing of the register.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Nelson Street. Mrs. Stuart, mother of the bride, wore a becoming gown of flowered chiffon with a corsage of orchids and a baku hat, and Mrs. Randle, mother of the groom, wore a blue crepe chiffon gown with matching hat. She also wore orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Randle left by motor for a wedding trip to the Laurentians and will afterwards reside in Whitby. The bride travelled in a smart beige silk suit with hat, shoes and purse in a matching shade.—Meaford Mirror.

Address and Presentation

Miss Mamie Jones, who has taught at Cheesville school for several years, has resigned. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Foster on Friday evening last a number of the friends and neighbors gathered when the following address was read:

To Miss Jones—
Having heard of your departure from our midst, we have gathered to show our appreciation of you while here and cheer you on your journey hence.

The relations between you and the members of this community have always been agreeable. As memory goes back over the time spent with us, we recall many instances of your interest and help in social events. You have patiently tried to impart to our children, knowledge and we feel assured that you will always be preserved in their memory.

Now, when we are about to separate for an indefinite period, we ask you to accept this writing desk, not to be used selfishly but its usefulness shared with another, and as you use this desk, may you have pleasant memories of the time spent with us.

In the future, our good wishes follow you, and may health, prosperity and pleasure be your lot.

Mrs. A. Cloud says: "For years I had a bad stomach and gas. Was nervous and could not sleep. Adierka rid me of all stomach trouble and now I sleep fine." R. L. Stephen, druggist.

Judging Competition

On Friday, June 24th, the Junior Farmers and Junior Institutes held their annual judging competition at Markdale. Ninety boys and forty-nine girls participated in the event. Nearly every township in Grey County was represented.

The girls, in charge of Miss E. E. Zavitz, judged Nutrition made up of two parts: menus and school lunches. Clothing was also considered divided into two sections.

The winners were as follows:
1st in competition, Mrs. F. Kenney, Heathcote, silver basket; 2nd in competition, Miss Greta McCallum, Owen Sound, pyrex silver pie plate; 3rd in competition, Miss Edna Vampole, Heathcote, silver cake plate; 4th in competition, Miss Millie Heron, Tara, silver cake plate; 1st in nutrition, Miss Minnie Selin, Aytton, book; 1st in clothing, Miss Lyla Gillies, Bognot, book.

The ninety boys judged one class of horses, beef cattle, dairy cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, oats and alfalfa. In addition they named weeds and tried an examination relating to general farm problems.

The winners were:
1st in competition, Harvey Fligg, Woodford; 2nd in competition, Douglas Hammond, Thornbury; 3rd in competition, Wm. Linn, Meaford; 1st in examination, Ronald McKenzie, Meaford; 1st in livestock, Clarence McPherson, Chatsworth; 1st in grain judging, Wm. Martin, Walters Falls.

The prizes in all cases were military hair brushes.

The Canadian National Exhibition Shield presented to highest boy in competition, who has never judged before, was won by Geo. Ash of Chesley.

Stock was provided by Mr. Percy Sims, House of Refuge, Mr. H. Shaw, Mr. J. Wiley, Mr. Frank Taylor, Mr. Erskine and Mr. Hutchinson.

In the evening a banquet was held. This was catered to by the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church who provided a most sumptuous repast.

The special speakers of the evening were Miss Ethel Chapman, Editor of the Ladies' Section of the Ontario Farmer, and Mr. M. C. McPhail, Assistant Director, Agricultural Representatives' Branch, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

Musical numbers consisted of appropriate selections rendered by the Aytton Quartette, Aytton Orchestra, Miss Madge Abercrombie, Miss Audrey King, Miss Jean Murray and a chorus of eight Markdale girls.

The Judging Competition was the largest held in Ontario this year to date. The program was provided by members of the various Junior Farmer and Junior Institutes of Grey County, which were declared by Mr. McPhail to be advancing in a most commendable and encouraging manner.

Baby Contest

A baby contest is to be held at the U.F.O. picnic in Lever's Grove, Flesherton, on Friday, July 1st. The class will include all babies up to one year old, each baby being judged on the development at its age. Dr. J. E. Milne of Flesherton and Dr. F. F. Carr-Harris of Maxwell will act as judges, assisted by two competent nurses. Prizes of $5, $3, $2 and $1 will be given to the winners. Mothers and babies should be at the judging tent not later than 2:15.

Euphrasia Township S. S. Convention

The convention of the Euphrasia Township Sunday Schools took place in Ebenezer United Church, Goring, on Thursday, June 23rd and consisted of an afternoon and an evening session.

Rev. J. C. Lourie, pastor of the convention church, led in the opening exercises. The meeting was in charge of the president, Mr. Elijah Clugston. Mr. W. J. Woods, in a few well-chosen words, welcomed the delegates to the church. The response was taken by Mr. Fred Abercrombie.

We were fortunate this year in having as our provincial speaker, Rev. C. A. Myers, M.A. D.D., head of our teacher training work in Ontario. He gave very helpful addresses both afternoon and evening. He stressed the fact that the first essential in our Sunday School work is that the child may be brought into vital contact with Christ so that he may guide his life thereby, that our Sunday Schools may send out Christian men and women able to choose right and to do right in the presence of wrong.

Dr. G. S. Smith of Meaford spoke in the afternoon from the words "And he brought him to Jesus."

In the evening Rev. H. S. Warren gave a very able address on the supremacy of Jesus in every phase of life. These were much appreciated by all who were privileged to attend.

In the afternoon the delegates enjoyed a duet by Miss Tressie Woods and Master Harvey Parker. "I Think, when I read that Sweet Story of Old" and in the evening we were favoured with a solo by Miss Dorothy Beckett. The Ebenezer Ladies' Aid were tendered the thanks of the convention for the splendid supper they served and the entertainment given.

The financial report showed a surplus of $19.77. In view of this fact it was decided that we contribute $10 as a special offering to the O.R.E.C. to aid them in carrying on their work of assisting poorer Sunday Schools in these difficult times when they find it harder to meet the need.

The people of Temple Hill Church extended an invitation to the Convention to meet at their church next year.

Here and There

Mount Forest is holding a chaqueta in July.

Ontario observes its 150th anniversary in 1934.

Orangeville Box Lacrosse team recently defeated Mimico 11 to 10.

Hanover Public School Board have reduced the salaries for next year.

Mr. Irwin Sharpe, a Durham boy has been engaged to teach on the High School staff there.

Dr. A. Groves, surgeon of Fergus was the first person to buy a railway ticket from Toronto to Fergus.

Five Midway residents were recently granted naturalization and two other cases were adjourned.

The home of Mr. Harry Patton, former road superintendent in Artemesia, was totally destroyed by fire.

The salaries of the teachers and caretaker in the Orangeville High School are over $1000 less than last year.

Waterloo is holding a band reunion on July 2nd. This is the greatest musical show that has been attempted in Canada.

Two young boys in Collingwood cashed a Guarantee Bond, issued by a clothing house, and are now out on probation for one year.

The Thornbury Review-Herald celebrated last week the 60th anniversary of the establishment of a newspaper in the Beaver Valley.

Tony Muico of Bolton was dynamited while swimming in the Humber river near Palgrave and later died in the Orangeville hospital.

The congregation of All Saints' Church in Collingwood has erected a memorial tablet to the memory of W. A. Hamilton who was a member of that church for seventy-five years.

Markdale school has been more fortunate in escaping the measles than has S. S. No. 3, West Luther Twp. Out of 24 on the roll only two have so far escaped. The whole entrance class was in quarantine and the teacher was also sick during May.

Card of Thanks

To all who were so kind and helpful at the time of the illness and death of my father, the late J. P. Walton, I desire to express my sincere thanks. I also wish to acknowledge the beautiful floral tributes.
