Wodehouse

A number of farmers have made start at the haying operations but owing to the recent rains it is still in the field. Road work will soon be completed and haying making will be along in general earnest.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick, accompanied by Misses Orlie Kirkpatrick, Ella and Lavina Wiley and Mrs. Frank Wiley, motored to Toronto on Thursday on a pleasure trip.

The Wodehouse softball team along with a goodly number of spectators from here attended the garden party at Ebenezer, townline, on Thursday and report a good time. The boys were not as fortunate as we would like them to have been, but cheer up, lads, every cloud has a silver lining.

Mrs. W. J. Cornfield of Epping has moved into the house owned by Mr. R. H. Wiley, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William Woods. This leaves the entire residential section of our little village occupied. Wodehouse now boasts a population of 32, together with a general store, barber shop and a chopping mill. Come on over Riverdale with your jewelry shop and join the party. We will try and tuck you in somewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Becherley and children of Clarksburg visited on the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Thompson.

Mr. A. Gibbons of Toronto spent the holiday and week-end with his wife and family here.

The scholars of both school sections No. 16 and 19 were successful with their examinations this year. Quite a number in S. S. No. 16 passed with honours.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Fawcett on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Fawcett and children of Meaford, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Cornfield and children of Epping and Mr. and Mrs. H. Fawcett of Kimberley, Mr. Jos. Fawcett of Painsville, Ohio, who is spending the summer with relatives in Euphrasia and Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Fawcett of Detroit. Mr. Fawcett returned to the city on Monday while Mrs. Fawcett will remain for several weeks.

Misses Violet and Blanche Cornfield of Epping have been staying with Mrs. W. J. Cornfield in her new home here for a few days.

Miss Gladys Wiley, Mr. Elmer Wiley and Mr. Speers of Toronto and Mr. Mason of Barrie spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnston of Vandeur, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wiley and Miss Gladys Wiley motored to Owen Sound on Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Lyons of Hopeville is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Fawcett.

On Monday evening the Cherry Grove and Kimberley softball teams met on the Wodehouse grounds and played a game resulting in a large score for Cherry Grove. Some of the combatants entered a dispute which got very interesting, winding up with an equally interesting scrimmage among some of the fairer sex, but as there was not an efficient umpire available for a lady's scrap, we are unable to give you the score.

East Berkeley

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Murray and Bernice and Doris of Blantyre spent a day recently with Mrs. Murray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Steer.

Mrs. R. Madill and son of Dundalk are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Woyce.

The entrance pupils of Miss Jean Clugston wrote their examinations at Chatsworth.

Rev. G. R. Kitching preached his farewell sermon at Harkaway on Sunday last. He and Mrs. Kitching have the good wishes of all in their new field of labor.

Mrs. Jane Woyce had the misfortune to break her collar bone recently at Walters Falls. We hope to see her about again.

Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver spent the first of July with Mr. and Mrs. John Steer.

A number of our citizens attended the Sunday School convention at Ebenezer and report an interesting time.

We hope soon to hear of the complete recovery of Mr. Gilbert McGinnis of Berkeley, who was recently injured in an accident.

We welcome Rev. Laycock of Holland Centre to his new charge.

Misses Catherine and Mary Smith of Kincairdine are visiting with their sister, Mrs. Harry Johnston.

We understand that Mr. Thos. Clark was injured and hope that he will soon be well again.

Donaldson - Jackson

A very pretty wedding took place in the chapel of Erskine United Church, Toronto, at 3 o'clock, Saturday, July 2nd, when Florence Anna Wray, only daughter of Mr. J. A. Jackson and the late Mrs. Jackson of Markdale, became the bride of Mr. Eric Alvin Donaldson of Toronto, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Donaldson of Picton.

Rev. Dr. Laidlaw officiated, and the wedding music was played by Miss Grace Irwin, organist of the church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charmingly gowned in egg-shell angel skin lace, made on long lines, with a fan train, and having long tight sleeves. Her hat was in oyster shade mohair with velvet ribbon, and carried a shower bouquet of Talisman roses, orchids and lily of the valley. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Anna Rolston, wearing a graceful gown of shell pink point d'esprit, with large picture hat of pink mohair, trimmed with powder blue transparent velvet ribbon, with matching shoes, and wore the bride's gift, long powder blue kid gloves, pleated from the elbow to the wrist, and carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart roses and cornflowers.

Mr. Ian McArthur of Toronto attended the groom. For travelling the bride donned a pink and white ensemble, and after a honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson will reside in Toronto.

Sutherland - Breadner

On Wednesday, June 22nd a pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Breadner, when their daughter, Hazel Blanche, was united in marriage to David Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sutherland of Chatsworth.

Rev. J. R. Wilkinson officiated. At 4 o'clock the bride entered the living room on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding music played by Mrs. Wm. Rathwell sister of the groom.

Gowned in pale pink georgette, the bride took her place beside the groom under a beautiful arch of roses, banked with pink and white peonies and foliage. She was radiantly lovely in a gown of white slipper satin trimmed with lace.

The brilliant at the bodice matched an exquisite necklace she wore. Her long veil was of white silk tulle and was arranged on her fair hair, cap fashion, banded with orange blossoms. She wore white kid shoes.

Her bridal flowers were ophelia roses and lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern, arranged in a shower of white ribbons.

Miss Jean Sutherland, sister of the groom was gowned in pale pink tulle over satin and wore white kid slippers. She carried yellow roses and fern, bowed with pink tulle. The groom was supported by Mr. Lloyd Breadner, brother of the bride. Mrs. Hugh Menary of Owen Sound, sang very sweetly "Because," as they signed the marriage register.

Following the ceremony the bride led the way to the dining room which was decorated in pink and white, where a wedding dinner was served to about seventy-five friends and relatives. The wedding cake in which the bride placed the knife occupied the centre table.

The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque, to the bridesmaid a white kid purse and to the best man gold cuff links, to the pianist, gold necklace and to the soloist silver salt and pepper set. The bride's mother wore a gown of brown satin and a corsage bouquet of white roses, while the groom's mother wore a gown of mauve and white crepe and a corsage bouquet of red roses and fern.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful gifts including cheques from their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland left by motor on a honeymoon trip to North Bay and other points. The bride wore a most becoming dress of blue beige, hat and shoes, gloves and coat in harmonizing shades. Upon return Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland will reside near Chatsworth.

25 YEARS AGO

Gleaned from The Standard of July 4th, 1907

Mr. Thos. Mathews was reported critically ill.

G. E. Gray of Toronto took possession of The Markdale House.

Mrs. William Milsap, aged 74 years passed away in Toronto on Sunday, June 30th. Interment took place in Markdale cemetery on Wednesday.

A monument was erected at Vandeur to the memory of the pioneers of that district. It was unveiled on July 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Young of Holland celebrated their golden wedding on June 27th, 1907.

Annual Picnic

The sixth annual picnic conducted by the United Farmers' organization in Lorer's grove near Flesherston on Friday last was quite successful in spite of the threatening weather and other counter attractions.

Mr. T. K. Slack, M.P.P. for Dufferin, presided over the program in the afternoon. Addresses were given by Miss A. C. Macphail, M.P. for South East Grey and Mr. F. R. Oliver, M.P.P. for South Grey.

In softball Williamsford defeated the Flesherston boys by 17 to 9, while Durham girls won from Dundalk by 6 to 5. Vandeur won the softball tournament. Holstein won from Strathavon by 3 to 1 in football.

The beauty contest prizes were given as follows: 1st, Miss Agnes Irwin of Flesherston; 2nd, Mrs. Royden McDonald of Flesherston; 3rd, Miss Alemedia Hincks of Priceville.

Baby McCartney and Baby Rutledge were awarded first prize in the baby contest with Baby Johnston of Vandeur second, Baby Hawton of Faversham third and baby Proctor of Melancthon fourth.

Great interest was taken in the horseshoe pitching contest and the races. We have not been able to secure the names of the several prize winners.

The Tom Hamilton Concert Co. pleased the audience with a varied program.

While the attendance was not as great as in some former years the picnic was considered a splendid success.

Here and There

Thornbury's tax rate has been struck at 36 mills.

Meaford canning factory has commenced operations.

There are 55 inmates in the Simcoe House of Refuge.

Fifty pupils wrote on the Entrance examinations in Flesherston.

Nell Mattaini of Fergus was killed when the car in which he was riding crashed into a truck.

Wm. J. Robinson, a prominent citizen of Meaford, passed away a week ago Saturday, aged 73.

The hall at the Agricultural Society's grounds at Woodbridge was destroyed by fire a week ago Sunday.

Thos. Greer, a life-long resident of Dufferin County, died at his home in Shelburne on June 22nd, aged 72 years.

Geo. Long of Maxwell is the new Master of Flesherston Masonic lodge.

William Knechtel, for many years in the milling business at Hanover, died on Tuesday, June 25th, aged 53 years.

Dr. A. G. Allen of Toronto has taken the place of Dr. J. W. Wallace with Drs. McLean and Stewart in Shelburne.

Walter Wilkinson of Mulmur township had both legs broken when he fell from a barn roof which he was shingling.

Collingwood's two papers have amalgamated and will be published by the former owners under the name "Enterprise-Bulletin."

Dufferin County Council disposed of $65,000 in debentures at 98.57. The debentures are at 6 per cent. and will cost the County 6.11.

Garfield Gilbert, merchant at Mansfield, died suddenly while attending a Masonic dance in Alliston a week ago Saturday night.

The printing plant of the Palmerston Spectator has been moved to Guelph because of the lack of support by the people at home. The paper will be printed in Guelph.

Flesherston is holding a re-union picnic on August 1st. The Toronto Committee is bringing the same Band with them as played at the re-union in 1929, namely, the Canadian Field Artillery Band.

Milton Danhart and Mrs. Jacob Holler of Hanover were killed on Sunday in an auto accident near Dobbinton. Mrs. Danhart and Mr. Holler were injured along with six others, occupants of two other cars.

Attempting to pass on a hill was the cause of the accident.

Bert Smith of Belfountain, driver of the car that ran over little Marion Paton, of West Garafraxa on June 6th, appeared before Magistrate Watt in Guelph police court on Friday and was sentenced to thirty days in jail, fined fifty dollars and his driver's license cancelled for sixty days.

Mr. L. L. M. Merriam who has been principal of the Flesherston Public School for the past two years has accepted a position on the staff of Thornbury Continuation School.

Mr. Clarence Chapple of Meaford has been selected as his successor.

Mrs. C. J. Bellamy has also resigned and her vacancy will be filled by Miss Hazel Inkster of Flesherston.
