

Chatsworth

The entrance examinations are over. School is closed and everybody is happy. There were 52 pupils writing, quite a number less than last year, when 81 pupils wrote. Miss Evelyn Shute presided at Chatsworth and Mr. C. Graham presided at Kilsyth.

Mr. Thos. Collins' tender for flooring one room in the Public School was accepted by the school board. The work will be done at once and will be ready for school opening in September.

Miss Emily Acheson has been engaged as principal of the Continuation School here at a good salary. Miss Acheson comes highly recommended to the board and with the present staff we will have excellent results.

"Put your name on your gate" would be a good slogan for the farmers of Grey County. What is more embarrassing to a stranger driving through the county looking for Tom Brown or Bill Jones' farm, than to drive up a lane to a house and ask "Is this where Tom Brown lives?" "Oh, no," is the reply, "they live about 3 miles farther south." Possibly Miss Macphail could induce Premier Henry to donate a name plate to every farmer.

Mr. Will Hunter of Durham is visiting at the cottage with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. MacDonald.

Rev. Sydney Martin preached the anniversary services at Kemble, on Sunday, July 3rd. The Massie choir led the singing at the United Church here Sunday evening which was very much appreciated by the large congregation.

The County Council did a real job at their June session; cut the rate one half mill. If some enterprising Reeve or Deputy-Reeve in Grey County wanting to get in the limelight and do something to lower the County rate, would just ask himself three questions: Why the Treasurer is still receiving $3000.00 salary? Why it is necessary to have an assistant? Why does County Council pay rent for an office for the Treasurer when there are plenty of offices in the Court House where, we think, is the proper place for the Treasurer's office. The County is paying for the upkeep of this County Building. We have no fault to find with the Treasurer. He is a faithful, honest, upright, diligent servant of the County. The fault lies with the members of the Council that the tax rate is as high as it is. Think it over Reeves and Deputy-Reeves.

Mr. Harry Shaw, who has had another operation at the General hospital, Owen Sound, is getting along as well as can be possibly expected and will soon be able to return home.

If you have never visited Chatsworth on your motor trips you don't know what you are missing. We have a real smart place, good stores that will compare favourably with the city stores for service, price and quality, four good churches and our schools and staff are second to none, two large service stations and gas pumps by the score. Visit Chatsworth and be convinced.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Galbraith motored from Stratford and spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ritz in the village.

Chatsworth is to have a real up-to-date bake shop. Machinery and equipment are being placed in the store formerly occupied by Mr. Taylor and now owned by L. D. Merriam. It is to be hoped the merchants, citizens and surrounding country will handle and use bread made in Chatsworth.

Mrs. Will Flynn and Mary are spending a week with Mrs. Walker. Williamsford held the annual field day and baseball tournament on Monday, July 4th. It was a perfect day, and the gate receipts were over $70. A program of sports, which was a credit to any town was much enjoyed. The day was closed with a real old time dance.

We would like to see more citizens and farmers around here taking The Markdale Standard. This is a real live paper and well worth the price of the subscription.

Mr. Shokan has bought the furniture and undertaking business of Mr. D. Halbert and took possession this week. He has purchased a new ambulance and funeral limousine.

About forty guests gathered last Saturday to a sumptuous fowl supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hog of Holland. The occasion was the 54th birthday of Mr. Robt. Hogg, sr. The celebration was rather unique as until very recently Mr. Hogg did not know the exact date of his birth. He knew the year and month but not the day, but by communicating with the Parish registrar of the County Berry, Ireland, the date has been fully established. Mr. Hogg was the recipient of many useful and appropriate presents which went to show the esteem in which he is held. Among the company were his two sons, three daughters and ten grandchildren.

The tables were literally filled with delicious viands and they disappeared so rapidly it showed they were appreciated. After the candles were lit, cake cut and partaken of by all, a toast was proposed to the host and heartily responded to by all. The party then adjourned to the spacious drawing room where by a glowing fire in the large fire-place, anecdotal stories, free and easy discussions, solo and community singing pleased all. The party thoroughly enjoyed themselves until midnight when the company, after many hearty hand shakes and well wishes to host and hostess, retired to their various homes feeling they had had a most enjoyable evening.
