Swinging into a romantic South Sea setting comes a soft-voiced group of Hawaiian singers in native costume who play Hawaiian music as it is meant to be played. Steel guitars, ukuleles and rich voices blend naturally into the pungent melodies of this island territory.

One of the brightest and most colorful of musical treats appearing in the Armories at Markdale on September 23, 24, 26 and 27, on the second day of the Chautauqua—"An Evening in Hawaii", presented by Vierra's Hawaiians. Albert Vierra and his notable company of native singers and instrumentalists will feature Hawaiian music as it should be played and sung. Mr. Vierra has won fame throughout Europe and America for his artistic musical productions which give a vivid glimpse of life in the far away and glamorous islands of the Pacific. Amid a setting of colorful tropical splendour, haunting Hawaiian melodies, quaint comedy, and splendid singing round out this "Evening in Hawaii". In the afternoon Mrs. Vierra takes you on an informative, informal visit to Hawaii, which enhances and gives meaning to the ever changing, colorful Hawaiian stage setting.

"We can thank Long Distance for that cheque"

Old man Carrington was selling his farm and there were two fine teams for quick sale. Bill Smart didn't need them but he thought of a man he knew in the cartage business in town.

Bill called his man by Long Distance telephone that night and arranged to buy both teams for him next day on commission.

A few days later he had a nice cheque in the mail — and his telephone call cost him only 30 cents.

Low evening rates on station-to-station calls begin 7:00 p.m. Still lower night rates at 8:30 p.m.
