Markdale Fair Was Successful

In Spite of Unfavourable Weather Show was Good

Markdale Fair on Wednesday was quite successful in spite of unfavorable weather conditions. The attendance was not up to the average but there was a good crowd present he passed away Saturday.

In the 2:15 class only two horses contested. Mac McGregor Collingwood a close second.

In the 2:28 race four horses were entered and they were evenly matched. Vannie Boy, owned by R. Nesbitt of Listowel, won first money with one fourth and two firsts: Ideal Patch, (J. O'Connor of Sollingwood) was second with one first and two seconds; Verna Patch, owned by B. Porteous of Maxwell, nook third money with one second and two thirds, while E. Seeley's (Maxwell) Teddy Patch got fourth with a third and two fourths.

The show of horses was well up to the average of the shows here and many good animals were shown in both the heavy and light classes. Cattle were numerous and of good up to former years.

numerous as in some former years Church. many good birds were shown.

The showing of grain and seeds was fairly good while roots and vegetables were in great numbers and of excellent quality. There was a splendid showing of fruit, the apples being particularly attractive. The showing of dairy produce was most creditable as was also in the domestic science department. There was a splendid showing of house flowers and plants.

In ladies' work the entries were not as numerous as in previous fears, due to the fact that the show was confined to Grey County. The Art Class was also good.

The School Fair exhibits added much to the inside show and much interest was taken in these.

The list of prize winners will be published as soon as compiled by the secretary.

Vandeleur

Anniversary services will be held in Vandeleur Church next Sunday afternoon and evening on Oct. 9th. Services will be at 2:30 and 7:20 p. Rev. S. McAusland of Kimber ley will preach in the afternoon and Rev. Bennett of Flesherton in the Special music is prepared by the choir, and the officials and members are looking forward to a refreshing and helpful anniversary occasion.

The mid-week meetings which are being held in the church every Wednesday evening are proving very profitable and interesting and are exceptionally well attended. The meetings open with a song service after which the pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren gives an address. This is followed by a period of games, contests and wholesome recreation in the basement of the church.

> For the evening service the church was filled to capacity to again have the pleasure of welcoming Rev. H. S. Warren of Markdale and hearing the inspirational message brought by him.

By this message we are led to see that though the clouds hang dar; and low, things may seem to go wrong, fear may follow in the way of doubt but if we stand firmly and heroically by our faith even in this somewhat topsy-turvy situation and make the best of things it will be an achievement worthy of our fines endeavour. If love reigns at th heart of Life the peace which passeth all understanding will keep the heart and the mind in the knowledge that sees and is never afraid.

The evening anthems "O, Master et me walk with Thee" and "Magnify the Lord with me", also the quartette "Christ my Refuge" were fitting numbers given in a very pleasing manner.

The officials and congregation as a whole of Victoria Church wish to take this opportunity of sincerely thanking all who so willingly contributed in making these services so
