R. A. Russell (nee Grace Walters) gathered at the home of her parents on Thursday evening, Sept. 29th and presented her with a reversible wool blanket, half dozen stainless knives and forks, electric table lamp and kitchen clock. The following address was read by Miss Ina Bradley:

Berkeley, Ont.
September 29th, 1932.

Dear Grace:

We have gathered here to-night to spend a few pleasant hours with you and to wish you joy and happiness in your joint partnership.

You, Grace, have grown up amongst us and we have always found you cheerful and a good sport and good friend. While your husband has not lived among us, we feel he, too, is one of us. We wish you both a very pleasant wedded life and ask you to accept these gifts as a slight token of remembrance of your friends at Berkeley and community.

Signed on behalf of your friends,
Elsie Caswell
Isabelle Rowe
Ina Bradley

The bride responded and thanked all for the lovely gifts. All joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow". Cards and dancing were enjoyed for the evening.

The Cooks Do It

The old army idea of making the best of everything showed up again to-day.

Three years ago the 14th Grey Overseas Battalion decided to hold another re-union in 1932. Things were on the boom in 1929 and no one had any idea that the present conditions would prevail in 1932.

When it looked as if the success of the re-union might be doubtful on account of the expense, the old Battalion cooks came to the rescue. They lined up, thresher it out and they are going to serve a real old-time army meal, line up the troops and everything at the Grey Re-union on Thanksgiving, Oct. 10th.

The City Hall has been given for the occasion and local churches are furnishing the dishes, and the money in hand takes care of all expense. There's no charge to anyone.

The old course on an army meal is again lifted—the grub the old Grey soldier said good-bye to forever has now a sentimental appeal, and with his old comrades at his side he'll eat it and like it, and more registrations of old timers are already in hand than on previous occasions.

The re-union committee has the transportation committees in all the large cities and a great gathering is looked forward to.

The old Grey Battalion cooks are staging a big come back.
