

Vandeaur

The chicken pie social held in the church on Tuesday evening of last week, Nov. 15th, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid, was well attended and was a decided success. An excellent supper was served in the basement where the ladies again lived up to their reputation of excellent cooks. A good program given in the auditorium of the church consisted of a play put on by New England talent entitled "Marrying Ann". This was quite interesting. Mrs. Nelson Wilcox as "Ann" took a very heavy part exceptionally well and all the other actors were also good. Between acts Mrs. Thompson gave a solo. Miss V. Wiley demonstrated club swinging and Edgar Fawcett and Mr. Thompson gave musical numbers. Rev. H. S. Warren presided. Proceeds amounted to about $20.00.

Roll Call "A duty of the hostess." An excellent paper was given by Miss Myrtle Freeman on "Little Courtesies worth knowing and observing." Mrs. Glen McGee gave a very fine reading. Rev. H. S. Warren was present and gave an address on his holiday trip last summer which was very interesting and instructive and was enjoyed by all present. An exhibit of useful articles made from flour bags was displayed. This showed what wonderful things could be made from them. The meeting closed with God save the King. Lunch was served by Misses Nellie and Dora Boland, Dorothy Halbert, Myrtle Freeman, Hazel Wyvill and May Graham.
